ON THE COVER

The cover of the 1995 Miami Dolphins Media Guide features quarterback Dan Marino and linebacker Bryan Cox. In 1994 Marino made a remarkable comeback from a severe Achilles' tendon injury to lead the AFC in passing and is poised to set NFL career records for touchdown passes and passing yardage. In his first full season at middle linebacker last year, Cox led the Dolphins in tackles and was named to his second Pro Bowl.

H. WAYNE HUIZENGA

Owner/President/
Chief Executive Officer

NFL: Sixth Season
Dolphins: Sixth Season
Born: December 29, 1937

H. Wayne Huizenga began his active involvement in South Florida sports on March 7, 1990, when he purchased 15% of the Miami Dolphins and a 50% interest in Joe Robbie Stadium. That involvement was finalized on January 24, 1994, when he acquired the remaining 85% of the Dolphins and the additional 50% of the stadium, leaving him with 100% ownership of both the Dolphins and their stadium.

In addition to his ownership of the Dolphins and Joe Robbie Stadium, his personal investments also include a majority ownership of Major League Baseball's Florida Marlins and 100% ownership of the National Hockey League's Florida Panthers. Other business interests include companies involved in the service industry, real estate, hotels, and entertainment.

A resident of the South Florida area since 1953, Mr. Huizenga began his business career in 1962 when he purchased a one-truck waste collection route in Fort Lauderdale. Southern Sanitation grew rapidly, and by 1971 Mr. Huizenga merged with a relative in Chicago to create Waste Management Inc., which is now the largest waste management firm in the world. He was the company's president and vice chairman prior to resigning in 1984 to pursue his personal investment interests.

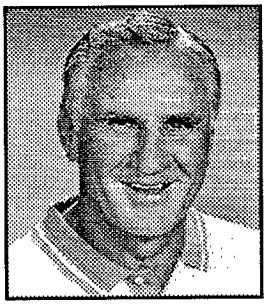
In 1987, Mr. Huizenga purchased an interest in Blockbuster Entertainment when the video rental outlet consisted of a total of 19 stores. As chairman and chief executive officer of Blockbuster Entertainment Corporation, Mr. Huizenga saw the franchise grow to over 4,400 stores prior to its merger with Viacom.

His community involvement and industry leadership have earned him many prestigious awards, including his 1994 induction into the Greater Miami Sports Hall of Champions. He was honored as the 1994 Humanitarian of the Year by the National Conference of Christians and Jews and received the Bronze Award as 1993 CEO of the Year from Financial World. In addition, he was honored along with his wife Marti, as "Outstanding Philanthropists for 1991" by the Greater Broward/Fort Lauderdale chapter of the National Society Fund Raising Executives. Among his other awards are the Horatio Alger award in 1992, and the Gordon Grand Fellow award, the highest non-academic award that Yale University bestows. He also was named Business Leader of the Year in 1993 by Georgetown University's Business School and was named Success Magazine's 1995 "Entrepreneur of the Year." He was inducted into the Video Hall of Fame in 1991 and named Time-Billboard Magazine's "Man of the Year" in 1990 for his contributions to the growth and development of the video retail industry.

Mr. Huizenga sits as a board member of many civic organizations, including the Florida Council of 100, the Florida Chamber of Commerce, the Broward Economic Development Board, the Salvation Army, the Boys Club of Broward County and the Museum of Art and is Chairman of the Florida Council on Economic Education.

Mr. Huizenga, 57, and wife Marti live in Fort Lauderdale. They have four children: Wayne, Jr., Ray, Scott, and Pam.

DON SHULA



Vice President/Director of Football Operations/ Head Coach

College: John Carroll
NFL: 33rd Season
Dolphins: 26th Season
Born: January 4, 1930

"Don Shula can take his'n and beat you'n, and he could take you'n and beat his'n."
– "BUM" PHILLIPS

For three decades, Don Shula has taken "his'n" and built a coaching career unparalleled in National Football League annals. During that time, he set records that probably never will be surpassed, and all of his accomplishments led to a peak that was reached on November 14, 1993, when the Miami Dolphins defeated the Philadelphia Eagles 19-14. Shula won his 325th career game that afternoon in Philadelphia and became the winningest coach in NFL history, surpassing George Halas' career total of 324 victories, a mark once thought to be unreachable.

When Shula became pro football's winningest coach, he received well-deserved accolaids from coast to coast, culminating in the presentation of the NFL Lifetime Achievement Award by Commissioner Paul Tagliabue on the eve of Super Bowl XXVIII. But in breaking one of the most revered records in NFL history, Shula never lost sight of his priorities.

"I'm proud of that record because it primarily represents team success over a long period of time," said Shula. "I've always felt that if you prepared as hard as you possibly can each and every week and then played well on Sunday, the numbers would take care of themselves. That philosophy has been reflected by the fact that in my 32 years as a head coach my teams have averaged ten regular season wins a year."

So while others may marvel at his unprecedented achievements in the sport, Shula has a clear perspective of what is really important. He is always looking ahead, constantly working to build the Dolphins into winners. That effort resulted in a 10-6 record last year and an AFC Eastern Division title, the second time in the last three years that the Dolphins won the division championship. They went on to earn a berth in the AFC Divisional Playoffs and continued to be one of the winningest teams in the 1990s. In fact, in the five seasons from 1990-94, the Dolphins have qualified for post-season play three times, advancing to the Divisional playoffs twice and the AFC Championship Game once. Shula's constant drive to get the most out of his team and his refusal to rest on his laurels are important reasons why he has been the most successful coach ever in the NFL.

"My goal is the same every year — to win the Super Bowl," said Shula, "and we will do everything we can to do just that. I felt we made progress in that direction last year, and I hope we can use those accomplishments as a base to build on to make it back to the Super Bowl and then win it this season."

But there is more to Shula than just his victories, as impressive as that total might be. While he has gained widespread respect for his success, beyond that he has earned universal admiration for his integrity, an intangible that can't be measured by a won-loss record.

Without question, Don Shula has made an impression in football, both on and off the field, that may never be duplicated.

"If I'm remembered for anything as a coach," said Shula, "I hope it's for playing within the rules. I also hope it will be said that my teams showed class and dignity in victory or defeat."

And Shula's teams are an extension of that philosophy. It's no coincidence that the Dolphins have been the least penalized team in the NFL during his seasons in Miami. In fact, the Dolphins led the AFC seven times since 1982 (1982-86, 1990, 1991) in the fewest yards penalized, and were among the top three teams in that category overall in the NFL nine times in that span, including six times (1982-84, 1986, 1990-91) as the league leaders. Shula represents everything that's right about his profession, and certainly his coaching accomplishments will almost be impossible to match. Beginning his 33rd year as an NFL head coach and his 26th season with the Dolphins, he is travelling down a road whose final destination will be Canton, Ohio, and the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Some of the stops along that journey have established yardsticks for victories and championships virtually unmatched in NFL history:

- With 338 all-time victories, Shula is the winningest coach in pro football history, passing George Halas (324 wins)
- With 319 regular season wins, Shula has the most career regular season victories, passing Halas (318 wins)
- Shula is pro football's winningest active coach with a 338-165-6 overall mark (.670 winning percentage)
- On September 22, 1991, in a 16-13 win over the Green Bay Packers he became only the second coach in the history of the NFL to record 300 career wins
- On December 27, 1992, in a 16-13 win over the Patriots, Shula became the second coach in NFL history to register 300 regular season wins, reaching that total in his 30th season as a head coach
- Shula is the only coach to guide a team through an undefeated season (17-0 in 1972)
- Shula has appeared in more Super Bowls (six) than any coach
- Shula is one of only two coaches (along with Buffalo's Marv Levy) to reach the Super Bowl three straight seasons (1971-73)
- Since 1970, Shula has led the Dolphins to the best regular season winning percentage (.662) of any team in professional sports.
- Shula and Halas are the only coaches in NFL history to make playoff appearances in four different decades
- Shula has amassed 319 regular season wins in his 32 years as a head coach, an average of ten wins per season
- Shula is the youngest coach to win 100 games
- Shula is the youngest coach to win 200 games
- Shula is the youngest coach to win 300 games
- Shula's career regular season winning percentage (.679) is the best among the NFL's all-time top-10 coaches
- Since joining the Dolphins in 1970, Shula has a 65-20 (.765) record against the NFC, including a 35-6 record at home (23-4 in the Orange Bowl and 12-2 at Joe Robbie Stadium). That also is by far the best inter-conference record by any NFL team since the 1970 merger
- Shula is the only coach to present two players for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in the same year (Larry Csonka and Jim Langer, 1987), and has made four overall presentations (Bob Griese, 1990, Larry Little, 1993).

Shula has become to coaching what his unbeaten 1972 Miami Dolphins are to team accomplishment: the standard of excellence by which all others are measured. He was voted Coach of the Decade for the 1970s by the Pro Football Hall of Fame's 25-member selection committee, and his Dolphins reached the playoffs five more times in the 1980s, as well as three times in the first five years of the 1990s.

His "ultimate" achievement was the NFL's only unbeaten, untied record of 17-0 in 1972 in only the third season of Shula's transformation of the Dolphins from a struggling American Football League franchise to an NFL power. His incredible two-year record of 32-2, including Super Bowl conquests in 1972 and 1973, probably never will be surpassed.

Maybe because Shula never regarded an unbeaten season as impossible, the feat became a reality.

With teams in Baltimore and Miami, Shula has built six unbeaten streaks of 10 or more games, and no other coach has more than two 10-game streaks. His .655 winning mark in 25 seasons in Miami (265-139-2) parallels his .728 percent success in Baltimore (73-26-4) from 1963 to 1969.

The Dolphins have either won or shared first place in the AFC East 15 times in the 25 years under Shula, and have reached the playoffs 15 times. His Dolphins were almost invincible at the Orange Bowl with an 111-26-1 record (.808), including an NFL-record 31-game winning streak at home from 1971 to 1974. A remarkable 21 times in 32 seasons, Shula's teams have won at least 10 games.

Shula, 65, has made a mark on the game as an innovator of defensive complexities and situational substitutions (including the use of the "no-huddle" offense as far back as 1984, culminating with Super Bowl XIX that season), and he has a reputation as a great motivator. Certainly, other coaches can develop brilliant strategy and exhort their players to perform at peak. But Shula seems to surpass others in his skill as a teacher.

"The important thing is not what Don Shula knows or what any of my assistant coaches know," Shula says. "The important thing is what we can transmit to the people we're responsible for. They're going to be tested on Sunday afternoon, and the fact that we win on Sunday afternoon indicates that we're getting through to them. That's what coaching is – the ability to transmit information."

Twice with the Dolphins, in 1970 and 1977, Shula has deployed five rookies in the starting defense and won 10 of 14 games each season. And for those exigencies brought on by injuries to his starting quarterback, Shula has more solutions. Backup quarterbacks for the Dolphins have a 30-13 record under Shula since 1970.

He cultivates a winning attitude in preseason success which reads 107-48-4 (.686), including 32-4-1 at Baltimore and 75-44-3 at Miami.

He had been the youngest head coach, 33, in NFL history when the Colts picked him in 1963 after Shula's three years as defensive coordinator of the Detroit Lions. In the old NFL, the Colts reached the title game in 1964 and 1968 after 12-2 and 13-1 campaigns, and the 1967 Colts posted an 11-1-2 record. Those three powerhouse teams averaged almost 30 points per game offensively.

Shula's resourcefulness is best documented in 1965 when injuries sidelined Colt quarterbacks John Unitas and Gary Cuozzo, and halfback Tom Matte wore the "playbook" on his wristband and directed a 20-17 upset at Los Angeles. That wristband is now permanently displayed in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Shula transformed a 3-10-1 Dolphin team into a playoff qualifier his first season in Miami and laid the foundation for a perennial contender. In 1971, the Dolphins won their first of four consecutive AFC East titles, and on Christmas Day in Kansas City, the NFL's longest game (82 minutes, 40 seconds) ended with Garo Yepremian's winning 37-yard field goal in the second overtime. A week later, the Dolphins stymied the Unitas-led Colts 21-0 on the same Orange Bowl field where Baltimore had won Super Bowl V the previous January.

Dethroning the Colts launched the Dolphins to three consecutive AFC championships – a feat unequalled in either conference since the 1970 merger until the Bills won their third straight AFC title three years ago. But a disappointing 24-3 loss to the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl VI filled Shula and his players with greater drive, and in 1972 the Dolphins attracted headlines as the "Greatest Team Ever."

Shula had claimed 38-year-old Earl Morrall from the waiver list in April of 1972, recalling Morrall's leadership of the 1968 Colts. When quarterback Bob Griese suffered a broken ankle in the fifth game, Morrall took charge for 11 straight victories. The Dolphins rewrote the NFL rushing record (2,960 yards), and with a regular-season record of 105-30-5, Shula became the first NFL coach to win 100 games in his first decade. Later in his career, he was to accomplish the even more impressive feat of winning 200 games in his first 20 seasons as an NFL boss, and in 1991 he became only the second coach in NFL history (along with George Halas) to win 300 games, reaching that total in his 29th season.

Surprisingly, the unbeaten Dolphins were three-point underdogs to the Washington Redskins in Super Bowl VII. Shula elected to go with a healthy Griese, and the Dolphins dominated the Redskins 14-7 for the coach's first NFL crown.

No less impressive were the 1973 Dolphins, losing only twice in 17 games. The Dolphins set a modern NFL record by allowing only 1,290 yards passing and only five touchdown passes, and they overwhelmed three playoff opponents, 85-33, including a 24-7 rout of the Minnesota Vikings in Super Bowl VIII.

Another three-game surge in the playoffs, this time a 76-26 blitz, earned the AFC Championship in the strike-shortened 1982 season and landed the Dolphins in Super Bowl XVII. Miami held a four-point lead in the fourth quarter before Washington broke a long touchdown run that sparked a 27-17 Redskin victory.

Shula led the Dolphins to yet another Super Bowl, his fifth with Miami and his sixth overall, following the 1984 season when the Dolphins went 14-2, but they fell to San Francisco 38-16 in Super Bowl XIX.

Donald Francis Shula was born January 4, 1930, in Grand River, Ohio, and was raised in Painesville, Ohio. He was a running back at John Carroll University in Cleveland, and in 1950 he gained 125 yards when the Blue Streaks upset Syracuse, 21-15.

Shula was the lone rookie on coach Paul Brown's defending NFL champion Cleveland Browns in 1951 (until Shula's college teammate Carl Taseff joined the Browns at mid-season). Shula and Taseff were involved in the largest trade in modern NFL history, a 15-player deal with Baltimore in 1953, and Shula played four seasons with the Colts (1953-56) and one season at Washington (1957) at right cornerback. He had 21 career interceptions for 247 yards in seven seasons.

Shula entered the coaching ranks with an assistant's job at Virginia (1958) and Kentucky (1959), and he joined the NFL's Detroit Lions in 1960 under coach George Wilson – a man he later replaced in Miami. The Lions posted a 26-13-1 record with Shula as the defensive coordinator.

In 1963, Shula succeeded Weeb Ewbank as head coach at Baltimore, and in the 32 seasons which have followed he has reached the NFL's championship game seven times with two victories.

Today, he takes an active role in NFL leadership, serving since 1975 on the select NFL Competition Committee which evaluates and recommends changes in playing rules as well as regulations designed to improve the safety of playing conditions. On Dec. 9, 1993, he was named as co-chairman of that committee along with George Young of the New York Giants.

Shula has given considerable time, plus financial and emotional support, to several area charities. The Don Shula Foundation, formed primarily to assist breast cancer research, was established as a tribute to his late wife, Dorothy. As part of his Foundation activities, he organized the Shula Celebrity Classic, an event that raised thousands of dollars for that research. The Don Shula Scholarship was created in 1978 and has awarded scholarships to needy scholar-athletes at several Florida colleges. He also funds scholarships in the sports administration program at St. Thomas University, the former location of the Dolphins' training complex. Shula also has been active in the American Cancer Society, March of Dimes, American Red Cross, United Way (serving as the Dolphins' spokesman for that charity's national fund-raising efforts) and Catholic Charities.

A member of the Class of 1951 at John Carroll, Shula helps to sponsor an academic chair of studies in his name at his alma mater. The chair, funded at $1 million through major private gifts added to Shula's own commitment, is in the University's Department of Philosophy. On May 17, 1994, John Carroll University showed its appreciation for Shula's support of the school by naming its athletic complex the Don Shula Sports Center.

Because of his success on the football field and his long-time civic and charitable service, Shula has received countless prestigious awards recognizing his contributions, including, most recently, the 1993 Sport Illustrated Sportsman of the Year Award and the 1994 Horatio Alger Award. In addition, along with Ken Blanchard, in 1995 Shula co-authored "Everyone's A Coach," a highly acclaimed book that outlines the application of their managerial philosophies for business and personal success.

Shula also has drawn rave reviews for his work for three years as a studio analyst during the AFC playoffs for NBC's NFL Live. He also has provided color commentary on the Super Bowl in 1987, 1988, and 1990 for British TV, and he was a member of the NBC broadcast team for Super Bowl XXIII in 1989. On Jan. 17, 1987, Shula and his Dolphin staff (including son David, the team's assistant head coach) coached the winning South squad in the Senior Bowl in Mobile, Ala. One of his quarterbacks in that game was son Mike, then a QB from the University of Alabama.

Shula especially values his family life and his Catholic faith. He was married to the former Dorothy Bartish for over 32 years before she passed away in 1991. They raised five children – two boys and three girls.

Oldest son David, 36, and his wife Leslie have three sons, Danny, Christopher and Matthew. David joined the Dolphin coaching staff late in the 1982 season, and in 1989 was named assistant head coach for the Dallas Cowboys. He spent two years in Dallas before joining the Cincinnati Bengals as receivers coach prior to the 1991 season and in 1992 was named as the Bengals' head coach. When Don Shula's Dolphins played Dave Shula's Bengals on October 2, 1994 in Cincinnati's Riverfront Stadium (in a game Miami won 23-7), it marked the first time ever in professional sports that a father and son faced each other as head coaches. Dave starred collegiately at Dartmouth, where he set all of the pass receiving records for the Big Green. After earning his degree in history, David played for a season with the Baltimore Colts.

Mike, 30, a former all-state quarterback at Columbus High School in Miami, enjoyed an outstanding career as signal caller for the Crimson Tide of Alabama. Mike, who graduated with a degree in labor management, went to play one season with the Tampa Bay Bucs and spent three years on that team's coaching staff, including quarterback coach in 1990 before joining the Dolphins as a coaches assistant in 1991. He was named as tight ends coach of the Bears prior to the 1993 season.

The Shula's oldest daughter, Donna, has three children, Alex, Lindsey, and Tyler, and is married to Steve Cohen. Another daughter, Sharon, graduated from the University of Miami and Florida State's College of Law and currently serves as the Director of Development of the Don Shula Foundation. Youngest daughter, Annie, graduated from St. Thomas University and because of her fondness for working with animals, she started her own pet grooming business.

Shula and his wife Mary Anne continue to be very active in charitable and community affairs. They were married on Oct. 16, 1993, and reside in Miami.

SHULA IS COACH TO HALL OF FAMERS

Miami Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula has 12 of his former players enshrined in the Hall. In the Hall are five Dolphin players (Larry Csonka, Bob Griese, Jim Langer, Larry Little and Paul Warfield) and seven Colt players (Raymond Berry, Ted Hendricks, John Mackey, Gino Marchetti, Lenny Moore, Jim Parker and Johnny Unitas) who played under Shula. Shula's total of 12 Hall of Fame enshrinees is the most by any active NFL head coach. The Buffalo Bills' Marv Levy is the only other active coach to have a player enshrined in Canton, Ohio, as he coached Hall of Famer Jan Stenerud with the Kansas City Chiefs from 1978-79.

Shula is the only coach to present two players for induction into the Hall in the same year (Larry Csonka and Jim Langer, 1987), and has made three overall presentations (Bob Griese, 1990).

SHULA'S MILESTONES

Don Shula surpassed the immortal George Halas to become the winningest coach in NFL history when he registered victory number 325 during Miami's 19-14 win at Philadelphia on November 14, 1993. Shula comes into the 1995 season with a career record of 338-165-6 (.670). On December 25, 1994, in Miami's 27-20 win over Detroit, Shula won the 319th regular season game of his career and broke the NFL record for most regular season coaching wins by Halas (318 wins). Shula owns a 319-149-6 (.679) regular season record entering the 1995 season. In 1991, Shula joined Halas (324 wins) as the only NFL coaches with 300 or more career wins. Shula accomplished his milestone 300th career win with a 16-13 triumph over the Green Bay Packers on September 22, 1991. Shula won the 300th regular-season game of his coaching career with a 16-13 overtime win at New England on December 27, 1992.

Shula added another historic career milestone in Miami's 30-7 win over the Buffalo Bills on September 16, 1990, as he recorded his 200th regular season victory since joining the Dolphins in 1970. Shula joins Hall of Fame coaches Curley Lambeau (Green Bay), George Halas (Chicago) and Tom Landry (Dallas) as the only NFL coaches to earn 200 or more regular season wins with one NFL club.

SHULA BY THE DECADE

Don Shula, the NFL's all-time winningest coach, is the only coach to rank among the top five winningest coaches (based on regular season winning percentage) in the 1960's, 1970's, 1980's and 1990's. To qualify for the chart, coaches must have coached in a minimum of fifty regular games per decade.

ADMINISTRATIVE STAFF

EDDIE J. JONES

Executive Vice President/ General Manager

College: Louisiana State
NFL: 24th Season
Dolphins: Eighth Season
Born: June 18, 1938

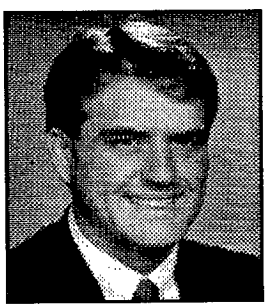
Eddie J. Jones, who has spent more than two decades in the NFL, was named as Executive Vice President and General Manager of the Dolphins on January 12, 1990. Jones had served the previous two seasons as the Dolphins' Vice President of Administration and Finance. In his current capacity, Jones oversees all financial functions of the Dolphins and directs the administrative operation of the team's front office. Following the conclusion of the 1991 season, Jones assumed the additional responsibility for overall contract negotiations with all Dolphin players and he also spearheaded the successful effort to construct a new training facility at Nova University.

Jones was president and chief operating officer of the New Orleans Saints from 1982-85. He currently serves on the NFL's Employee Benefits Committee and is a Trustee of the Bert Bell player pension plan.

A 1963 accounting graduate of LSU, Jones began his professional career as a CPA with Arthur Andersen & Co. He began his NFL career as business manager of the Saints in 1968.

An Air Force veteran, the Houston native and his wife, Marilyn, have three children, Wendy, Todd and Jeff.

BRYAN J. WIEDMEIER



Vice President - Administration

College: Carroll
NFL: 15th Season
Dolphins: 15th Season
Born: October 19, 1959

Now in his 15th season with the Dolphins, Bryan Wiedmeier was named as the club's Vice President - Administration prior to the 1995 season, after holding a variety of positions with the team since 1981.

Wiedmeier works closely with Eddie Jones in managing the club's administrative affairs. Wiedmeier's duties include administration of the club's salary cap and player contract negotiations. A member of the Florida and Federal Bars, Wiedmeier also provides assistance with the club's legal affairs. Wiedmeier served as project coordinator for the design and construction of the club's new training facility at Nova University and the team's former administrative offices at Joe Robbie Stadium.

Wiedmeier earned his J.D. degree from the University of Miami School of Law in 1989. He received his BA degree in business from Carroll College where he was a co-captain and three year starter at center for the football team.

A resident of Miami Lakes, he and his wife Mary K. have five children, Lauren, Tori, John, Dani, and Matthew.

JILL R. STRAFACI

Vice President - Finance

College: Florida
NFL: Seventh Season
Dolphins: Seventh Season
Born: September 4, 1957

Beginning her seventh season with the Dolphins, Jill R. Strafaci assumed her current role as Vice President - Finance in 1995 after serving as Treasurer since 1990. She originally joined the Dolphins as Assistant Chief Financial Officer in October, 1989. In her current position, she oversees the financial management of the club.

Before joining the Dolphins, Strafaci, a CPA, was a tax specialist with Price Waterhouse in Miami for six years, specializing in the areas of professional sports and real estate. She also worked for an accounting firm in her native Sarasota.

Strafaci graduated from the University of Florida in 1980 (accounting/finance), where she was a four-year letter-winner on the Lady Gator golf team. She resides in Miami Beach with her husband, Frank, and their son, Trenton Frank (2/4/93).

DOLPHIN FACT

The Dolphins hold NFL records for most seasons leading the league in fewest sacks allowed (10 — 1973, 1982-90) and most consecutive seasons leading the league in the same (1982-90). In addition, during the 1988 and '89 seasons the Dolphins also set an NFL record by not allowing a quarterback sack in 19 straight games. The streak far outdistanced the previous NFL mark of five straight games which was accomplished on many occasions. In 1988, Miami also set an NFL sack record by allowing only seven sacks in the 16-game season.

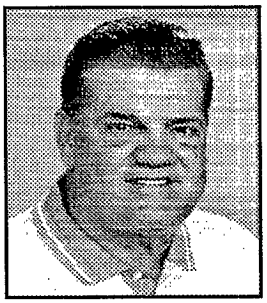
ASSISTANT COACHES

MONTE CLARK



Offensive Line

College: Southern California
NFL: 16th Season
Dolphins: Eighth Season
Born: January 24, 1937

Monte Clark enters his third tour of duty with the Dolphins, having rejoined the team as offensive line coach on February 6, 1995. Clark returns to the Dolphins after serving as head offensive line coach at Stanford University for two seasons (1993-94).

Clark takes over the overall offensive line responsibilities with the Dolphins from John Sandusky, who announced his retirement as head offensive line coach on January 18, 1995, and will work with assistant offensive line coach Rich McGeorge. Clark and Sandusky are the only two coaches to serve as head offensive line coach on a Don Shula coached team. Clark coached the offensive line with the Dolphins under Shula from 1970-75, while Sandusky was offensive line coach with the Colts (1963-69) and Dolphins (1976-94) under Shula.

Clark was part of Shula's original Dolphin coaching staff in 1970 and helped to develop the Dolphins into one of the NFL's top offensive units. Under Clark, Miami led the NFL in rushing three straight years (1971-73). During his tenure with the Dolphins, the club set an NFL record with 2,960 rushing yards in the 1972 season, including 1,000 yard seasons by Larry Csonka (1,117) and Mercury Morris (1,000). Each of Clark's five starting offensive linemen earned All-Pro status, and two, center Jim Langer and guard Larry Little, eventually were elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Clark rejoined the Dolphins on February 4, 1990, spending one season as the club's Director of Pro Personnel. In that position, Clark's duties included the evaluation of pro talent on the Dolphins and the rest of the National Football League. He was responsible for the evaluation of players on each NFL team for personnel decisions such as waiver and trade recommendations and Plan B and other free agent signings. He also was involved in the scouting procedures of upcoming Dolphin opponents.

After leaving the Dolphins following the 1990 season, Clark served as head coach of the Minsk Belarus Zubers, a professional American football team in the Soviet Union. In 1992, Clark was a sideline reporter for the Michigan State University radio network.

Clark originally left the Dolphins in 1976 and was named head coach of the San Francisco 49ers. He guided the 'Niners to an 8-6 record in 1976, his first year as a head coach.

Following his stint with San Francisco, Clark served as head coach of the Detroit Lions from 1978-84. In 1983, Clark led the Lions to a 9-7 record and the NFC Central Division championship, the team's first division title in 26 years. Clark also guided Detroit to a wild card playoff berth in 1982. While with the Lions, Clark's coaching staff included current Dolphin assistant coaches Larry Seiple and Mel Phillips. After leaving the Lions, he served as a football broadcaster in Detroit and was a color analyst on University of Michigan games.

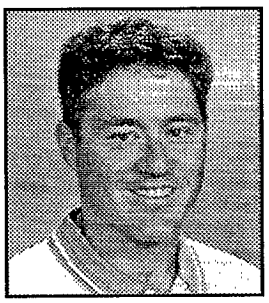
Clark's coaching career followed an 11-year playing stint as an offensive lineman with San Francisco, Dallas and Cleveland. With the Browns, he appeared in the League Championship games of 1964, '65 and '68. Clark joined the NFL following a fine college career at the University of Southern California.

In addition to his considerable football experience, Clark has a solid background in business administration as well. He owned a chain of restaurants in the San Francisco Bay area during his tenure with the 49ers and was also in the private business sector in Detroit before rejoining the Dolphins in 1990.

Clark and his wife, Charlotte, have three sons, Bryan, Randy and Eric.

JOEL COLLIER



Defensive Staff Assistant

College: Northern Colorado
NFL: Sixth Season
Dolphins: Second Season
Born: December 25, 1963

Joel Collier enters his second season with the Dolphins as a defensive staff assistant, having been named to the position on February 8, 1994. In his role, Collier assists the coaching staff and is active in the overall football operation, including personnel scouting and evaluation.

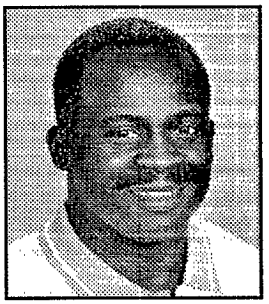
Collier joined the Dolphins after having worked three seasons (1991-93) in various capacities with the New England Patriots. He served in the pro scouting department in 1993 and worked as assistant running back and wide receiver coach during 1991-92.

Collier joined the Patriots after serving as an offensive assistant with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers during 1990. Prior to his experience with the Bucs, Collier worked two years with the quarterbacks and running backs as a graduate assistant at Syracuse University.

A three-year starter at inside linebacker at Northern Colorado, Collier was a three-time academic All-North Central Conference performer. He received his bachelor's degree in social science education.

Collier, the son of former Bills head coach and longtime Broncos defensive coordinator Joe Collier, is married to Shirley Ann and they live in Plantation. He was born on December 25, 1963, in Buffalo, N.Y.

JOHN GAMBLE



Strength

College: Hampton Institute
NFL: Second Season
Dolphins: Second Season
Born: June 26, 1957

John Gamble enters his second season with Dolphins as strength coach, having been named to the position on March 16, 1994. Gamble's primary responsibility is in the area of weight training with an emphasis on the overall physical strength of the team. In his position, Gamble works closely with Junior Wade, the Dolphins' conditioning coach, as well as the team's training and medical staffs.

Gamble joined the Dolphins after having served ten years (1984-93) as the head strength coach at the University of Virginia. He also served two seasons as assistant strength coach (1982-83) and one year on a part-time basis (1981) at Virginia. He was named 1985 Strength Coach of the Year by the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

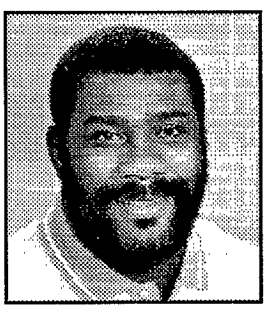
Gamble served an eight-year stint as state director for the National Strength and Conditioning Association and was named Outstanding State Director for Region II in 1984.

A world renowned weightlifter, Gamble was the number-one ranked powerlifter in the world in the 275-pound class from 1981 to 1983. He still holds the American and world records for total pounds in three lifts (full squat, 892 lbs.; bench press, 573 lbs.; and dead lift, 805 lbs.) at 1,270 pounds in the United States Powerlifting Federation.

Gamble played linebacker at Hampton Institute and was selected first-team Black College All-American. He also earned All-Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association honors in football and in track and field.

Married to Sharon, the couple has two sons, John Nathan and Austin Craig. He was born on June 26, 1957, in Richmond, Va.

JOE GREENE



Defensive Line

College: North Texas State
NFL: Ninth Season
Dolphins: Fourth Season
Born: September 24, 1946

Joe Greene enters his fourth season with the Dolphins as defensive line coach. Greene joined the Dolphins after having served five seasons (1987-91) as defensive line coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Greene, 48, joined the Steelers' coaching ranks following a successful playing career with Pittsburgh from 1969-81. With Greene in charge of the defensive line, the Steelers led the NFL in both total defense and pass defense in 1990 and were the AFC's top rated team in terms of giveaway/takeaway ratio between 1987-91. In addition, Pittsburgh finished among the top five teams in the AFC in run defense during four of his five seasons with the Steelers.

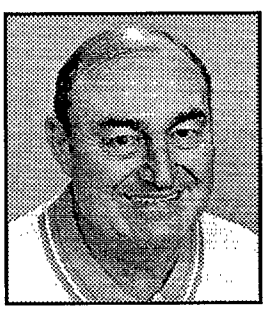
Greene's guidance last year led to defensive tackle Tim Bowens being named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year by the Associated Press. In addition, the play of the defensive line was key to Miami's run defense which was second-best in the AFC and sixth overall in the NFL in 1994 with a club record of allowing only 89.4 yards on the ground per game. In 1992, he played a key role in the development of Marco Coleman, who registered the third highest sack total (six) ever by a Dolphin rookie and earned Sports Illustrated Rookie of the Year honors. Along with Bowens and Coleman, Greene will work with veterans Chuck Klingbeil, Jeff Cross, Trace Armstrong and William Gaines, as well as draft choices Norman Hand and Corey Swinson.

A 1987 inductee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Greene was considered to be the heart of the Pittsburgh's famous "Steel Curtain" defense that enabled the Steelers win four Super Bowl championships. A perennial All-Pro defensive tackle for Pittsburgh for 13 seasons, he was selected to 10 Pro Bowls, including eight straight from 1970-77, and was named to the Pro Football Hall of Fame's "Team of the 1970s". His career total of 66 quarterback sacks ranks second in Pittsburgh's all-time record book.

In addition to his numerous awards for his attributes on the playing field, Greene won the prestigious Clio Award for his Coca Cola commercial in 1980 which led to numerous television and film appearances. Following his retirement in 1982, Greene worked as a color analyst for CBS-TV and owned restaurants in the Dallas area, before re-joining the Steelers in 1987.

A unanimous choice as the nation's top defensive lineman as a senior at North Texas State in 1968, Greene was the fourth player selected overall in the 1969 draft. He went on to earn NFL defensive rookie of the year honors. Greene has served on the North Texas State board of trustees. Greene and his wife, Agnes, have three children, sons Major (7/29/68) and Delon (10/13/69), who both attended and played football at North Texas State, and daughter JoQuel (10/13/73). Greene, whose full name is Charles Edward, was born September 24, 1946, in Temple, Texas.

GEORGE HILL



Linebackers

College: Denison
NFL: 17th Season
Dolphins: Seventh Season
Born: April 28, 1933

George Hill, who is beginning his seventh season with the Dolphins, has more than a decade of coaching experience in the NFL. Before coming to Miami on March 1, 1989, Hill spent the previous four seasons (1985-88) as defensive coordinator for the Indianapolis Colts and spent six seasons before that (1979-84) as the linebacker coach for the Philadelphia Eagles. Hill originally joined the Dallas Cowboys staff on February 13, 1989, as Tom Landry's defensive coordinator, but left the Cowboys to join the Dolphins following Landry's departure.

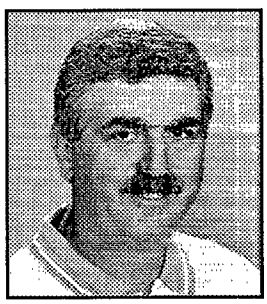
Under Hill's guidance, one of the keys to Miami's defensive improvement is the development of linebacker Bryan Cox into a Pro Bowl performer. Along with Cox, Hill will coach a solid group of veteran linebackers, including Dwight Hollier and Chris Singleton, young players Aubrey Beavers, Chuck Bullough and Dion Foxx and draft choice Jeff Kopp.

While with the Colts, Hill's coaching helped earn Indianapolis respect around the league for that team's defense and in 1987 the Colts allowed just 238 points, the fewest in the NFL.

Before joining the Eagles, Hill was a part of Woody Hayes' staff at Ohio State for eight seasons (1971-78) as defensive coordinator, and during that time the Buckeyes won six consecutive Big Ten Championships and made four Rose Bowl appearances. He also was the defensive coordinator at Duke from 1966 through 1970 and served as an assistant coach at Cornell (1965), Denison University (1960-64), and Findley (Ohio) College (1959). Before beginning his coaching career, he was a four-year letterman at Denison (1954-57).

Hill was born in Bay Village, Ohio, and now lives in Plantation with his wife, Cloyde (married 6/16/56). They have two children, Greg (11/4/64), and Tammy (2/26/69).

RICH McGEORGE



Assistant Offensive Line/ Tight Ends

College: Elon
NFL: Third Season
Dolphins: Third Season
Born: September 14, 1948

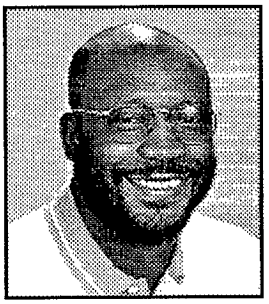
Rich McGeorge enters his third season with the Dolphins as assistant offensive line and tight ends coach, having been named to the position on June 1, 1993. In his coaching role, McGeorge assists Monte Clark, the Dolphins' Head Offensive Line Coach, and is also responsible for the team's tight ends.

McGeorge, 46, joined the Dolphins following three seasons as offensive line coach at the University of Florida. During his tenure with the Gators, his offensive lines produced a total of four selections to the first-team All-Southeastern Conference team. In 1991, McGeorge's offensive line permitted just 16 quarterback sacks despite attempting a conference-high 390 passes. He joined the Gators in January, 1990, following three seasons (1987-89) as offensive line coach at Duke University. McGeorge began his coaching career at Duke from 1981-82 as tight ends coach. Following stints as tight ends/wide receivers coach with the Birmingham Stallions of the United States Football League from 1983-84 and offensive line coach of the USFL's Tampa Bay Bandits in 1985, McGeorge returned to Duke as offensive line coach.

A member of the NAIA Hall of Fame, McGeorge played tight end at Elon College (1966-69) and was a first-round draft choice of the Green Bay Packers in 1970. A member of the Packers from 1970-78, McGeorge caught 175 career passes during his nine pro seasons. He was the Packers' 1973 Offensive Player of the Year.

Married to Bonnie, the couple has two sons, Randy (12/29/71) and Jason (10/26/73), who is a tight end at North Carolina State. He was born September 14, 1948, in Roanoke, Va.

TONY NATHAN



Offensive Backs

College: Alabama
NFL: Eighth Season
Dolphins: Eighth Season
Born: December 14, 1956

Former Dolphins running back Tony Nathan enters his eighth season on the Miami Dolphin coaching staff and his third as the club's offensive backs coach. He spent his first five years as a coaches' assistant, charting plays and breaking down film, as well as working with the team's running backs, before being named to his new position in February, 1993. As the offensive backs coach, Nathan is responsible for the team's running game and will work with a deep group including Terry Kirby, Keith Byars, Bernie Parmalee, Robert Wilson and Irving Spikes.

In 1994, despite season-ending injuries to backfield starters Kirby and Byars, the Dolphins' running game ranked eighth in the AFC. Nathan was key to the development of Parmalee, who gained 830 rushing yards in 1994 in place of Kirby after originally joining the Dolphins as an undrafted free agent.

Known as an outstanding receiver as a player, Nathan also works with Miami's backs on their receiving skills. Under his guidance, the backfield tandem of Kirby and Byars emerged as the top receiving backfield in the NFL in 1993. The combination of Kirby (75 catches) and Byars (61) teamed for 136 catches, the highest single season reception total by a pair of running backs in Dolphin history. In addition, Kirby placed first in the AFC and tied for first in the NFL in receptions among running backs and his 75 catches was the third best single season total by a rookie in NFL history.

A nine-year veteran with the Dolphins (1979-87), Nathan ended his NFL career ranked high among the Dolphins all-time rushing and receiving leaders. His career rushing totals of 732 attempts for 3,543 yards are fourth best on Miami's all-time chart, while his 383 catches also rank fourth. In 1981, Nathan was named the team's most valuable player as he led Miami in rushing with a career-high 782 yards and an NFL-leading 5.3 yards per carry.

Collegiately, Nathan had an outstanding career as a running back at the University of Alabama. During Nathan's final two seasons with the Tide, the school posted records of 11-1 and won the national championship his senior year. He finished his career with rushing totals of 1,997 yards on 310 carries and 29 touchdowns. As a senior, Nathan ran for a regular-season total of 770 yards and added 127 yards in Alabama's 14-7 Sugar Bowl edging of Penn State to win the national championship.

Nathan and his wife, Johnnie (married 6/16/79), live in Miami Lakes with daughters Francheria Nichole (7/8/80), Natalie Tonise (8/9/83) and Nadia Inez (5/27/87). He was born on December 14, 1956, in Birmingham, Alabama.

TOM OLIVADOTTI

Defense

College: Upsala
NFL: 11th Season
Dolphins: Ninth Season
Born: September 22, 1945

Tom Olivadotti begins his ninth season as the man responsible for the Dolphins' overall defense. Olivadotti came to the Dolphins after spending two seasons (1985-86) with the Cleveland Browns as an assistant.

Under his direction, the Dolphin defense has made significant progress each of his eight years with the team. In 1994, the Dolphins ranked second in the AFC in run defense by allowing a club-record low of 89.4 rushing yards per game. In addition, Miami tied the Super Bowl champion San Francisco 49ers for the NFL lead in interceptions. In 1993, Olivadotti's defense was one of the best in the NFL in preventing big plays. The team ranked first in the AFC and fourth in the NFL in fewest yards allowed per completion (10.52) and tied for fifth in the AFC and NFL in fewest yards allowed per rushing attempt (3.6). In 1992, the Dolphin defense ranked among the top units in the NFL. Miami finished the season in a tie for tenth in overall team defense (tied for fifth in the AFC) and sixth in defense against the run (third in the AFC). It marked the second time in the past four seasons (also seventh in 1990) that Olivadotti's defense has ranked among the top ten units in the league. In addition, Miami allowed an average of 100.0 rushing yards per game in '92 and that figure was the lowest per game average in the history of the franchise prior to the 1994 season. Also, the Dolphins tied for the league high by recording a pair of shutouts (one in the regular season and one in the playoffs) during 1992. In 1991, Miami held seven opponents to 14 points or less and finished third in the AFC (and tied for fourth in the NFL) in fewest yards allowed per completion (11.18). In 1990, the Dolphins finished seventh in the NFL (fourth in the AFC) in overall team defense and led the league in that category for most of the first half of the season. In 1989, the Dolphin defense finished fifth in the AFC in sack production with 39 sacks after finishing 13th in the conference the year before with 24 sacks. The Dolphin defense did not allow a touchdown in four of the team's 16 games in 1988. In 1987, Olivadotti's first year with Miami, the number of big plays allowed by the Dolphins decreased dramatically, as Miami was first in the AFC (and third in the NFL) in fewest yards allowed per completion (11.63), after ranking 12th in the AFC and 22nd in the NFL the previous season.

The Long Branch, N.J., native made an impressive NFL coaching debut nine years ago when he handled the Browns' outstanding linebacking corps. In 1986 he was in charge of Cleveland's defensive backs – one of the main reasons the Browns came within one game of the Super Bowl. Cleveland had the best record (12-4) in the AFC that season.

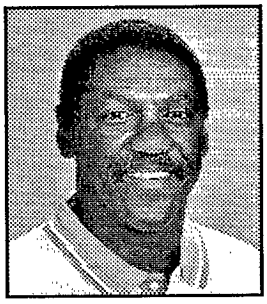
Olivadotti is familiar with Miami - he spent four seasons as a defensive coach at the University of Miami, serving the last three years as defensive coordinator. The Hurricanes captured the national championship in Olivadotti's last season (1983). He then followed head coach Howard Schnellenberger (a former Dolphin assistant) to Louisville with the understanding that he could leave if a pro coaching job arose, which it did with the Browns.

Olivadotti played defensive back, linebacker, and receiver in four years as a starter at Upsala College in East Orange, N.J., and also participated in baseball and track. While coaching at New Jersey high schools Pope Pius (1967-68), Long Branch (1968-71) and Red Bank Catholic (1971-72), he also played semi-pro ball for five seasons.

He then moved on to Salesianum Prep School in Wilmington, Del., as head coach (1972-75) before moving up to the college ranks beginning at Princeton (1975-77) as tutor for linebackers and the offensive line. Later (1978-79) he coached linebackers at Boston College and also organized the entire defense.

Olivadotti, who has a business degree, resides in Cooper City with his wife, Karen (married 6/15/68), and their two children, Kari Anne (9/30/70), who has a degree from Boston College and a Master's from Simmons College, and Kirk (1/1/74), who attends Purdue University and is a two-year letterman at wide receiver for the Boilermakers.

MEL PHILLIPS



Defensive Backs

College: North Carolina A&T
NFL: 16th Season
Dolphins: 11th Season
Born: January 6, 1942

Mel Phillips moves into his 11th season as defensive backs coach for the Dolphins. Under Phillips' guidance, the Dolphins defense was tied with the Super Bowl champion San Francisco 49ers for the NFL lead in interceptions in 1994.

Before coming to Miami, the 53-year-old Phillips previously held the same position for five seasons with the Detroit Lions (1980-84). In Detroit, Phillips coached under then-head coach (and current Dolphins' assistant) Monte Clark.

Known for his outstanding rapport with the players, Phillips works with a deep defensive backfield that features quality players such as Troy Vincent, J.B. Brown, Gene Atkins, Michael Stewart, Frankie Smith and Sean Hill, along with recent additions Terrell Buckley and Louis Oliver.

Phillips, a native of Shelby, N.C., played 12 seasons for the San Francisco 49ers (1966-77), including eight as a starter at strong safety. A tenacious hitter during his playing days, his career statistics include 10 interceptions for 106 return yards (35-yard TD in 1970). Phillips twice won the 49ers' Len Eshmont Award, symbolic of the team's most valuable player. Following his retirement from the 49ers, Phillips worked for the city of San Francisco's juvenile probation department until joining the Lions.

Collegiately, Phillips attended North Carolina A&T, where he played both ways as a defensive back and a running back. As a senior, Phillips rushed for 648 yards on 100 carries for 11 touchdowns, and also caught 19 passes for 277 yards and four scores. That season (1965), A&T won the conference championship and Phillips intercepted two passes and rushed for two TDs in the title game. Phillips also lettered for the swimming and track teams at A&T.

Mel and his wife, Patricia (married 1/23/65), live in Miami Lakes with their daughters, Paulette (6/4/67) and Yvette (5/9/73). He was born on Jan. 6, 1942, in Shelby, N.C.

LARRY SEIPLE

Receivers

College: Kentucky
NFL: 15th Season
Dolphins: Eighth Season
Born: February 14, 1945

Beginning his eighth season on the Dolphin coaching staff, Larry Seiple is well-known to Dolphin fans. He spent 11 seasons in Miami as a player and rejoined the team in February, 1988, as receivers coach after spending a year as a sales representative for a manufacturing company in the automotive industry in Birmingham, Michigan.

With the Dolphins, Seiple works with Irving Fryar, O.J. McDuffie, Gary Clark, Randal Hill, and Scott Miller.

In 1994, Fryar caught 73 passes for 1,270 yards, ranked third in the AFC in receiving yards and was named to the Pro Bowl for the second consecutive season.

In 1993, Seiple compensated for Miami's quarterback injuries by having Fryar become just the third receiver in team history to record a 1,000-yard receiving season.

In 1992, under Seiple's direction, tight end Keith Jackson made his fourth Pro Bowl appearance.

In 1991, Mark Clayton was named to his fifth Pro Bowl, while in 1990, despite numerous injuries to the receiving corps, the Dolphins finished fourth in the NFL in pass offense.

In 1989, Dolphin receivers had their fair share of success as Ferrell Edmunds became the first Dolphin tight end to be selected to the NFL's annual Pro Bowl contest and rookie wide receiver Andre Brown, who joined the Dolphins as an undrafted free agent, set the team rookie record with five touchdown receptions.

In Seiple's first season as receivers coach, Clayton set a new Dolphin record for receptions with 86 (finishing tied for second in the NFL in that category) while Jim Jensen developed into one of the most dependable receivers in the league.

The Allentown, Pa., native brought seven years of experience as an NFL receivers coach to Miami. He formerly served as receivers coach with the Detroit Lions (1980-84), working under current Dolphins' assistant Monte Clark. He then moved on to Tampa Bay, where he was receivers coach from 1985-86. While in Detroit, Seiple was on a staff that also included current Miami defensive backs coach Mel Phillips.

The 50-year-old Seiple began his coaching career at the University of Miami under another former Dolphin assistant, Howard Schnellenberger. Seiple was with the Hurricanes during the 1979 season.

Seiple's playing career with the Dolphins spanned 11 seasons (1967-77) after he made the team as a seventh-round draft choice out of Kentucky. He played in 149 regular-season games for Miami (ninth-most in team history) as a punter, tight end, wide receiver and running back. Seiple finished his career with 72 receptions for 935 yards (13.0 average) and seven touchdowns. His best season came in 1969 when he led the Dolphins in receiving with 41 catches for 577 yards (14.1 average) and five TDs. He also had 16 carries for 159 yards in his career.

Seiple still holds the Dolphins' record for most career punts (633), and his career punting average (40.0 yards) is second only to the 43.3-yard average of Reggie Roby. Seiple's most memorable exploit as a Dolphin came against Pittsburgh in the 1972 AFC Championship game when his daring 37-yard run on fourth down from punt formation set up Miami's first touchdown in a 21-17 victory.

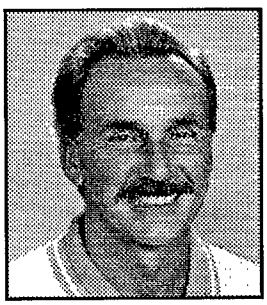
He and his wife, Trudy (married 6/4/66), live in Pembroke Pines and have three children, Keri Lynn (6/10/67), Larry (7/10/69) and Lori Ann (11/26/71). They have one grandson, Austyn.

GARY STEVENS



Offense, Quarterbacks

College: John Carroll
NFL: Seventh Season
Dolphins: Seventh Season
Born: March 19, 1943

Gary Stevens begins his seventh season as offense and quarterback coach, and he certainly is familiar to Dolphin coaches and fans alike. In Stevens' six years as the club's offensive coach, the Dolphins' offense was ranked seventh or better in the NFL five times, including a number one ranking last season. He spent the previous nine years (1980-88) as an assistant coach at the University of Miami, including the last six as offensive coordinator where he was the architect of Miami's explosive offense that was centered around the passing game. During his tenure at UM, the Hurricanes won two national championships and he helped guide the careers of quarterbacks Jim Kelly, Bernie Kosar, Vinny Testaverde, and Steve Walsh as well as wideout Eddie Brown. In his six seasons as offensive coordinator, Miami averaged over 30 points per game and over 400 yards per game in total offense.

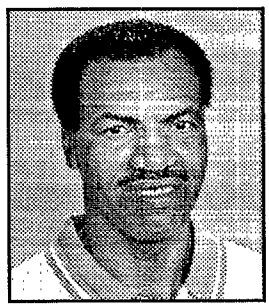
The Hurricanes' receivers coach from 1980 to 1984, Stevens switched to coaching the quarterbacks in '84, while also adding the duties of assistant head coach during that same year. Prior to his arrival at Miami, Stevens held assistant coaching positions at West Virginia (1975-79), Kent State (1974-75), and Louisville (1971-74). A native of Cleveland, Ohio, he began his coaching career in the high school ranks in the late 1960s at Benedictine High School and Chanel High School in Ohio.

A three-year letterman at running back for John Carroll University, he graduated with a degree in sociology in 1965. Stevens lives with his wife, Rosemarie, and they have five children – Cindy, Maria, Cheryl, Kelly Ann, and Gary Ben.

DOLPHIN FACT

In regular season action, the Dolphins were 8-2 last year on natural grass (6-2 at home and 2-0 on the road) and 2-4 on artificial turf (all on the road). Since 1980 (regular season games only), the Dolphins are 104-47-1 (.688) on grass — 81-33-1 (.709) at home and 23-14 (.622) on the road. On turf over the same period of time, the Dolphins are 40-40 (.500).

JUNIOR WADE



Conditioning

College: South Carolina State
NFL: 21st Season
Dolphins: 21st Season
Born: February 2, 1947

One of the key figures in the Dolphin program is veteran conditioning coach Junior Wade.

In his 13th season as the Dolphins' conditioning coach, Wade also administers the team's successful off-season conditioning program and assists with Miami's special teams. Previously, Wade had served eight years as the club's assistant trainer. The promotion to assistant coaching status was a well-deserved reward for the affable Wade. As a trainer, he long had held the respect of the Dolphin players for his knowledge and his willingness to boost player morale by putting himself through the same rigorous rehabilitation as that prescribed for injured Dolphins.

Appointed to his present position on Feb. 15, 1983, Wade first joined the Dolphins as training camp assistant for the 1973-74 preseasons. He was hired by the Dolphins on a full-time basis in time for the 1975 campaign. Wade's past job experience includes having worked as an athletic trainer and guidance counselor at Fayetteville State and as the trainer for the St. Louis Cardinals' baseball farm team in Orangeburg, S.C.

Wade was also the head baseball coach and assistant trainer at Davidson College. In 1975, he led the Wildcats to a 21-15 record, the best mark the school had ever posted. A three-year letterman himself at South Carolina State, Wade also earned his master's degree in education. Following his graduation from SCSU in 1969, he worked as head trainer at the school for three years.

Junior, a native of Bath, S.C., lives in Miami with his wife, Constance (married 12/13/70), and sons Aaron (2/25/72) and Jason (2/24/80).

Special Teams

College: Wichita State
NFL: 13th Season
Dolphins: Tenth Season
Born: January 10, 1948

Mike Westhoff begins his tenth year as a member of the Dolphins' coaching staff, concentrating on special teams.

Westhoff came to Miami after spending a year in the United States Football League with the Arizona Outlaws, where he was the offensive line coach for Frank Kush.

Before his one-year stint in the USFL, Westhoff spent three seasons under Kush with the Baltimore/Indianapolis Colts (1982-84). While with the Colts, his responsibilities included tight ends, special teams and weight training.

The 47-year-old Westhoff began his collegiate playing career at Wyoming in 1965, where he was a starting outside linebacker as an freshman. He then transferred to Wichita State, where he was a three-year starter at linebacker and center. He graduated from Wichita State in 1970 with a degree in history. He was the team's MVP as a junior and served as captain during his senior campaign.

Westhoff started his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at Indiana University, where he earned a master's degree in educational psychology in 1974. He was named as a full-time coach at IU in '75 before becoming offensive line coach at Dayton in 1976. Westhoff then took over as coach of the defensive line and linebackers at Indiana State in 1977. He then coached at Northwestern (1978-80) and Texas Christian (1981), working with the offensive line.

In 1989, the Dolphin players honored Westhoff's off-the-field courage by awarding him special recognition with the NFL's Ed Block Courage Award. As a coach, Westhoff has faced many battles both on and off the field, but none can compare to his recent battle with bone cancer. Throughout his treatments, Westhoff continued to coach with the Dolphins. For his courage, the Dolphin players felt Westhoff deserved to be recognized with the Ed Block Courage Award.

Born in Pittsburgh, he was raised in Bethel Park, Pa. Mike and his wife, Marilyn (married 1/25/70), reside in Plantation with their son John Thomas (4/27/81).

MIAMI DOLPHINS FOUNDATION

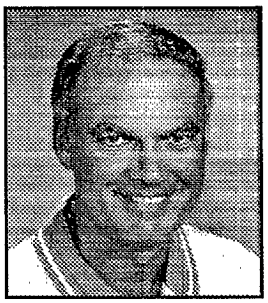
The Miami Dolphins Foundation was established in 1995 as the fundraising arm of the Miami Dolphins Football Team. The Dolphins, through the newly created foundation, have made a commitment to the betterment of South Florida youth through a direct focus on, but not limited to, educational, health, social and community service issues.

The Miami Dolphins Foundation will contribute, whenever possible, to charitable groups that are compatible with the philosophy of the Miami Dolphins Foundation. Resources for contributions will be procured through various fundraising events throughout the year.

Further information on the Miami Dolphins Foundation is available through the Miami Dolphins Community Relations Department or by calling (305) 452-7121.

FOOTBALL STAFF

TOM HECKERT



Vice President - Player Personnel

College: Youngstown State
NFL: 14th Season
Dolphins: Seventh Season
Born: September 18, 1938

Beginning his seventh season with the Dolphins, Tom Heckert was named as the club's Vice President - Player Personnel prior to the start of the 1995 season after serving as Director of Player Personnel since 1992. He originally joined the Dolphins in 1989 as Director of College Scouting. In his current capacity, Heckert's main responsibility is in the area of pro scouting, but he also oversees the club's college scouting program.

During Heckert's three years as Director of College Scouting, the Dolphins used the draft to add such players as Richmond Webb, Keith Sims, Bryan Cox, Troy Vincent, Marco Coleman, and Dwight Hollier to their roster. In fact, those three drafts produced seven starters, three Pro Bowl selections (Cox, Sims, and Webb) and two Rookie of the Year selections (Coleman and Webb). In Heckert's three seasons as Player Personnel Director, the Dolphins added such players as Keith Jackson, Irving Fryar, Mark Ingram, Ron Heller, Keith Byars, Bernie Kosar, Gene Atkins, Michael Stewart, Eric Green, Gary Clark, Trace Armstrong, Terrell Buckley and Randal Hill.

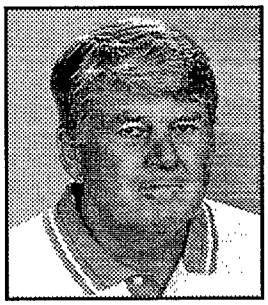
Heckert has a varied background in football, including spending seven years as a college scout with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and the Cleveland Browns. He also has both administrative and coaching experience on the collegiate level as well.

Heckert, 57, joined the Dolphins after serving two years (1987-88) as a national scout for the Buccaneers. Prior to joining the Bucs in 1987, he spent the previous five seasons (1982-86) as the Midwest area scout for the Browns. He also was involved in personnel and advance scouting in the NFL during his tenure with the Browns and was part of the turnaround in Cleveland that saw the Browns go from a 5-11 team in 1984 to a playoff participant in his final two seasons there.

A 1961 graduate of Youngstown (Ohio) State, he began his coaching career as an assistant at Fitch High School in Youngstown in 1961 before a two-year hitch as a Lieutenant in the U.S. Army. He returned to Fitch where he stayed through 1965 prior to enrolling as a graduate assistant at Kent State, where he earned a master's degree in education. He served as Head Coach at Maumee (Ohio) High School in 1967 and 1968 and then moved up to the college ranks as an assistant at Adrian (Michigan) College from 1969-72. He was named Head Coach at Adrian in 1973 and Athletic Director in 1977, where he remained until joining the Browns in 1982. His overall record as a Head Coach at Adrian was 43-36-2. His last three teams there were 23-3-1, including a 9-0 season in 1980.

Heckert and his wife, Rose (married 12/29/62), have two children, Kim (31) and Tom, Jr. (28), and two grandchildren. Tom, Jr. is Director of Pro Scouting for the Dolphins.

TOM BRAATZ



Director of College Scouting

College: Marquette
NFL: 31st Season
Dolphins: Fourth Season
Born: May 12, 1933

Tom Braatz was named as the Dolphins' Director of College Scouting on June 12, 1992, replacing Tom Heckert, who earlier was elevated to the position as the team's Director of Player Personnel. In his current capacity with the Dolphins, Braatz is responsible for the scouting of college players and Miami's preparation for the NFL draft. In that role, he works closely with Heckert, Dolphin Head Coach Don Shula, and the rest of the team's football staff, and in the past two years played a key role in the selection of a number of players who made an immediate impact as rookies, including last season's NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year, defensive lineman Tim Bowens, along with linebacker Aubrey Beavers, running back Terry Kirby and wide receiver O.J. McDuffie.

Braatz joined the Dolphins with a wealth of NFL experience and is regarded as one of the leading personnel experts in professional football. He is a veteran of 30 years in the NFL as a front office executive, personnel director, and talent scout with the Atlanta Falcons and the Green Bay Packers.

From 1987 through 1991, Braatz served as Executive Vice President of Football Operations for the Packers, where his duties included the hiring and managing of the scouting staff, conducting the college draft, handling trades and waivers, and conducting contract negotiations with players.

Before joining the Packers on January 31, 1987, Braatz was a member of the Atlanta Falcons front office since the club's inception in 1965. He joined the team as an area scout, and went on to hold a number of positions with the Falcons, including Director of Player Personnel, Director of Scouting, and General Manager. While in Atlanta, Braatz' principal responsibility was overseeing the draft, where he was responsible for bringing a number of Pro Bowl players to the Falcons including William Andrews, Gerald Riggs, Mike Kenn, Bill Fralic, and Steve Bartkowski. He also handled most of the club's contract negotiations in the later years of his tenure with the Falcons.

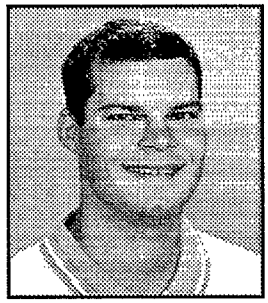
Before beginning his executive career in the NFL, Braatz played with the Washington Redskins as a linebacker and closed out his pro career under Tom Landry with the Dallas Cowboys in their charter 1960 season. He played collegiately at Marquette University, where he captained the school's football team as a senior.

Braatz, 62, and his wife, Jeri, have two sons, Tommy, 32, and Jon, 28.

DOLPHIN FACT

The Dolphins hold the NFL record for most consecutive home games won. Miami won 27 straight regular-season home games (31 overall) at the Orange Bowl from 1971-74.

TOM HECKERT, JR.



Director of Pro Scouting

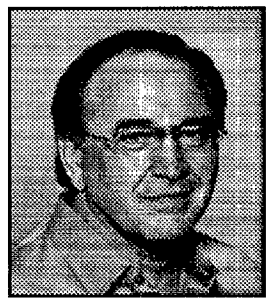
College: Hillsdale
NFL: Fifth Season
Dolphins: Fifth Season
Born: July 17, 1967

Beginning his fifth season with the Dolphins in the Pro Personnel department, Tom Heckert, Jr. evaluates players throughout the NFL as well as doing the advance scouting of the team's up-coming opponents. Heckert is also involved with the day to day personnel operations including try outs and the negotiation of free agent contracts. Heckert has played a role in the acquisitions of Dolphin players such as Mark Ingram, Irving Fryar, Ron Heller, Keith Byars, Bernie Kosar, Gene Atkins, Micheal Stewart, Eric Green, and Trace Armstrong.

Heckert, 28, joined the Dolphins after serving two years as an assistant coach at Hillsdale College, Michigan. Heckert was a defensive back for Hillsdale College and was a member of their National Championship team in 1985.

Heckert, and his wife Kathy, reside in Weston.

JOE BUSHOFSKY



College Scout

College: North Carolina State
NFL: 26th Season
Dolphins: Sixth Season
Born: January 24, 1939

One of the NFL's most respected talent scouts, Joe Bushofsky enters his sixth season as a college scout with the Dolphins. Bushofsky is responsible for college scouting in the eastern states.

Bushofsky, 56, joined the Dolphins after serving 16 seasons with the Detroit Lions, including the last five years as Director of Player Personnel. He originally scouted the eastern colleges for the Lions before expanding his areas to parts of the midwest. In his early years with the club, he was responsible for scouting approximately one half of the colleges in the country. Bushofsky was promoted to the Lions' Director of Player Personnel in June, 1985.

With the Lions, Bushofsky worked from 1978-84 under current Dolphins Offensive Line Coach Monte Clark (then the Lions' head coach). Also on the Lions' football staff were current Dolphin assistant coaches Larry Seiple and Mel Phillips.

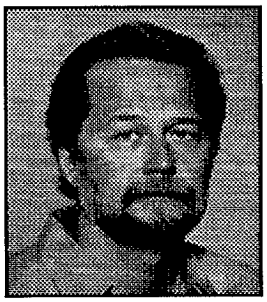
A native of Pittsburgh, Bushofsky's NFL experience dates back to 1970 when he began working for the Pittsburgh Steelers on a part-time basis doing film evaluation. He worked with the BLESTO scouting combine from 1973 to '75 before joining the Lions.

Bushofsky was an All-ACC guard as a senior at North Carolina State and was named to the state of North Carolina's college all-star football team in 1961 and '62.

Following graduation, Bushofsky returned to the Pittsburgh area where he was a successful high school coach for 11 years. As head coach of his alma mater, North Catholic High School, he compiled an undefeated record in 1970 and won the Catholic championship of western Pennsylvania.

Bushofsky and his wife, Rose, have four children, Ted, Tracy, Tricia and Terry, and they reside in Pinehurst, North Carolina.

MIKE CARTWRIGHT



College Scout

College: Wyoming
NFL: 17th Season
Dolphins: 13th Season
Born: February 12, 1946

The responsibilities of scouting the western states fall on the shoulders of the capable Mike Cartwright. In his 13th Dolphin season, Cartwright came to the Miami organization from the BLESTO scouting combine. He worked for BLESTO from 1979-82, first as an area scout before being promoted to regional scout.

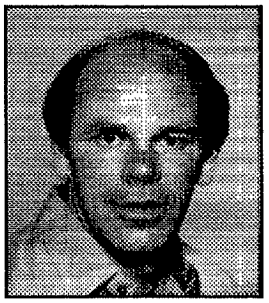
Cartwright's initial scouting position was with the San Francisco 49ers working for Pro-Line. Prior to that, he was head coach and athletic director at St. Mary's School in Cheyenne, Wyo., for three years before serving the same tenure as head football coach at Cheyenne East High. Also a former teacher, Cartwright earned a B.S. in physical education and biological science from the University of Wyoming in 1970.

Mike and his wife, Mary (married 9/25/74), live in Cheyenne with their son Jeremy (4/25/77) and Mike's two sons by a previous marriage, Chad (12/12/64) and Brad (12/30/68).

DOLPHIN FACT

Despite having 121 players selected to appear in the Pro Bowl since 1970, the Dolphins have never had a cornerback play in the post-season all-star contest. Offensive guard is the position which Miami has been represented at most often (18 times, led by Bob Kuechenberg's six appearances). Surprisingly, despite the high number of appearances by the rest of the offensive line (also, 12 by centers), Dolphins offensive tackles have played in the Pro Bowl on only eight occasions (Richmond Webb, five times; Norm Evans, twice and Wayne Moore, once).

RON LABADIE



College Scout

College: Adrian
NFL: Sixth Season
Dolphins: Sixth Season
Born: April 7, 1949

Beginning his sixth year with the Dolphins as a college scout, Ron Labadie concentrates his duties on college athletics in the midwestern states.

Labadie, 46, joined the Dolphins after serving as head football coach and athletic director at Adrian College. A 1971 graduate of Adrian, Labadie returned to the school as head football coach in 1982. Through his eight seasons as head coach of the Bulldogs, he posted a 53-20 (.730) collegiate record. He guided the Bulldogs to MIAA Championships in 1983, 1988 and '89 as well as leading his team to NCAA Division III playoff berths in 1983 and 1988. He was given the additional responsibilities of Director of Athletics for Men in May, 1985.

Before returning to Adrian, Labadie served as head football coach at Marshall High School (1974-81), compiling a 42-30 overall record, including a 39-15 mark over his last six years. Under Labadie, Marshall captured Twin Valley Conference Championships in 1976 and '77.

A native of Paw Paw, Michigan, Labadie earned the school's most valuable player award three times (1968-70) and was named captain of the 1969 and '70 teams. He earned first team All-MIAA honors and led the conference with 10 touchdowns in five MIAA games as a senior. He was inducted into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1981.

Labadie and his wife, Marilynn, have three children, Lisa (20), Brad (17) and Ben (13).

JERE STRIPLING

College Scout

College: Murray State
NFL: Eighth Season
Dolphins: Sixth Season
Born: August 24, 1935

Entering his eighth season as an NFL college scout, Jere Stripling begins his sixth season with the Dolphins. Stripling's responsibilities with Miami include the scouting of the plains states.

Stripling, 60, joined the Dolphins after serving the previous two years (1988-89) as an area scout for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, with his primary concentration on the southeastern states. Prior to joining the Bucs in 1988, he served two years (1986-87) as one of four national scouts for Canadian IX (the Canadian Football League's official scouting service), with his responsibilities focusing on the southeastern colleges in the United States.

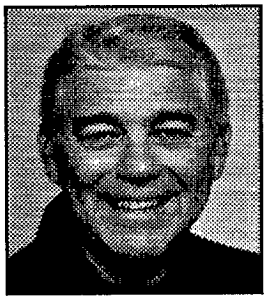
A native of Newbern, Tenn., Stripling spent eight seasons (1978-85) as offensive coordinator and assistant head coach at Northeast Louisiana University. He also served as the school's recruiting coordinator. Under Stripling, the Indians set season records for most yards passing, most yards in total offense and most points scored. In 1983, the Indians ranked sixth nationally in Division I-AA rushing offense.

A 1958 graduate of Murray State, Stripling began his coaching career right after graduation by serving as an assistant coach at Union City (Tenn.) High School. In 1960, he became head coach at Bartlett (Tenn.) High School, and in 1965 he moved to Dyersburg (Tenn.) High School. After his third and final season at Dyersburg, he and his aides were selected as the conference's "Coaching Staff of the Year."

Stripling played quarterback at the University of Tennessee for one year before transferring to Murray State for his final three years. He served as team captain and was named as the school's most valuable player and earned all-conference recognition as a senior.

Stripling and his wife, Corinne, have two children, David (35) and Susan (33).

BOBBY WILLIAMS



College Scout

College: Rice
NFL: 12th Season
Dolphins: Ninth Season
Born: July 7, 1935

Beginning his ninth year with the Dolphins, Bobby Williams is responsible for scouting the southwestern states for the team.

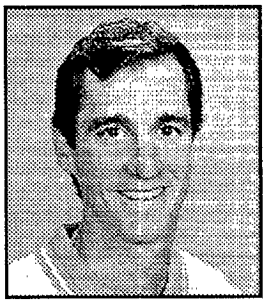
Williams, 60, joined the Dolphins on June 1, 1987. Before that, he served as a scout for the BLESTO scouting combine from February, 1984 through the 1987 season.

Prior to his scouting responsibilities in the professional ranks, Williams had a long tenure as a coach in the Houston area on both the college and scholastic levels. From 1977 through 1983, he was an Assistant Coach at his alma mater, Rice University. He spent the previous 21 years coaching high school football in that city, and in 1963 he led Houston's Dulles High School to the Texas state championship game.

Williams had a successful playing career as a running back at Rice, where he graduated in 1958. He was a member of Rice's 1957 Southwest Conference championship team that faced Navy in the Cotton Bowl, Rice's last SWC title.

A native of Houston, Williams resides in Sugarland, Texas, with his wife of 39 years, Carolyn. They have one son, Bobby, Jr. (37), who was a wide receiver at Rice when Bobby coached there, and two granddaughters, Audrey (6), and Alexandra (2).

RYAN VERMILLION



Head Trainer

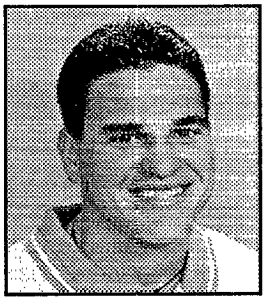
College: Miami
NFL: Fourth Season
Dolphins: Fourth Season
Born: May 24, 1963

Ryan Vermillion was named as Head Trainer for the Miami Dolphins on April 10, 1992, becoming only the third person to hold that position in the club's history. Along with his two assistants, Britt Brown and Troy Maurer, Vermillion is responsible for the day-to-day treatment of injured Dolphins in coordination with the club's physicians.

Vermillion was no stranger to the Dolphins, having served as the club's Physical Therapist in 1991, where he helped supervise the rehabilitation program for many of the team's injured players along with the Dolphins' medical staff and conditioning coach Junior Wade. Vermillion also spent six seasons (1986-91) as the Physical Therapist for the University of Miami and was based at Doctor's Hospital in Coral Gables. Before that, he spent three seasons as a volunteer trainer for the Hurricanes.

Vermillion, 31, received his degree in Physical Therapy from Miami in 1987 and has been certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association. He and his wife Margaret (7/27/91) live in Coral Springs with their daughters Erin and Riley.

TONY EGUES



Equipment Manager

College: St. Thomas
NFL: Fourth Season
Dolphins: Fourth Season
Born: December 22, 1969

Tony Egues begins his first year as Dolphin equipment manager after serving in a number of positions in his three previous seasons with the club. Egues is responsible for issuing and ordering all playing equipment for the team. In addition, Egues, along with assistants Charlie Thiele and Joe Cimino, coordinates the transport of the club's equipment to and from each road site.

The 25-year old Egues began his career with the Dolphins on a part-time basis as an equipment assistant, then joined the club full-time in 1992 as an administrative assistant to the coaching staff. He was named as assistant equipment manager in 1994 and then was promoted to his current position prior to the start of the 1995 season.

Egues is single and resides in Miami.

ADVISORY BOARD

Joe Robbie Stadium, "South Florida's Major League Facility," will again serve as home of the Miami Dolphins for the 1995 season. Now in its ninth year of operation, the 75,000 seat, 115 million dollar, state-of-the-art, open-air facility was the first of its kind to be constructed entirely with private funds. It was named after Joe Robbie, the founder of the Dolphins.

The first football game in Joe Robbie Stadium was held on August 16, 1987, when the Miami Dolphins met the Chicago Bears in a preseason battle. The game also marked the 22nd anniversary of the Dolphins franchise. Plans for the stadium were first announced on March 5, 1984. The clearing of the stadium site began on July 22, 1985 and ground breaking ceremonies were held on December 1, 1985, just 20-1/2 months prior to the first game.

Financing for Joe Robbie Stadium was based largely upon the licensing of executive suites and club seats on a 10-year basis. Executive suites which seat 10, 12 or 16 people per box range in price from $30,000 and up per year. Each executive suite is fully furnished, including air conditioning, carpeting, refrigerator, icemaker, lockable liquor cabinet, two TV monitors and telephone service, along with catered food and beverage service. Suite patrons also receive two complimentary parking passes as well as four guest passes.

Club Seats, which are priced from $800-$1,800 per year on a 10-year license, are 21" wide with chairbacks and arm rests. Club Seat patrons are kept cool by overhead vents which blow circulating air down on them. They are the only grandstand-style seating in the stadium underneath the overhang of the upper deck.

Suite and Club Seat patrons have access to JR's in the Stadium. A sports lounge located in the east end of the stadium, it commands a panoramic view of the playing area with casual snacks and beverages available.

The home of first class events, JRS hosted the National Football League's premier game, Super Bowl XXIII on January 22, 1989. It marked the return of the Super Bowl to South Florida after a ten year absence. The stadium hosted its second NFL Championship game, when Super Bowl XXIX came to JRS on January 29, 1995.

On March 7, 1990, H. Wayne Huizenga, Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Blockbuster Video and Huizenga Holdings Inc., agreed to purchase fifty (50) percent of Joe Robbie Stadium and became the point man in the drive to bring Major League Baseball to JRS. That effort was rewarded in July of 1991, when South Florida was awarded a National League expansion franchise.

On January 24, 1994, Mr. Huizenga acquired the remaining 50-percent of the stadium to give him 100% ownership of JRS.

Since Huizenga's outright purchase of the stadium, over $22 million dollars have been spent to upgrade and improve the building. Access and parking operations have been improved as JRS has increased the number of fixed parking spots by almost 10,000, bringing the total number of spaces available in JRS lots to 23,000.

The next major phase of this plan will see the immediate and preferred parking areas expanded to allow for more spots within the lot directly around JRS as well as more spaces available for JRS Club and Suite guests. Over 1,000 palm trees and 5,000 flowers have been introduced to the stadium's surrounging areas in an effort to capture South Florida's native foliage. Other new additions include the new Welcome Center at Gate 4. The center serves all guests during non-event days and special request/VIP guests during events.

Upon entering JRS, improvements will quickly become noticeable no matter which entrance is used. The 100 and 400 level concourses now have a new flooring system. This system is a waterproof, heavy duty, slip resistant surface which also keeps aesthetics in mind. The flooring, called silikal, is installed in a series of applications and provides a functional and safe surface. It is also a water resistant surface (negating leaks) to increase the comfort level of all guests. While this system has been used at other major facilities, JRS is the only facility to bring aesthetics into the equation by asking the manufacturer to incorporate team colors of the Dolphins and Marlins into the floor. The 100 level and 400 level concourses have also been painted to create a cleaner, brighter atmosphere. To augment the painting, JRS management has also begun the introduction of large photographs representing the Marlins and Dolphins located at section 143.

Two new elevators have been installed at Gate G as well. The new elevators assist a great deal in the expedient servicing of club level and disabled guests. This brings the total number of elevators dedicated to club level and disabled use to seven (4 at Gate G, 2 at Gate C and one at Gate E) and the total number of elevators at JRS to 13 (1 at baseball pressbox, 1 at football pressbox, 2 service elevators, 1 office elevator and 1 freight elevator).

Joe Robbie Stadium's entire Club Level has also undergone a complete renovation. The series of lounges and concourse areas that service Club Seat and Suite guests now has new furniture (sofas, tables, chairs, bar stools, etc.), new wallpaper, new paint and trim, and new carpet.

Concessions at the stadium have also been improved. All 28 concession stands on the 100 and 400 levels have been refurbished at a cost of over $500,000. These changes provide a better looking stand capable of quicker and more efficent service. In addition, new themed areas have been incorporated into the building. A Caribbean area, Country & Western area, Nautical area and Health Food Stand have all become permanent additions to the concessions available at JRS. Each area offers a variety of food and beverage specific to its theme.

No matter where an individual sits during an event at JRS, there are a few other things that are noticeable. Every seat, wherever possible, at the stadium is now equipped with a cupholder. These cupholders not only provide convenience for guests, but also reduce the garbage and spillage during events. Joe Robbie Stadium is one of the few stadiums with two Sony JumboTRON video boards. This ensures that all visitors enjoy an unobstructed view of at least one board. The board on the east side of the stadium (right field) has been replaced by a new JumboTRON. Work on this project was completed just prior to Super Bowl XXIX. This scoreboard is one of the largest video boards in any stadium in America, over 1,200 square feet. The picture quality on this board is signficantly improved as well. In fact, it has twice as many lines of resolution as the old board, providing a picture that is 100% improved. It is a full 120 square feet larger than the old board and was installed at a cost of four million dollars.

Joe Robbie Stadium is equipped with a Prescription Athletic Turf (PAT) system which provides draining for its natural grass, and during February and March 1995, the old PAT system was removed, and a new advanced mechanical drainage system was installed. At a cost of one million dollars, the new system provides three times the drainage capacity of the old system and ensures a firm dry playing surface within half an hour's time after as much as a three inch per hour rain fall.

As the seasons change, so do the sporting events a Joe Robbie Stadium. Major League Baseball officially began in South Florida in the spring of 1993 as the Florida Marlins opened their inaugural campaign as a National League team. On April 5, 1993, the "new" look of JRS as a baseball facility was unveiled to the public for the first time as the Florida Marlins hosted the Los Angeles Dodgers. The Marlins began their existence by finishing the first day in first place with a 6-3 win over the Dodgers .

Before the arrival of the Marlins, JRS had played host to thirteen spring training games that attracted 370,000 fans that paved the way for baseball in South Florida.

Behind the scenes, JRS underwent renovations to accommodate Major League Baseball and the Florida Marlins. The conversion included the installation of retractable seating on the north side of the stadium, the construction of the baseball press box in the south west corner of the facility, the building of the baseball dugouts, the addition of 660 new lights for suitable night play and the installation of an electric disappearing pitcher's mound. The stadium also features a synthetic warning track designed to absorb water. At the time, the only other facility to feature this type of track was Oriole Park at Camden Yards, home of the Baltimore Orioles. The renovation also included the construction of the Florida Marlins clubhouse and other amenities to accommodate baseball at JRS.

The facility displays its versatility every year by hosting a wide variety of events and the past year was no exception. Along with Miami Dolphins football, college football took the field with the fifth annual Car Quest (formerly Blockbuster) Bowl. Music filled the air around JRS as Pink Floyd opened their world tour at JRS, continuing the stadium's concert tradition. They joined the stellar list of musical talents that include Hall & Oates, Chicago, Rod Stewart, The Who, The Rolling Stones, Pink Floyd, U2, Elton John, Billy Joel, Paul McCartney, Genisis, Gloria Estafan, New Kids on the Block, and Guns 'N Roses who have all performed at JRS. One of Joe Robbie Stadium's memorable events took place in 1992 when Gloria Estefan and Comic Relief joined forces to create a 15-hour marathon that raised over two million dollars for the victims of Hurricane Andrew. Other events held in the past at Joe Robbie Stadium include international soccer games, featuring the United States World Cup Team, high school football, and numerous trade shows.

The stadium was designed with the spectator in mind. The general seating in Joe Robbie Stadium is a 19" chairback seat with armrest. Each seat offers an excellent view of the playing field and there are no obstructed seats in the stadium. Access to seats is easily gained by the two ramps or the escalators located at each of the four entrance gates.

JRS offers the utmost in comfort and convenience. In the general seating areas (100, 400 levels), there are 40 concession stands, each featuring a TV monitor, so as not to miss a minute of the action. Throughout the stadium, there are a total of 80 restrooms (40 men and 40 women).

Joe Robbie Stadium is located one mile south of the Dade-Broward county line and sits on a 160-acre site. It is 16 miles northwest of downtown Miami and 18 miles south of Fort Lauderdale.

There are a total of 23,000 parking spaces for cars and 300 parking spaces for buses in the 140-acre on-site lot. There also is a helipad on the premises.

Joe Robbie Stadium is truly "South Florida's Major League Facility."

DOLPHINS TRAINING CENTER

On July 11, 1993, the Miami Dolphins officially moved into their brand new training facility at Nova University in Davie, Florida, from their long-time base at St. Thomas University.

The ten million dollar state-of-the-art facility covers 68,226 square feet and incorporates the latest technology and advances that were utilized in the design of other recently constructed NFL training facilities.

The Dolphins' training center not only houses the team's football operation personnel and the club's administrative staff, but it also serves as the site of the club's preseason training camp and all off-season conditioning programs as well.

The facility includes a large locker room area, sauna and steam rooms, a therapy swimming pool, a cold plunge pool, whirlpools, and one of the largest weight training rooms in the NFL.

In addition to the physical training needs, modern support facilities also were constructed. Those include lounges, conference rooms, equipment rooms, laundry areas, video editing labs, and an auditorium that will function as a site for major press conferences as well as for full team and staff meetings.

Administrative offices, located on the second floor, include the head coaches' office with an adjacent conference room overlooking the practice fields. Offensive and defensive coaches' offices flank these areas. Other office space exists for personnel and administrative staff members.

At the rear of the facility are two full-sized grass football fields, which were constructed utilizing the Prescription Athletic Turf (PAT) system that also is used for the field at Joe Robbie Stadium. That system incorporates underground pipes and electronic pumps to remove water from the fields when natural drainage is not adequate.

With a primary emphasis to design the complex in a "fan-friendly" manner, a bleacher structure adjacent to the fields was constructed, utilizing elements of Joe Robbie Stadium itself. When JRS was revised to accommodate baseball, large sections of fixed concrete seating areas from the stadium had to be removed. Those sections have now been relocated to the Nova facility as part of the new complex, including many of the chair back seats that formerly were at the stadium. As a result, the bleacher facility at Nova can accommodate 2,000 spectators, including many in chair-back seats, for open practice sessions and special events. In addition, the structure also includes additional permanent amenities for fans such as concession areas, ticket windows, and rest rooms.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 1995

KEITH BYARS...
- to extend his streak of consecutive games with a reception. He has caught a pass in 112 straight games.
- to record the 500th reception of his NFL career and become only the fourth running back in NFL history to accomplish the feat. He has 481 career catches.
- to move as high as second on the NFL's all-time reception leaders among running backs, passing Tony Galbreath (490 catches), Walter Payton (492), John L. Williams (522) and Marcus Allen (522), behind only Roger Craig (566). He has 481 career catches.

GARY CLARK...
- to record the 700th reception of his NFL career and become the sixth player in NFL history to accomplish this feat. He has 662 career receptions.
- to extend his NFL record for most consecutive seasons with 50 or more receptions. He has caught 50 or more passes in ten straight years.

JEFF CROSS...
- to break the team record for career sacks, surpassing Vern Den Herder (64 sacks), Doug Betters (65.5) and Bill Stanfill (67.5). He has 53.5 sacks.

DAN MARINO...
- to break the NFL's all-time passing yardage record, surpassing Fran Tarkenton (47,003 yards). He has 45,173 yards.
- to break the NFL's all-time touchdown pass record, surpassing Fran Tarkenton (342 touchdowns). He has 328 touchdowns.
- to break the NFL's all-time pass attempts record, surpassing Fran Tarkenton (6,467 attempts). He has 6,049 attempts.
- to break the NFL's all-time pass completions record, surpassing Fran Tarkenton (3,686 completions). He has 3,604 completions.
- to break the NFL's all-time 300-yard passing game record, surpassing Dan Fouts (51 300-yard games). He has thrown for 300 or more yards 49 times.
- to break the team record for consecutive pass attempts without throwing an interception, surpassing Bob Griese (122 straight passes without an interception). He has not thrown an interception in his last 102 attempts.
- to break the team record for consecutive games without throwing an interception, surpassing Bob Griese (four straight games). He has not thrown an interception in his last three games.
- to break the team record for career game starts, surpassing Bob Kuechenberg (176 starts). He has started 170 games.
- should he lead the league in attempts, he would accomplish the feat for the fifth time in his career and set an NFL record for most seasons leading the league in that category. He led the league in 1984, 1986, 1988 and 1992 and is tied with Sammy Baugh (1937, 1943, 1947-48), John Unitas (1957, 1959-61) and George Blanda (1953, 1963-65).
- should he lead the league in completions, he would accomplish the feat for the sixth time in his career and set an NFL record for most seasons leading the league in that category. He led the league in 1984-86, 1988 and 1992 and is tied with Sammy Baugh (1937, 1943, 1945, 1947-48).
- should he lead the league in passing yards, he would accomplish the feat for the sixth time in his career and set an NFL record for most seasons leading the league in that category. He led the league in 1984-86, 1988 and 1992 and is tied with Sonny Jurgensen (1961-62, 1966-67, 1969).
- should he lead the league in touchdown passes, he would join only two other to have led the NFL in that category for four seasons. He led the league in 1984-86.

O.J. McDUFFIE...
- to set the team record for career punt returns for touchdowns, breaking a tie with Freddie Solomon (two) and Tom Vigorito. He has returned two punts for touchdowns.

RICKY SANDERS...
- to record the 500th reception of his NFL career. He has 481 career catches.

PETE STOYANOVICH...
- to break the team record for career field goals, surpassing Garo Yepremian (165 field goals). He has 149 field goals.

RICHMOND WEBB...
- should he be selected to the Pro Bowl, he would accomplish the feat for the sixth consecutive season and tie the team record for most consecutive Pro Bowl appearances with Jim Langer (six consecutive Pro Bowls). He has been selected to play in five straight Pro Bowls.

DOLPHIN FACT

The Miami Dolphins recorded a 31-0 win over the San Diego Chargers on January 10, 1993, in the AFC Divisional Playoff game. The Dolphins became just the fifth AFC team since the 1970 merger of the American and National Football Leagues to record a shutout in the playoffs. Amazingly, Miami has recorded three of the five AFC playoff shutouts by having also earned a 14-0 win over the N.Y. Jets on January 23, 1983, and a 21-0 win over the Baltimore Colts on January 2, 1972. The only other AFC playoff shutouts were by the San Diego Chargers (17-0 over Kansas City on January 2, 1993) and the Baltimore Colts (17-0 over the Cincinnati Bengals on December 26, 1970.

DOLPHIN FACT

Running back Bernie Parmalee holds the team record for rushing yardage in consecutive games. Parmalee gained 150 yards on 30 carries against the L.A. Raiders on October 16, 1994, and followed that performance with a 123-yard effort on 25 carries at New England on October 30. His 273 rushing yards in consecutive games set a team record for rushing yards in consecutive games, surpassing the previous best of 258 yards rushing by Mercury Morris accomplished with 197 yards against New England on September 30, 1973, and 61 yards at the New York Jets on October 7, 1973.

Fryar is just the seventh player in NFL history to record 1,000-yard receiving seasons with two different teams . . . He had 1,270 yards in 1994 and 1,010 yards in 1993 with Miami after gaining 1,014 yards in 1991 with New England . . . Fryar is the first player to accomplish this feat since James Lofton had 1,000-yard seasons with Buffalo (1991) and Green Bay (1980-81 and 1983-85):

NFL PLAYERS WITH 1,000 RECEIVING YARDS FOR TWO TEAMS

IRVING FRYAR	MIAMI	1993-94	NEW ENGLAND	1991
James Lofton	Buffalo	1991	Green Bay	1980-81, 1983-85
Wes Chandler	San Diego	1982, 1985	New Orleans	1979
Harold Jackson	New England	1979	Philadelphia	1969, 1972
Art Powell	Oakland	1963-64	N.Y. Titans	1960, 1962

Tommy McDonald	L.A. Rams	1965	Philadelphia	1961-62

100-YARD GAMES: Fryar had six 100-yard receiving games in 1994 and now has a career total of 19 games of 100 or more receiving yards . . . His six 100-yard games in '94 tied for the second-best single season total in Dolphin history (Mark Clayton also had six 100-yard reception games in 1984), trailing only the team record of eight 100-yard reception games, which was set by Mark Duper in 1986 . . . Fryar had a team-record string of four consecutive games with 100 or more receiving yards with 112 yards against Chicago (11/13), 113 yards at Pittsburgh (11/20), 103 yards at N.Y. Jets (11/27) and 110 yards against Buffalo (12/4) . . . Those four straight games of 100-plus receiving yards set a team record for consecutive 100-yard games, breaking the previous record of three straight 100-yard receiving games, set by Mark Clayton in 1984 and Mark Duper in 1986 . . .

FRYAR'S QUARTERBACKS: Fryar has caught passes from 12 quarterbacks during his 11-year NFL career . . . He played with nine signal callers during his nine years (1984-92) with New England and three passers during his two years (1993-94) with Miami . . . Caught passes from New England's Jeff Carlson (1992), Tony Eason (1984-89), Doug Flutie (1987-89), Steve Grogan (1984-90), Tom Hodson (1990-92), Hugh Millen (1991-92), Tom Ramsey (1985-88), Marc Wilson (1989-90) and Scott Zolak (1992) and Miami's Steve DeBerg (1993), Dan Marino (1993-94) and Scott Mitchell (1993) . . . Fryar also caught an 11-yard touchdown pass from Miami fullback Keith Byars on an option play against Indianapolis on October 24, 1993 . . .

PRO BOWL: Named as a reserve wide receiver on the 1994 AFC Pro Bowl team . . . Marked third trip to the Pro Bowl and second in as many years as a member of the Dolphins . . . Selected as a first alternate following 1993 season and made the Pro Bowl trip when Houston wide receiver Webster Slaughter missed the contest due to injury . . . Fryar also was selected in 1985 as a member of the New England Patriots as a return specialist . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Had five catches for career-high 211 yards and three touchdown catches all in the second half of the game in season opener against New England (9/4) . . . His output marked second-highest single game receiving yardage total in Dolphin history (surpassed by Mark Duper's 217 yards in receptions against N.Y. Jets on November 10, 1985) and his 42.2-yard-per-catch average was the second best in team history (behind 52.7 yards per catch by Paul Warfield against Pittsburgh on November 4, 1971) . . . Caught three passes for 42 yards and a touchdown with score coming on two yard lateral from teammate Keith Jackson against N.Y. Jets (9/18) . . . Registered six catches for 160 receiving yards at Minnesota (9/25) . . . Posted eight catches for 89 yards at Cincinnati (10/2) . . . Tied career single-game high for receptions with nine catches for 112 yards against Chicago (11/13), matching his nine receptions as a member of the New England Patriots on October 20, 1991, against Minnesota . . . Posted six catches for 113 yards at Pittsburgh (11/20) . . . Had five catches for 103 yards at N.Y. Jets (11/27) and coupled with Mark Ingram's 117 receiving yards in that contest, it marked the first time two Dolphins had 100 or more yards in receptions in the same game since December 10, 1989, against New England when Fred Banks (119 yards) and Mark

Clayton (102 yards) both went over 100 yards in receptions . . . Recorded five catches for 110 yards and two touchdowns against Buffalo (12/4) for team-record fourth consecutive 100-yard receiving game, breaking the previous record of three straight 100-yard games by Mark Clayton (1984) and Mark Duper (1986) . . . Caught two passes for 16 yards and a touchdown against Kansas City (12/12) . . . Had one catch for 38 yards against Detroit (12/25) for 500th career reception . . .

PLAYOFFS: Started both playoff contests . . . Led team with 11 catches for 141 yards and one touchdown . . . Had six catches for 71 yards and a touchdown in First Round Playoff contest against Kansas City (12/31) . . . Posted five receptions for 70 yards in Divisional Playoff contest at San Diego (1/8/95).

AMONG RECEIVING LEADERS: Had one of the most productive receiving seasons in team history . . . His 75 catches was the second-highest single-season reception total overall in Dolphin history, surpassed only by Mark Clayton's team record of 86 catches in 1988 . . . Led all AFC running backs and tied Philadelphia's Herschel Walker (75 catches) among NFL running backs in receptions . . . His 874 receiving yards was tops among NFL running backs . . . Posted 148 receiving yards against Buffalo (12/19) for the most receiving yards in team history by a running back, surpassing the previous high of 120 yards by Tony Nathan at Denver on September 29, 1985 . . . It marked the second time in his career and the second successive game that Kirby gained over 100 yards in receptions (also 107 yards against Pittsburgh on December 13) for the only two games in Dolphin history where a rookie running back gained 100 or more yards in receptions . . . Teamed with fullback Keith Byars (61 catches) to combine for 136 catches in 1993 for the highest single-season reception total by a pair of running backs in team history . . . In addition, Kirby (874) and Byars (613 yards) combined for 1,487 receiving yards in 1993, which is the highest single season reception yardage total by a pair of running backs in Dolphin history . . .

AMONG ROOKIE LEADERS: Kirby's 75 catches and 874 receiving yards set team records for receiving by a Dolphin rookie in club history, surpassing the previous records of 67 catches and 868 yards by Jack Clancy in 1967 . . . Overall, his 75 catches was the third best single season total by a rookie in NFL history, behind Keith Jackson's 81 catches for Philadelphia in 1988 and Earl Cooper's 83 receptions for San Francisco in 1980 . . . Recorded 1,264 total yards from scrimmage (390 rushing and 874 receiving) for the most total yards by a rookie in team history, surpassing the previous record of 1,076 yards (619 rushing and 457 passing) by Troy Stradford in 1987 . . . Had nine catches for 148 yards and one touchdown against Buffalo (12/19) which set team single-game rookie records for catches (surpassing the previous record of eight catches accomplished four previous times) and receiving yards (breaking the previous record of 126 yards set by Jack Clancy on December 3, 1967 at Houston) . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Made NFL debut at Indianapolis (9/5) and carried four times for two yards and caught four passes for 29 yards . . . Had four catches for 23 yards and one rush for one yard against N.Y. Jets (9/23) . . . In his career, with 6,049 attempts, Marino is in second place on the NFL's All-Time leaders in pass attempts, having passed Dan Fouts on Oct. 2, 1994 at Cincinnati (Fran Tarkenton is first with 6,467 attempts) . . . With 3,604 pass completions, Marino ranks second in completions, having passed Fouts on Sept. 25, 1994 at Minnesota; Tarkenton is first with 3,686 completions . . . With 45,173 yards passing, Marino is in second place in the NFL's all-time Top Twenty list of total yards passing, having passed Fouts on Nov. 6, 1994 vs. Indianapolis (Tarkenton is first with 47,003 passing yards) . . . With 328 touchdown passes, Marino is second on the all-time TD list, trailing only Tarkenton (342 TD passes) . . .

ATTEMPTS AND COMPLETIONS: Marino has led the NFL in pass attempts four times during a season (1984, 1986, 1988, 1992) . . . He tied the NFL record for most seasons leading the league in pass attempts (four) with Sammy Baugh (1937, 1943, 1947-48), Johnny Unitas (1957, 1959-61), and George Blanda (1953, 1963-65) . . . Marino led the NFL in pass completions five times in his career (1984-86, 1988, 1992) . . . He tied the NFL record for most seasons leading the league in pass completions (five) with Baugh (1937, 1943, 1945, 1947-48) . . . With 615 pass attempts in 1994, Marino had the second highest number of attempts in Dolphin history, surpassed only by the team record he set in 1986 with 623 attempts . . . On Dec. 18, 1994 at Indianapolis Marino attempted the 6,000th pass of his career, joining Fran Tarkenton as the only two quarterbacks in NFL history to record 6,000 pass attempts . . . On Oct. 2, 1994 at Cincinnati, Marino attempted his 5,605th pass of his career and moved past Dan Fouts into second place among the NFL all-time pass completion leaders, behind only Tarkenton . . . With 385 completions in 1994, Marino set a new Dolphin record for most completions in a season, breaking the former team record for most completions in a season, which he set in 1986 with 378 completions . . . On Nov. 16, 1992 vs. Buffalo, Marino completed the 3,000th pass of his career, joining Fouts (3,297) and Tarkenton (3,686) as the only quarterbacks to complete 3,000 passes . . . On Sept. 25, 1994 at Minnesota, Marino completed the 3,298th pass of his career to move past Fouts into sole possession of second place among the NFL's all-time pass completion leaders, behind only Tarkenton . . . Marino's completion percentage in 1994 of 62.5% is the second highest completion percentage of his career, surpassed only by his team record of 64.2% in 1984 and is the third highest single season completion percentage in Dolphin history, behind his 1984 club record of 64.2% and Bob Griese's completion percentage of 63.0% in 1978 . . . Marino has suffered just 20 sub-50 percent completion percentage games in his 172 regular season games (170 starts), including two in 1994 (on Oct. 16th vs. L.A. Raiders and at Buffalo on Oct. 9th, the first time in Marino's career that he had back-to-back games when he completed less than 50% of his passes) and the Dolphins are 7-13 in those games, including 1-1 in 1994 . . . Including playoffs, Marino has completed less than half his passes 23 times in 184 games (182 starts), and the Dolphins are 7-16 in those games . . .

YARDAGE: Marino's 45,173 yards passing ranks second on the NFL's all-time career passing yardage list . . . On Nov. 6, 1994 vs. Indianapolis, Marino passed Dan Fouts (43,040 career passing yards) and moved into second place on the NFL all-time career passing yardage list . . . He needs only 1,831 yards passing to move ahead of Fran Tarkenton (47,003 career passing yards) into first place:

Marino's 4,453 yards passing in 1994 is the third highest single season total in Dolphin history, surpassed only by his NFL record of 5,084 yards passing in 1984 and 4,746 yards passing in 1986 . . . On Dec. 18, 1994 at Indianapolis, Marino went over 4,000 yards passing for the season, marking the sixth time in his career he has thrown for 4,000 or more yards in a season, extending his own NFL record for most seasons passing for 4,000 yards . . . Marino is the only quarterback in NFL history to have six 4,000-yard seasons (1984-86, 1988, 1992, 1994) . . . Fouts (three, 1979-81) and Warren Moon (three, 1990-91, 94) are the only other QBs to have multiple 4,000-yard seasons . . . Along with Fouts he is the only other QB to pass for 4,000 yards in three straight seasons (1984-86) . . . Marino's six 4,000-yard seasons account for six of the 20 leading single season passing yardage totals in NFL history:

On Nov. 20, 1994 at Pittsburgh, Marino went over 3,000 yards passing for the season, his tenth 3,000-yard season (1984-92, 1994) in only 12 years, extending his NFL record for most 3,000 yard passing seasons . . . He originally set the record for most 3,000 yard seasons in 1991, his eighth year of passing for 3,000 or more yards . . . Before setting that NFL record, he had been tied with Joe Montana (1981, 1983-85, 1987, 1989-90) for the previous record of seven 3,000-yard seasons (before John Elway moved ahead of Montana in 1994):

NFL LEADERS, MOST 3,000 YARD PASSING SEASONS

Dan Fouts	6	1979-81, 84-86	15	43,040
Jim Everett	6	1988-92, 94	9	27,613

In addition, Marino's nine consecutive 3,000-yard seasons (1984-92) is the NFL record for most consecutive 3,000 yard seasons . . . Marino led the NFL in passing yards five different seasons, having accomplished that feat in 1984-86, 1988, and 1992 . . . Marino is tied for the NFL record for most seasons leading the league in passing yardage (five) with Sonny Jurgensen (1961-62, 1966-67, 1969) . . . Marino has 12 career 400-yard games, one of his many other NFL records, and the Dolphins are 7-5 in those 12 games . . . Included in that figure are two 400-yard passing games in 1994, on September 4, vs. New England, when Marino threw for 473 yards, and on Sept. 25th at Minnesota, when Marino threw for 431 yards . . . Those two figures represent the second highest and the fifth highest single game passing yardage totals in Dolphin history:

MIAMI DOLPHIN SINGLE GAME PASSING YARDAGE TOTALS

5.	Dan Marino	9/25/94	at Minnesota	54	29	431	3	3	43

Marino has 49 career regular season 300-yard games (52, including playoffs), trailing only Fouts' career total of 51 regular season 300-yard games, and the Dolphins are 30-19 in those 49 career 300-yard games (31-21 overall, including playoffs) . . . Included in that figure are five 300-yard passing games in 1994, on September 4, vs. New England, when Marino threw for 473 yards, on Sept. 25th at Minnesota, when Marino threw for 431 yards, on Nov. 20th at Pittsburgh, when Marino threw for 312 yards, on Nov. 27th at the N.Y. Jets, when Marino threw for 359 yards, and on Dec. 4th vs. Buffalo, when he threw for 311 yards . . . Marino's three consecutive games of 300 or more passing yards (Nov. 20th at Pittsburgh, Nov. 27th at N.Y. Jets, and Dec. 4th vs. Buffalo) tied his own team record for most consecutive 300-yard passing games . . . He previously had three consecutive 300-yard passing games in the 14th through 16th game in 1984 and then tied that record in the 13th through 15th game in 1988 . . . Marino owns nine of the top ten and 33 of the top 40 passing yardage games in Dolphin history as well as 52 of the 63 300-yard passing games in club history . . .

TOUCHDOWN PASSES: Marino's first touchdown pass at Indianapolis on September 5, 1993, a 40-yard toss to Keith Jackson, gave him 291 touchdown passes for his career, breaking his tie with Johnny Unitas and moving him into sole possession of second place on the all-time TD list . . . He now has 328 career touchdown passes and trails only Fran Tarkenton (342) on the all-time list:

Of all the quarterbacks in the Top 10, Marino has played the fewest number of years, and in the Top Twenty is tied for the fourth fewest years played (along with John Elway), behind Jim Kelly, Boomer Esiason, and Warren Moon . . . Through his first 12 seasons, Marino has averaged 27.3 touchdown passes per season and 1.91 TD passes per game he has played . . . At his current per-game pace, Marino would become the NFL's all-time TD pass leader with 343 TD passes in the eighth game of the 1995 season, just ahead of all-time leader Tarkenton . . . On September 4, 1994 vs. New England, Marino threw for five touchdown passes . . . His second touchdown pass in that contest, a 26-yard TD pass to Keith Jackson, was the 300th touchdown pass of Marino's career . . . He joined Tarkenton (342 career TD passes) as the only quarterbacks in NFL history to reach that milestone . . . Marino, who took 157 career games to throw for 300 TD passes, reached that plateau faster than Tarkenton (217 games):

Marino and the "Marks Brothers", Mark Clayton and Mark Duper, combined for the first and sixth (tied) most prolific quarterback to wide receiver scoring combinations in NFL history: Marino and Clayton combined for 79 touchdown passes, the highest scoring duo in league history, surpassing other famous quarterback-to-receiver combinations such as Baltimore's Johnny Unitas to Raymond Berry (63 touchdowns), and San Francisco's Joe Montana to Jerry Rice (55 touchdowns), while the Marino-to-Duper combination, with 55 touchdowns, ranks tied for sixth:

NOTE: Dan Marino has thrown at least one regular season touchdown pass in every current NFL stadium which he has visited . . . Marino has not played a regular season game at the Georgia Dome (or Fulton County Stadium) or Sun Devil Stadium . . . In addition, in post-season play, he has 12 TD passes in the Orange Bowl, eight at Joe Robbie Stadium, three at Rich Stadium, three at Jack Murphy Stadium, and one TD pass at Stanford Stadium.

Marino threw at least one touchdown pass in 14 of his 16 regular season games in 1994 as well as both playoff contests and now has thrown at least one TD in 150 of his 172 regular-season games (162 of 184 overall) as well as in each of his 12 playoff games:

Overall in Marino's career the Dolphins won only seven of the 22 regular season games in which Marino failed to throw a touchdown pass, with one victory coming in 1994 (Dec. 25th vs. Detroit), two in 1992 (Dec. 27th at New England and Oct. 11th vs. Atlanta), one in 1991 (September 22nd vs. Green Bay), one in 1990 (Oct. 18th vs. Patriots), and the other two coming in 1989 (Oct. 15th at Cincinnati and December 10th vs. Patriots) . . . Marino has six career games of throwing five or more touchdown passes, and the Dolphins are 4-2 in those contests . . . Included in that total is one game in 1994, on September 4, 1994 vs. New England when Marino threw five touchdown passes, which is tied for the third highest single game total in Dolphin history:

Marino has 19 career games passing for four or more touchdowns, and he is 15-4 in those 19 contests . . . Included in that total are two games in 1994, on Sept. 4, 1994 vs. New England, when Marino threw five touchdown passes, and on Nov. 27th at the N.Y. Jets, when Marino threw four TD passes . . . All four of his TD passes in that Jets contest were caught by Mark Ingram, who tied the Dolphin single game team records for most points, touchdowns, and touchdown receptions, all of which originally were set by Paul Warfield when he had four TD receptions on Dec. 15, 1973 vs. Detroit . . . When Marino threw for five touchdowns on September 4th vs. New England, it was the 18th time he threw for four or more touchdowns, breaking an NFL record he had shared with Johnny Unitas for most career games (17) throwing four or more touchdown passes . . . In his career he has thrown three or more touchdowns in 53 games (58, including playoffs), and he is 35-18 in those contests (38-20 including post-season games) . . . On Nov. 13th vs. Chicago, his 11-yard touchdown pass to Keith Jackson was Marino's 20th TD pass of the season, and it extended his NFL record of most seasons with 20 or more touchdown passes to 11 seasons (1983-92, 1994) . . . He has thrown for 20 or more TD passes in 11 of his 12 years in the NFL, with the only season when he failed to reach 20 TD passes coming in 1993, when he played only five games due to injury . . . In 1991 Marino became the first quarterback in NFL history to throw 20 or more touchdown passes nine different times . . . He and Johnny Unitas had been tied for the old record as the only NFL quarterbacks ever to throw 20 or more touchdowns in eight different seasons before Marino broke that mark with his ninth season of 20 or more touchdown passes; Marino accomplished his record-setting feat in his first nine seasons in the league, while Unitas played 18 seasons in the NFL:

NFL LEADERS, MOST SEASONS OF 20 OR MORE TOUCHDOWN PASSES

DAN MARINO	11	1983-92, 94	12	328

Fran Tarkenton	7	1962, 64, 67-69, 75, 78	18	342
Sonny Jurgensen	7	1961-62, 64, 66-67, 69-70	17	255

Marino also is the only player in NFL history to throw 20 or more touchdown passes in his first ten NFL seasons and in ten consecutive seasons . . . Marino finished the 1994 season with 30 touchdown passes, which is tied for the third highest single season total of his career, surpassed only by his NFL record of 48 touchdown passes in 1984 and his 44 TD passes in 1986 (he also had 30 touchdown passes in 1985) . . . On Dec. 12th vs. Kansas City, Marino threw a four-yard touchdown pass to Irving Fryar, which was Marino's 30th touchdown pass of the season . . . .It marked the fourth time in his career (1984-86, 94) he has thrown for 30 or more touchdowns, extending his own NFL record for most seasons throwing 30 or more touchdown passes . . . He also holds the NFL record with three consecutive seasons (1984-86) of throwing for 30 or more touchdown passes . . . No other quarterback has thrown 30 or more touchdown passes three times, and only five quarterbacks have thrown 30 or more TD passes twice (Sonny Jurgensen, 1961, 1967; Y.A. Tittle, 1962, 1963; Daryle Lamonica, 1967, 1969; Dan Fouts, 1980, 1981; and Steve Bartkowski, 1980, 1981) . . . Marino is the only QB to throw 40 or more TDs in two different seasons (1984, 1986) . . .

INTERCEPTIONS: Marino did not throw an interception in five games in 1994 (seven, including playoffs), and the Dolphins went 3-2 in those five games (4-3, including playoffs) . . . In his career, Marino has not thrown an interception in 60 regular season games (64, including playoffs), and the Dolphins are 42-18 in those 60 games in which he was not intercepted (45-19, including playoffs) . . . Since throwing his last interception in 1994, coming on his final pass attempt on December 4, 1994 vs. Buffalo, Marino did not throw an interception in his last 102 regular season pass attempts (covering all three final regular season games), and needs 21 passes without an interception to break Bob Griese's regular season team record of 122 passes without an interception . . . Overall including the post-season, Marino went the final five games of the 1994 season without throwing an interception (the last three regular season contests and the playoff games on December 31st vs. Kansas City and January 8th at San Diego), covering his last 169 pass attempts . . . On Nov. 6th at Indianapolis, Marino threw an interception to the Colts' Ray Buchanan, who returned it 28 yards for a touchdown . . . It was the only time in 1994 that Marino had an interception returned for a TD and the first time since Bobby Houston of the New York Jets returned a Marino interception for a touchdown on December 20, 1992 in Miami . . .

SACKS: Marino was not sacked in seven games in 1994 (Dec. 25th vs. Detroit, Dec. 12th vs. Kansas City, Nov. 27th at N.Y. Jets, Oct. 30th at New England, Oct. 9th at Buffalo, Oct. 2nd at Cincinnati and Sept. 18th vs. N.Y. Jets), and the Dolphins went 6-1 in those contests . . . Marino was sacked four times on Nov. 20, 1994 at Pittsburgh, the most he was sacked in a game in 1994 and it was tied for the second-highest single game sack total of his career . . . For nine consecutive seasons (1982-90), the Dolphins allowed the fewest sacks in the NFL, including the first eight years of Marino's career . . .

RUSHING: In his first game of the 1994 season, on September 4th vs. New England, Marino finished second on the Dolphins in rushing with eight yards on two carries, including a ten-yard run . . . On Dec. 12th vs. Kansas City, Marino rushed for a four-yard touchdown, his only rushing touchdown of the 1994 season . . . In his career Marino has rushed for a touchdown eight times in the regular season (nine, including playoffs): Dec. 12, 1994 vs. Kansas City, four yards, Sept. 26, 1993 at Buffalo, four yards; Dec. 15, 1991 at San Diego, 10 yards; Dec. 10, 1989 vs. New England, one yard; Oct. 15, 1989 at Cincinnati, one yard; Dec. 7, 1987 vs. N.Y. Jets, five yards; Nov. 20, 1983 vs. Baltimore, one yard; and Oct. 30, 1983 vs. L.A. Rams, two yards (and one playoff contest — Jan. 12, 1991 at Buffalo in AFC Division Playoff contest, two yards) . . . The Dolphins are 7-1 in those regular season contests (7-2 including playoff games) when Marino has rushed for a touchdown . . .

DURABILITY: Marino started all 16 games for the Dolphins in 1994 along with both playoff contests . . . Marino has started 161 of the Dolphins' last 172 regular season games (and 173 of 184 games overall including playoffs) since the start of the 1984 season, not counting the three replacement games in 1987 . . . Marino suffered a torn Achilles' tendon in his right leg in the second quarter at Cleveland on October 10, 1993 . . . He was placed on Injured Reserve on Oct. 13th and missed the remaining 11 games of the season . . . In addition to the 11 games he missed in 1993, the only other full games he missed due to an injury in his career were the two final games of the 1983 season . . . The first game he missed as a result of his Achilles' injury, on October 24, 1993 vs. Indianapolis, broke his streak of playing 145 straight regular season games (excluding the three replacement contests in 1987), dating back to the start of the 1984 season (155 straight games if playoff games are counted) . . . Before that injury, Marino was the only NFL quarterback to have started every game since the replacement games in 1987 . . . Marino is one of only five NFL quarterbacks who have started 100 or more straight regular season games since the 1970 merger (also: Ron Jaworski, Phila., 116 games [1977-84], Brian Sipe, Cleve., 109 games [1975-83], Joe Ferguson, Buff., 107 games [1977-84], and Steve Bartkowski, Atl., 100 games [1977-84]) . . .

OPERATIONS: Did not undergo any surgical procedures following the 1994 season . . . It marked only the sixth time in his career that his off-season was surgery-free (after the 1994, 1992, 1990, 1989, 1988, and 1986 seasons) . . . Suffered a torn Achilles' tendon in his right leg in the second quarter at Cleveland on October 10, 1993 . . . Was operated on to repair that tendon on October 11, 1993 by Dolphin team physicians Dr. Dan Kanell and Dr. Peter Indelicato at Imperial Point Medical Center . . . Later underwent arthroscopic surgery on March 31, 1994 by Dr. Kanell and Dr. Indelicato to remove bone spurs from his right ankle . . . Also has undergone surgery on his left knee five times since joining the Dolphins, most recently arthroscopic surgery (performed by Dr. Kanell) to repair loose cartilage in his left knee on December 26, 1991 . . . The other operations to that knee took place on March 8, 1988 (after the 1987 season), February 7, 1986 (after the 1985 season), April 3, 1985 (after the 1984 season), and on Jan. 6, 1984 (after the 1983 season) . . .

NFL RECORDS: Overall Marino holds 20 NFL records and is tied for six others . . . In addition to the above records for yardage and touchdowns, Marino holds NFL single season records for yards (5,084 in 1984) and touchdowns (48 in 1984) . . . Having led the NFL in attempts in 1984, 1986, 1988, and 1992, Marino joined only three other quarterbacks (Sammy Baugh, Johnny Unitas, George Blanda) who have led the NFL in that category four times . . . Having led the NFL in completions from 1984-86, 1988 and 1992, Marino joined Sammy Baugh as the only players to have led the NFL in that category in five seasons . . . Marino and Blanda (1963-65) are the only QBs to lead the NFL in completions three consecutive years . . . Having led the NFL in passing yards from 1984-86, 1988 and 1992, Marino joined Sonny Jurgenson as the only players to have led the NFL in passing yards in five seasons, and only Dan Fouts (1979-82) has led the league longer consecutively in yardage (four seasons) . . . Having led the NFL in touchdown passes from 1984-86, if he does so again in 1995, he would join only two others (Johnny Unitas, Len Dawson) who have led the league in that category in four seasons, and only Unitas (1957-60) has led the NFL in TDs longer consecutively (four seasons) . . .

DOLPHIN RECORDS: Overall Marino holds 28 Dolphin team records and is tied for four others . . . Marino broke all of Bob Griese's team records in passing yardage, attempts, completions, and TD passes:

MARINO'S MIAMI DOLPHINS CAREER RECORDS

TD PASSES	YARDS	ATTEMPTS	COMPLETIONS	INTERCEPTIONS
328 Marino	45,173 Marino	6,049 Marino	3,604 Marino	185 Marino
192 Griese	25,092 Griese	3,429 Griese	1,926 Griese	172 Griese

Griese played 14 NFL seasons (1967-80), while Marino completed his 12th year in the league (1983-94) . . . On September 25, 1994 Marino threw his 173rd career interception to break Griese's club record in that category . . . Marino also holds team career records for highest passer rating, highest completion percentage, and most 300-yard and 400-yard games . . .

UNDER DON SHULA: Marino is one of nine quarterbacks to have started games since Don Shula took over as Dolphin head coach in 1970, and his 170 regular season starts under Shula is the most by any Dolphin quarterback since that time:

DOLPHIN STARTING QUARTERBACKS UNDER DON SHULA

QUARTERBACK	YEARS	STARTS
Bob Griese	1970-80	119
George Mira	1971	1
Earl Morrall	1972-76	12

COMEBACKS: In 1994, Marino led the Dolphins to four fourth-quarter comebacks: On Nov. 27th in New York, when Marino was 15-18 for 164 yards and two touchdowns and no interceptions to lead the Dolphins back from a 24-14 deficit at the start of the fourth quarter to a 28-24 win (In addition, Marino brought the Dolphins back from an 18-point deficit in the third quarter (24-6), which tied for the second-best comeback in team history, along with an 18-point rebound on January 4, 1986 in an AFC Playoff contest against the Cleveland Browns in which the Dolphins came back from a 21-3 deficit to post a 24-21 win; the Dolphins had a club-record 24-point comeback on December 15, 1974 vs. New England, rebounding from a 24-0 deficit to a 34-27 victory); on Nov. 6th vs. Indianapolis, when Marino went 13-16 for 123 yards, one touchdown, and one interception in the fourth quarter to lead the Dolphins back from a 14-6 deficit at the start of the fourth quarter to a 22-21 win; on Oct. 16th vs. the L.A. Raiders, when Marino went 4-9 for 55 yards, one touchdown and no interceptions in the fourth quarter and overtime to lead the Dolphins back from a 17-10 deficit at the start of the fourth quarter to a 20-17 win in overtime; and on Sept. 4th vs. New England, when Marino went 8-13 for 179 yards, two touchdowns, and no interceptions to lead the Dolphins back from a 35-32 deficit in the fourth quarter to a 39-35 victory . . . His 179 yards passing in the fourth quarter of that game are the most yards passing for Marino in the fourth quarter in any of his fourth-quarter comeback wins . . . Over the course of Marino's 12-year career with the Dolphins, he has brought the team back from a fourth quarter deficit a total of 29 times, with 17 fourth quarter triumphs at home and 12 on the road . . . Included in that total are two playoff games in which Marino has led Miami back in the fourth quarter . . . With 29 fourth quarter comeback victories, Marino ranks second among active quarterbacks in that category, behind only Denver's John Elway, who has 34 final period come-from behind wins . . . In Marino's 29 career fourth quarter comebacks, he has completed 207 of 325 passes (63.7%) for 2,765 yards with 24 touchdowns and seven INTs for a rating of 106.3:

PRO BOWL: Marino was named as the starting quarterback for the 1994 AFC Pro Bowl team, but he was not able to play in the game due to soreness in his Achilles' tendon . . . He joined four other Dolphins, tackle Richmond Webb, guard Keith Sims, wide receiver Irving Fryar, and inside linebacker Bryan Cox, to be selected to the AFC squad . . . It was Marino's eighth career Pro Bowl selection (1983-87, 1991-92, 1994), and his sixth selection as a starter (1983-86, 1992, 1994), but due to injuries he has been able to play in only two games (1984, 1992) . . . Marino's eight Pro Bowl selections extends his Dolphin record for most career selections, surpassing the former record of six selections that had previously been set by quarterback Bob Griese (1970-71, 1973-74, 1977-78), center Jim Langer (1973-78), and guard Bob Kuechenberg (1974-75, 1977-78, 1982-83) . . . Marino's six Pro Bowl starts sets a new Dolphin record for career starts, surpassing the former record of five starts that he had been tied with along with center Jim Langer (1973-77) . . .

HONORS: For the 1994 season, Marino was named as second-team all-NFL by the Associated Press, first team all-AFC by United Press International and Football News, the AFC Most Valuable Player by the National Football League Players Association, and AFC Comeback Player of the Year by the NFLPA . . . Also was named the winner of the 1994 Halas award by the Professional Football Writers of America for his outstanding play following a serious injury . . . Marino won the AFC Offensive Player of the Week Award twice overall in 1994, once in the regular season and once in the playoffs . . . His regular season honor was for the week of Sept. 4-5, when he was selected as AFC Offensive Player of the Week as a result of his performance against the New England Patriots . . . In that game Marino was 23-42 for 473 yards, five touchdowns, one interception, and two sacks . . . His honor in the post-season came when he was named the NFL Offensive Player of the Week for the Week of December 31-January 1 following his performance in the AFC Wild Card Playoff Game vs. Kansas City on December 31st . . . In that contest, he went 22-29 for 257 yards, two touchdowns, no interceptions and one sack . . . With his two TD passes vs. the Chiefs, it marked the 11th consecutive post-season game that Marino has thrown a touchdown pass, setting a new NFL record . . . Marino now has won the NFL or AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors 16 times overall (including twice in the playoffs), as well as two AFC Player of the Month Awards in his career . . . It is the most times any player has won NFL or AFC Player of the Week honors since the award was instituted in 1984 . . . John Elway is second with 11 awards, Boomer Esiason is third with nine awards (he also has a Player of the Month Award), Jim Kelly is fourth with eight AFC awards (along with two AFC Player of the Month Awards), while Warren Moon has six AFC awards (as well as one monthly honor) . . . Marino won the Dolphins' Most Valuable Player Award in 1994 in balloting of South Florida media for the 11th year (1983-92, 1994) . . . Marino passed Bob Griese, who won that award six times (1967-68, 1970-71, 1974, 1977) . . . Marino won the MVP award each of his first ten years in the league (1983-92), and no other Dolphin has ever won more than two consecutive MVP awards . . . Marino also won the Dolphins' Outstanding Offensive Back award, the tenth time he won that award (1983-90, 1992, 1994) . . . His ten years winning that award surpassed the former team high set by Larry Csonka (1970-74, 1979), who had won that award six times . . .

PLAYOFFS: In his two games in the 1994 playoffs, Marino was 46-67 (68.7%) for 519 yards, five touchdowns and no interceptions for a rating of 116.4 . . . He extended his Dolphin career playoff records for most attempts, completions, yards passing, and touchdown passes, playing in 12 playoff games, while Bob Griese, runner-up in all four categories, played in 12 post-season contests:

Marino also has thrown at least one touchdown pass in each of his 12 playoff contests . . . His 12-game postseason streak with at least one touchdown pass establishes an NFL record for the most consecutive games with a touchdown pass, and he broke that record on December 31, 1994 vs. Kansas City when he threw a touchdown pass for the 11th consecutive game before extending the mark to 12 straight games following his three touchdowns against the Chargers on January 8, 1995:

1. Joe Montana	San Francisco/Kansas City	45	22
2. Terry Bradshaw	Pittsburgh	30	19
3. DAN MARINO	MIAMI	27	12
4. Roger Staubach	Dallas	24	20

In AFC Divisional Playoff contest on January 8, 1995 at San Diego, Marino was 24-38 for 262 yards, three touchdowns and no interceptions . . . His three touchdown passes was tied for the third highest single game total in Dolphin playoff history . . . With his three TD passes against the Chargers, Marino threw at least one touchdown pass in each of his 12 career post-season games, and he extended his own NFL record for most consecutive playoff games with one or more touchdown passes to 12 straight post-season contests . . . In AFC First Round Playoff Game vs. Kansas City on December 31, 1994, went 22-29 for 257 yards, two touchdowns, no interceptions and one sack . . . His touchdown passes came on a one-yard pass to Ron Williams and a seven-yard pass to Irving Fryar . . . With his two TD passes vs. the Chiefs, it marked the 11th consecutive post-season game that Marino has thrown a touchdown pass, setting a new NFL record . . . Marino had been tied with ten consecutive post-season games with a TD pass along with Joe Montana (1988-93) and Ken Stabler (1973-77) . . . For his efforts in that Chiefs game, Marino was named as the NFL Offensive Player of the Week for the Week of December 31-January 1 . . . It was the second time Marino won AFC or NFL Offensive Player of the Week honors in 1994, having also won the award for the week of September 4-5 as a result of his performance against the New England Patriots . . . It also was the second time Marino won a post-season award, as he was named as NFL Offensive Player of the Week for the NFL First Round Playoff Games (January 5-6, 1990) following his performance on January 5, 1990 vs. Kansas City . . .

REGULAR SEASON GAME HIGHLIGHTS - VS. DETROIT (DEC. 25): On Dec. 25th vs. Detroit, Marino was 26-35 for 285 yards, no touchdowns, interceptions, or sacks . . . His 26 completions in the contest gave him 385 completions for the season, which set a new Dolphin team record for most completions in a season . . . It was the 22nd time in Marino's career that he failed to throw a touchdown pass, and it was only the seventh time (7-15) the Dolphins won in those 22 games . . . It also was the 60th regular season game of his career that Marino did not throw an interception, and the Dolphins are 43-17 in those 60 games in which he was not intercepted . . .

AT INDIANAPOLIS (DEC. 18): On Dec. 18th vs. Indianapolis Marino was 21-37 for 225 yards, no touchdowns or interceptions and two sacks . . . He went over the 4,000-yards passing mark for the season in that contest, extending his own NFL record for most seasons passing for 4,000 yards to six years . . . He also threw the 6,000 pass attempt of his career, joining Fran Tarkenton as the only two quarterbacks in NFL history to have 6,000 or more pass attempts . . . It was the 21st time in his career (and first time in 1994) that Marino did not throw a touchdown pass . . . It also was the 59th regular season game of his career that Marino did not throw an interception . . .

VS. KANSAS CITY (DEC. 12): On Dec. 12th vs. Kansas City Marino was 21-30 for 241 yards, two touchdowns, no interceptions and no sacks . . . His second touchdown pass of the game, a four-yard TD pass to Irving Fryar, was Marino's 30th touchdown pass of the season, which extended his NFL record to four seasons with 30 or more TD passes . . . It also was the 58th regular season game of his career that Marino did not throw an interception . . . Marino also scored on a four-yard touchdown run . . . It was the eighth time in the regular season (and ninth, including playoffs) that Marino has rushed for a touchdown, and in those games the Dolphins are 7-1 (7-2, including playoffs) . . .

VS. BUFFALO (DEC. 4): On Dec. 4th vs. Buffalo, Marino was 25-42 for 311 yards, three touchdowns, three interceptions, and one sack . . . It marked the fifth time in 1994 and the 49th time in the regular season that he threw for over 300 yards . . . It also was the third straight game in which he threw for 300 or more yards, tying his own team record for most consecutive 300 yard games (he had three straight 300-yard passing games in 1984 and also again in 1988) . . .

AT N.Y. JETS (NOV. 27): On Nov. 27th at N.Y. Jets Marino was 31-44 for 359 yards, four touchdowns, two interceptions, and no sacks . . . It marked the fourth time in 1994 and the 48th time in the regular season that he threw for over 300 yards . . . It marked the second time in 1994 and the 19th time in his career that Marino has thrown for four or more touchdowns, and the Dolphins are 15-4 in those 19 contests . . . All four of his touchdown passes (10, 17, 28, and eight yards) were to Mark Ingram, who tied the Dolphin single game team records for most points, touchdowns, and touchdown receptions, which all were set by Paul Warfield when he had four touchdown receptions on Dec. 15, 1973 vs. Detroit . . . Marino's final TD pass to Ingram came with 22 seconds left in the contest to give the Dolphins their final points in their comeback 28-24 win in a game the Dolphins trailed at one point 17-0 and later 24-6 . . . It was the fourth time in 1994 and the 29th time in his career that Marino brought the Dolphins back from a fourth quarter deficit to a victory . . . In addition, Marino brought the Dolphins back from an 18-point deficit in the third quarter (24-6), which tied for the second-best comeback in team history, along with an 18-point rebound on January 4, 1986 in an AFC Playoff contest against the Cleveland Browns in which the Dolphins came back from a 21-3 deficit to post a 24-21 win . . . (The Dolphins had a club-record 24-point comeback on December 15, 1974 vs. New England, rebounding from a 24-0 deficit to a 34-27 victory) . . .

AT PITTSBURGH (NOV. 20): On Nov. 20th at Pittsburgh Marino was 31-45 for 312 yards, one touchdown, one interception, and four sacks . . . It marked the third time in 1994 and the 47th time in the regular season that he threw for over 300 yards . . . He also went over 3,000 yards passing for the season in the game against the Steelers, his tenth 3,000-yard season (1984-92, 1994) in only 12 years, extending his NFL record for most 3,000 yard passing seasons . . . His four sacks were the most he was sacked in a game in 1994 and is tied for the second highest single game total of sacks he has suffered in his career . . .

VS CHICAGO (NOV. 13): On Nov. 13th vs. Chicago Marino was 24-38 for 289 yards, one touchdown, one interception, and two sacks . . . His touchdown pass was an 11-yard TD pass to Keith Jackson and it was the 20th touchdown pass of the season . . . It marked the 11th season in his 12-year career that Marino has thrown for 20 or more touchdown passes, extending his own NFL record for most seasons of 20 or more TD passes . . .

VS. INDIANAPOLIS (NOV. 6): On Nov. 6th vs. Indianapolis, Marino was 30-41 for 261 yards, one touchdown, two interceptions, and one sack . . . In that contest he moved past Dan Fouts (43,040 yards) and into second place on the NFL's all-time yards passing list, behind only Fran Tarkenton . . . In that Colts game Marino also led the Dolphins back from a 14-6 deficit at the start of the third quarter to a 22-21 win . . . It marked Marino's third fourth quarter comeback in 1994 and the 28th regular season fourth quarter comeback of his career . . . One of Marino's two interceptions in that game was returned by Ray Buchanan 28 yards for a Colts touchdown, giving Indianapolis a 21-12 lead with only 7:32 left to play in the fourth quarter . . .

AT NEW ENGLAND (OCT. 30): On Oct. 30th at New England, Marino was 21-36 for 198 yards, one touchdown, and two interceptions . . . By going 21-36 in that contest, he broke his string of two consecutive games of completing less than 50% of his passes . . . His one touchdown pass came on a seven-yard toss to Keith Byars . . .

L.A. RAIDERS (OCT. 16): On Oct. 16th vs. L.A. Raiders, Marino was 17-37 for 186 yards, two touchdowns, one interception, and two sacks . . . It was the 20th time in his career (23rd time, including playoffs) that Marino completed less than 50% of his passes, and the Dolphins are 7-13 in those contests (7-16 overall) . . . Combined with his 20-43 passing performance on Oct. 9th at Buffalo, it marked the first time in Marino's career that he had back to back games when he completed less than 50% of his passes . . . In the Raider contest, Marino led the Dolphins back from a 17-10 deficit at the start of the fourth quarter to a 20-17 overtime win, marking the 27th time in Marino's career that he brought the Dolphins back from a fourth quarter deficit to victory . . .

AT BUFFALO (OCT. 9): On Oct. 9th at Buffalo, Marino was 20-43 for 212 yards, one touchdown and no interceptions . . . It was only the 19th regular season game of his career (22nd overall, including playoffs) that Marino completed less than half of his passes . . . It also was the second straight game in which Marino did not throw an interception . . . It also was the 57th game (59, including playoffs) of his career that Marino did not throw an interception . . .

AT CINCINNATI (OCT. 9): On October 2nd at Cincinnati, Marino was 26-35 for 204 yards, two touchdowns, no interceptions, and no sacks . . . It was the 56th regular season game of his career that Marino has not thrown an interception . . . In that game he threw the 5,605th pass of his career and moved past Dan Fouts into second place on the NFL's all-time pass attempts list . . .

AT MINNESOTA (SEPT. 25): On Sept. 25th at Minnesota, Marino was 29-54 for 431 yards, three touchdowns, three interceptions, and one sack . . . His 54 attempts is tied for the fourth highest single game total of his career and tied for the fifth highest single game total in Dolphin history . . . His 431 yards passing represents the fifth highest single game total of his career and the fifth highest single game total in Dolphin history . . . Combined with his 473 yards passing vs. New England on Sept. 4, 1994, Marino in 1994 recorded two of his top five career passing yardage games and two of the top five passing yardage games in Dolphin history . . . His 431 yards passing against the Vikings was the second time in 1994 and the 46th time in the regular season that he threw for over 300 yards, and it was the second time in 1994 and the 12th time in his career he threw for 400 or more yards . . . The last time Marino had two 400-yard games in the same season was in 1988 . . . In that Minnesota contest he recorded the 3,298th completion of his carerer, passing Dan Fouts and moving into second place on the all-time NFL list for completions, behind only Fran Tarkenton . . . His third interception in that Viking contest was the 173rd interception of his career, breaking Bob Griese's former Dolphin record of 172 career interceptions . . .

VS. N.Y. JETS (SEPT. 18): On Sept. 18th vs N.Y. Jets, he was 23-31 for 289 yards, two touchdowns, one interception, and one sack . . . His two touchdown passes came on an 11-yard pass to Keith Byars and on a 23-yard pass to Keith Jackson, who lateralled to Irving Fryar who ran the remaining two yards into the end zone . . .

AT GREEN BAY (SEPT. 11): On Sept. 11th at Green Bay Marino was 17-25 for 177 yards, two touchdowns, no interceptions and two sacks . . . Also had one rush for minus-one yard . . . It was the 55th regular season game of his career that Marino has not thrown an interception . . .

VS. NEW ENGLAND (SEPT. 4): Had a career game in the season opener on September 4th vs. New England, his first regular season action since he injured his Achilles' tendon on October 10, 1993 . . . In that Patriots contest Marino was 23-42 for 473 yards, five touchdowns, one interception, and two sacks . . . He was named as the AFC Offensive Player of the Week for the Week of Sept. 4-5 as a result of his performance in that Patriot game, the 14th time in the regular season (and the 15th time overall) that he has won that award . . . His 473 yards passing was the second highest single game total in Dolphin history, surpassed only by his 521 yards passing against the New York Jets on October 23, 1988 . . . It also marked the 45th time in the regular season that he threw for over 300 yards and the 11th time in his career he threw for 400 or more yards . . . In addition, his five touchdown passes marked the sixth time in his career that he has thrown five or more touchdown passes and it was his first game of five or more TD passes since he threw five TD passes at the N.Y. Jets on November 27, 1988 . . . His five TD passes also marked the 18th time in his career he threw for four or more touchdown passes, breaking the NFL record of 17 games of four or more TD passes that he shared with Johnny Unitas . . . In addition, his second touchdown pass of that contest, a 26-yard TD pass to Keith Jackson, was the 300th career TD pass of his career, and he joined Fran Tarkenton as the only two quarterbacks in NFL history to throw 300 or more touchdown passes.

1993 – Played only five games and finished 91-150 (60.7%) for 1,218 yards, eight touchdowns, three interceptions, and seven sacks for a rating of 95.9 . . . Suffered a torn Achilles' tendon in his right leg in the second quarter at Cleveland on October 10th . . . Was operated on to repair that tendon on October 11, 1993 by Dolphin team physicians Dr. Dan Kanell and Dr. Peter Indelicato at Imperial Point Medical Center . . . Was placed on Injured Reserve on October 13, 1993 and missed the remainder of the season . . . The first game he missed because of his injury, on Oct. 24, 1993 vs. Indianapolis, broke his string of playing 145 straight games (excluding the three replacement contests in 1987), dating back to the start of the 1984 season . . . The last games he missed due to injury before that Colts contest were the final two games of the 1983 campaign . . . Started all four preseason games and was 38-71 (53.5%) for 542 yards, three touchdowns and one interception for a rating 86.7 . . . .In 1993 for the first time in his career, Marino did not finish among the conference and league leaders due to his Achilles' injury that ended his season after five games . . . However, at the time of his injury (following the weekend of Oct. 10th), Marino ranked third in the AFC and fifth in the NFL in passer ratings, fifth in the AFC and ninth in the NFL in pass attempts, third in the AFC and seventh in the NFL in completions, third in the AFC and fourth in the NFL in passing yards, and tied for second in the AFC and in the NFL in touchdown passes . . . With his 11-yard completion to Irving Fryar in the fourth quarter on September 12, 1993 vs. the N.Y. Jets, Marino went over the 40,000 yards passing mark for his career . . . He became only the fourth quarterback to pass for 40,000 yards and reached that milestone in 153 games, faster than any quarterback in NFL history:

Limited to only five games in 1993, Marino threw for 1,218 yards, the lowest single season figure of his career . . . Marino did not have a 400-yard or 300-yard passing game in 1993 . . . Marino's first touchdown pass at Indianapolis on September 5, 1993, a 40-yard toss to Keith Jackson, gave him 291 touchdown passes for his career, breaking his tie with Johnny Unitas and moving him into sole possession of second place on the all-time TD list . . . On October 4, 1993 vs. Washington, Marino threw an 80-yard touchdown pass to Tony Martin . . . It was tied for the third longest pass play in Marino's career and it was tied for the fourth longest play in Dolphin history . . . It also was the longest play by the Dolphins since Marino threw an 80-yard touchdown pass to Ferrell Edmunds on November 27, 1988 at the N.Y. Jets . . . Marino threw at least one touchdown pass in all five of his regular season games in 1993 . . . Marino did not throw an interception in two of his five games in 1993, and the Dolphins went 1-1 in those two contests . . . Marino was sacked seven times in his five games in 1993 . . . Marino was sacked four times on September 12, 1993 vs. the N.Y. Jets, the most he was sacked in a game in 1993 . . . It was the ninth time in his career he was sacked four or more times and was one sack shy of his single game career high of five sacks . . . On September 26, 1993 at Buffalo, Marino scored on a four-yard touchdown run . . . It was the seventh time in the regular season (and eighth overall) that Marino has rushed for a touchdown . . . In 1993, Marino led the Dolphins to one fourth quarter comeback, on Sept. 5th at Indianapolis, from a 20-17 deficit to a 24-20 victory . . . Marino won the AFC Player of the Week Award once in 1993, for the week of September 26, 1993, when he was 20-32 for 282 yards, one touchdown, one interception, and one rushing touchdown in the Dolphins' 22-13 win at Buffalo over the Bills.

1992 – In 1992 he started all 16 games and was 330-554 (59.6%) for 4,116 yards, 24 touchdowns, 16 interceptions, and 28 sacks for a rating of 85.1 . . . Marino finished second in the AFC (behind Warren Moon's rating of 89.3) and seventh in the NFL in passing with a rating of 85.1 . . . He was first in the AFC and the NFL in pass attempts (554), first in the AFC and the NFL in completions (330), first in the AFC and the NFL in passing yards (4,116), and was first in the AFC and second in the NFL in touchdown passes (24) . . . Marino's league-leading 554 pass attempts marked the fourth time in his NFL career that Marino led the NFL in pass attempts during a season . . . Marino's league-leading 330 pass completions marked the fifth time in his NFL career that Marino led the NFL in pass completions . . . On Nov. 16, 1992 vs. Buffalo, Marino completed the 3,000th pass of his career, joining Dan Fouts (3,297) and Fran Tarkenton (3,686) as the only quarterbacks to complete 3,000 passes . . . On Nov. 16, 1992 vs. Buffalo, Marino opened the game by completing his first 11 pass attempts, and coupled with his four consecutive completions at the end of his previous contest, on Nov. 8th at Indianapolis, his 15 straight completions set a new personal high as well as a new Dolphin team record for most consecutive completions . . . The previous Dolphin record was 13 straight completions, set by Earl Morrall on December 1, 1975 against New England:

MIAMI DOLPHINS CONSECUTIVE COMPLETIONS HIGHS

NAME	DATE	OPPONENT	CONSECUTIVE COMPLETIONS
DAN MARINO	11/8/92-11/16/92	INDIANAPOLIS/BUFFALO	15
Earl Morrall	12/1/75	New England	13

Marino threw for 4,116 yards in 1992, the fifth season he has thrown for 4,000 or more yards, extending his own NFL record for most seasons passing for 4,000 yards . . . In addition, in that Oiler contest on Nov. 22, 1992, Marino also extended his own NFL record for most consecutive 3,000 yard seasons to nine seasons (1984-92) . . . Marino's league-leading 4,116 passing yards marked the fifth time in his NFL career that Marino led the NFL in passing yards during a season . . . Marino had three 300-yard games in 1992, on November 16th vs. Buffalo (321 yards), October 25th vs. Indianapolis (355 yards) and on September 14th at Cleveland (322 yards) and the Dolphins were 1-2 in those contests . . . Marino's two touchdown passes on Dec. 20, 1992 vs. the N.Y. Jets gave him 290 touchdown passes for his career, tying him with Johnny Unitas for second place on the all-time TD list . . . He passed for four touchdowns on October 18th against New England, tying him with Johnny Unitas' NFL record of 17 career four-touchdown passing games . . . It was his first four-TD game since he threw four touchdown passes on December 12, 1988 against the Cleveland Browns . . . In addition to his four TD passes against the Patriots, Marino threw for three touchdown passes one other time in 1992, on October 4th at Buffalo . . . On Nov. 22, 1992 vs. Houston, Marino threw his 20th touchdown pass of the season, extending his NFL record of most seasons with 20 or more touchdown passes to ten seasons (1983-92) . . . Had five games in 1992 (six, including post-season play) without throwing an interception, and the Dolphins went 3-2 in those contests (4-2 including playoffs) . . . He threw three interceptions in 1992 that were returned for touchdowns: Bobby Houston of the N.Y. Jets on Dec. 20th, Eddie Anderson of the L.A. Raiders on Dec. 14th, and Vince Buck of the Saints on Nov. 29th . . . Anderson returned his Marino interception 102 yards for a touchdown, accounting for the Raiders' only score of the game . . . His 102-yard return was tied for the third longest interception return in NFL history and was the longest INT return against the Dolphins in club history . . . Marino was sacked 28 times in 1992, the highest single season sack total of his career, surpassing his 27 sacks in 1991 . . . Marino had two games in the regular season (Oct. 4th at Buffalo and Sept. 20th vs. L.A. Rams) and one in the playoffs (Jan. 10th vs. San Diego) in 1992 in which he was not sacked . . . On Nov. 29th at New Orleans, Marino was sacked five times, the most he has been sacked in a single game in his career (his previous high had been four sacks six different games, including the previous two contests) . . . It was the third straight game (including Nov. 22nd vs. Houston and Nov. 16th vs. Buffalo) that Marino was sacked four or more times, and he was sacked a total of 13 times in those three games . . . One of Marino's five sacks on Nov. 29th at New Orleans resulted in a defensive touchdown when he fumbled after being sacked by Pat Swilling and the fumble was returned for 28 yards for a touchdown by Robert Goff . . . It was the first time that Marino lost a fumble after a sack that was returned for a touchdown since Nov. 18, 1991 vs. Buffalo when Cornelius Bennett sacked Marino and returned his fumble six yards for a touchdown . . . When he was sacked in the end zone by Marvin Washington for a safety on Nov. 1st at the N.Y. Jets, it marked the first time in Marino's career he was sacked for a safety . . . Marino finished third on the Dolphins in rushing in 1992 with 66 yards on 20 carries, an average of 3.3 yards per rush . . . His 66 yards rushing was greater than his career rushing total (43 yards) that he accumulated heading into the 1992 season, and also had his single season career rushing best, surpassing his previous single season rushing high, which he set in his rookie year of 1983 when he ran for 45 yards on 28 carries . . . Marino had to leave a game twice in 1992 due to injuries . . . He missed one snap on Dec. 27th at New England due to a twisted knee . . . Marino suffered a mild concussion late in the fourth quarter on September 27th at Seattle, forcing him to miss one snap in Miami's game-winning drive (Scott Mitchell completed a key 18-yard pass on third down in his place) before returning to throw the winning 15-yard touchdown pass to Fred Banks on his third play back, and then also missed the next series when Mitchell ran out the clock to preserve the victory . . . It was the first time Marino was forced to miss a snap due to an injury since November 26, 1989 vs. Pittsburgh, when he suffered a contusion of his right AC joint (located in his shoulder), forcing him to leave that game for good with seven minutes left in the fourth quarter . . . In 1992, Marino led the Dolphins to six fourth quarter comebacks, Dec. 27th at New England (from 6-13 to 16-13), on Dec. 20th vs. N.Y. Jets (from 16-17 to 19-17), Nov. 22nd vs. Houston (from 13-16 to 19-16), October 11th vs. Atlanta (from 14-17 to 21-17), on September 27th at Seattle (from 12-17 to 19-17), and on September 14th at Cleveland (from 20-23 to 27-23) . . . In his two games in the 1992 playoffs Marino was 39-74 (52.7%) for 435 yards, four touchdowns, two interceptions, and four sacks for a 77.3 rating . . . In AFC title game vs. Buffalo on January 17th, Marino was 22-45 for 268 yards, one touchdown, two interceptions, and four sacks . . . In first playoff game in 1992, on January 10th vs. San Diego, Marino was 17-29 for 167 yards, three touchdowns, and no interceptions or sacks . . . His three touchdown passes is tied for the third best single game mark in Dolphin playoff history . . . Marino was named as the starting quarterback on the 1992 AFC Pro Bowl team . . . He joined three other Dolphins who were named as starters on the AFC Pro Bowl squad: offensive lineman Richmond Webb, outside linebacker Bryan Cox, and tight end Keith Jackson (who missed the game due to injury) . . . It was Marino's seventh career Pro Bowl selection and his fifth selection as a starter . . . League-wide in 1992 Marino was named to the All-AFC first team by Football News and United Press International and was named second-team All-Pro by College and Pro Football Newsweekly and Newspaper Enterprise Association . . . Marino won the Dolphins' Most Valuable Player Award in 1992 in balloting of South Florida media for the tenth straight year . . . He also won the Dolphins' Outstanding Offensive Back award, the ninth time he won that award.

1991 – In 1991 he started all 16 games and was 318-549 (57.9%) for 3,970 yards, 25 touchdowns and 13 interceptions for a rating of 85.8 . . . In his first eight games of the year, Marino was 142-260 (54.6%) with 1,811 yards (an average of 226 yards per game), eight touchdowns and six interceptions, with the Dolphins going 3-5 . . . In his last eight games, Marino was 176-289 (60.1%) for 2,159 yards (an average of 270 yards per game), 17 touchdowns and seven interceptions, and the Dolphins were 5-3 in those contests . . . He threw 16 touchdown passes in his last seven games . . . Underwent arthroscopic surgery (performed by Dr. Dan Kanell) to repair loose cartilage in his left knee on December 26, 1991 . . . Marino finished third in the AFC and seventh in the NFL in passing with a rating of 85.8 . . . Was second in the AFC and the NFL in passing yards with 3,970 yards, was second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL in touchdown passes with 25, was second in the AFC and the NFL in completions with 318, and was second in the AFC and the NFL in attempts with 549 . . . With 3,970 yards passing in 1991, Marino missed by 30 yards passing to reach the 4,000-yard passing mark . . . On Dec. 1, 1991 vs. Tampa Bay, Marino went over 3,000 yards passing for the season, and he became the first quarterback in NFL history to throw for 3,000 or more yards in eight seasons (1984-91) . . . Before setting that NFL record, he had been tied with Joe Montana (1981, 1983-85, 1987, 1989-90) for the previous record of seven 3,000-yard seasons . . . Marino did not throw for 400 or more yards in any game in 1991 . . . Marino threw for 300 or more yards three times in 1991: on Oct. 6th at New England (321 yards), on Nov. 18th vs. Buffalo (326 yards), and on Dec. 1st vs. Tampa Bay (307 yards) . . . Marino threw at least one touchdown pass in 13 of his 16 regular season games in 1991 . . . The three games in 1991 where Marino failed to throw a touchdown pass came in a 42-7 loss at Kansas City on Oct. 13th, a 16-13 win vs. Green Bay on September 22nd and in a 17-14 loss at Detroit on September 15th . . . The games against Green Bay and Detroit were only the second time in his career he failed to throw a touchdown pass in back-to-back games, with the other time coming on December 10, 1989 vs. New England and December 17, 1989 at Indianapolis . . . Those back-to-back touchdown-less games against the Packers and Lions comprised the bulk of a streak of nine consecutive quarters that Marino did not throw a touchdown pass, the longest such stretch of his career . . . The streak ran from the first quarter of the game on September 15th at Detroit through the first quarter of the game on September 29th at N.Y. Jets, covering two full games and the first quarter of a third, before ending when Marino threw a TD pass to Mark Clayton on the first play of the second quarter on Sept 29th at N.Y. Jets . . . Marino threw for three touchdown passes in four games in 1991: On Sept. 1st at Buffalo, Nov. 10th vs. New England, Dec. 9th vs. Cincinnati, and Dec. 15th at San Diego . . . On Dec. 9, 1991 vs. Cincinnati, Marino threw his 20th touchdown pass of the season, marking the ninth time in his nine-year career he has thrown for 20 or more touchdowns passes in a season . . . He became the first quarterback in NFL history to throw 20 or more touchdown passes nine different times . . . He and Johnny Unitas had been tied for the old record as the only NFL quarterbacks ever to throw 20 or more touchdowns in eight different seasons before Marino broke that mark with his ninth season of 20 or more touchdown passes; Marino accomplished his record-setting feat in his first nine seasons in the league, while Unitas played 18 seasons in the NFL . . . Marino threw 13 interceptions in 1991, tied for the third lowest total of his career (in a full season). . . His three interceptions Oct. 20th at Houston was his 1991 single game high, and it was the first time he threw three or more interceptions since he had three INTs on September 9, 1990 at New England . . . Had seven games in 1991 without throwing an interception, and the Dolphins went 4-3 in those contests . . . Marino was sacked 27 times for 182 yards in losses in 1991, the second highest total of his career, surpassed only by his 28 sacks in 1992 . . . Overall in 1991, Marino and Scott Secules (one sack), were sacked 28 times, which tied the Dolphins for seventh place in the NFL for the fewest quarterback sacks allowed . . . It ended a streak of nine consecutive seasons that the Dolphins allowed the fewest sacks in the league, including the first eight years of Marino's career . . . On Dec. 15th at San Diego he was sacked by the Chargers' Leslie O'Neal in the fourth quarter, forcing Marino to fumble and the Chargers recovered on the Dolphins' 13-yard line . . . San Diego went in to score a touchdown to give them a 24-23 lead that they did not relinquish . . . On Nov. 18th vs. Buffalo, he was sacked for a nine-yard loss by Cornelius Bennett, forcing Marino to fumble . . . Bennett recovered the fumble and returned it six yards for a touchdown . . . Had one touchdown rushing in 1991, coming on a 10-yard scramble on Dec. 15th at San Diego . . . It was the longest touchdown run of his career . . . Was named as a reserve quarterback on the AFC Pro Bowl team in 1991, his sixth career Pro Bowl selection but he was unable to play in the game due to his recovery from arthroscopic knee surgery . . . His selection broke a three-year streak (1988-90) in which he did not make the Pro Bowl . . . Marino was named as the AFC's Offensive Player of the Week for December 1-2 after going 20-32 for 307 yards, two touchdowns and no interceptions in Dolphins' 33-14 victory over Tampa Bay . . . In that game, Marino went over 3,000 passing yards for the eighth time in his career to set an NFL record for most 3,000 yard seasons, and he also extended his own NFL record to eight consecutive 3,000 yard seasons (1984-91) . . . Marino won the Dolphins' Most Valuable Player Award in 1991 in balloting of South Florida media for the ninth straight year.

1990 – Was 306-531 (57.6%) for 3563 yards, 21 touchdowns, 11 interceptions, 15 sacks and a final rating of 82.6 . . . His 21 touchdown passes was the second fewest of his career in a full season (behind only his 20 TD passes as a rookie in 1983), but his

11 interceptions also was the second fewest of his career in a full season (behind his six INTs as a rookie in 1983) . . . His 6.71 average yards per gain was the second lowest among the top twenty quarterbacks in the NFL (by rating) and had only five completions of 40 or more yards . . . In his final ten games, Marino was 195-340 (57.4%) for 2334 yards, 15 touchdowns, and four interceptions, a rating of 88.3 . . . Marino finished fifth in the AFC and eighth in the NFL in passing with a rating of 82.6 . . . His 531 attempts were second in the AFC and third in the NFL, his 306 completions were second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL, his 3,563 passing yards were second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL, his 21 touchdown passes were fifth in the AFC and eighth in the NFL, and his 2.1 interception percentage was second lowest in the AFC and fourth in the NFL . . . Marino's 13-yard completion to Jim Jensen in the second quarter on Nov. 25, 1990 at Cleveland gave Marino over 30,000 career yards passing, becoming the 11th quarterback in NFL history to throw for 30,000 yards . . . Marino reached the 30,000 yard mark in 114 career regular season games, reaching that milestone faster than any QB in league history . . . The previous record for fastest to reach 30,000 yards was 131 games by former San Diego Charger QB Dan Fouts . . . Marino joined San Francisco's Joe Montana as the only active quarterbacks with 30,000-plus passing yards, while Steve DeBerg joined that group in 1991, Warren Moon, Phil Simms, and John Elway joined that group in 1992, Dave Krieg joined in 1993, and Boomer Esiason joined in 1994:

Did not throw for 400 or more yards in any game in 1990, but did have two 300-yard efforts, on Dec. 9th vs. Philadelphia (365 yards), and in the AFC Divisional Playoff Game on Jan. 12th at Buffalo (323 yards) . . . Marino had a span of 99 straight pass attempts without throwing an interception, from the first quarter on Oct. 18th vs. New England to the second quarter on Nov. 11th at the N.Y. Jets . . . After throwing an interception in that Jets contest, then went another 91 pass attempts until his next interception, in the first quarter on Dec. 2nd at Washington . . . Overall during that entire span, starting on Oct. 18th and ending on Dec. 2nd (covering five full games and parts of two others), he had 191 pass attempts and threw just one interception . . . Marino was sacked an NFL-low 15 times in 1990 for 90 yards in losses . . . Overall Dolphin quarterbacks were sacked 16 times in 1990, the ninth year in a row that the Dolphins allowed the fewest sacks in the league (a streak that ended in 1991), including each of Marino's first eight years with the club . . . Marino had one carry for 14 yards to lead the Dolphins in rushing on Nov. 19, 1990 vs. the L.A. Raiders . . . It was the first time in his career that he led the Dolphins in rushing in a single game . . . Marino scored one touchdown rushing, coming on a two-yard run in the Divisional Playoff game at Buffalo on January 12th . . . In the 1990 regular season, Marino led the Dolphins back in the final period at New England (from 20-24 to 27-24), vs. the N.Y. Jets (from 13-16 to 20-16) and vs. the Philadelphia Eagles (10-20 to 23-20 in overtime) . . . In Miami's 17-16 playoff win over the Kansas City Chiefs on January 15, 1991, Marino led the Dolphins back from a 16-3 fourth quarter deficit by completing all eight of his pass attempts for 101 yards and a pair of scores . . . Marino's rally from the 13-point deficit against the Chiefs was the largest fourth-quarter comeback of his career; prior to the Chiefs game, Marino's largest comeback was 11 points (17-28 to 31-38) against the San Diego Chargers on October 16, 1988 . . . In his two playoff games in 1990, Marino was 42-79 (53.2%) for 544 yards, five touchdowns and two interceptions, a rating of 85.6 . . . In the playoffs, Marino had a string of 11 straight pass completions over a two-game stretch . . . Completed his last ten pass attempts against Kansas City Chiefs in AFC First Round Playoff Game on Jan. 5th, going 10-10 for 130 yards and two touchdowns (including 8-8 for 101 yards and two TDs in final quarter), and in next game, in AFC Divisional Playoff Game on Jan. 12th at Buffalo, hit on his first pass attempt before throwing an incompletion . . . Marino's 11 consecutive pass completions is the fourth-longest streak in team history and the longest in Dolphin post-season history . . . Marino was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for December 9-10 after going 27-54 for 365 yards, two touchdowns, and no interceptions in 23-20 overtime win over the Eagles . . . Also was named NFL Player of the Week for the first round playoff games (January 5-6) after going 19-30 for 221 yards, two touchdowns, and no interceptions in Miami's 17-16 win over the Chiefs . . . Marino won the Dolphins' Most Valuable Player Award in 1990 in balloting of South Florida media for the eighth straight year . . . Marino also was voted the Dolphins' Outstanding Offensive Back by the media for the eighth consecutive year.

1989 – In 1989 was 308-550 for 3,997 yards with 24 touchdowns and 22 interceptions . . . Had a quarterback rating of 76.9, finishing fifth in the AFC and 11th in the NFL in passing . . . Reached the 100-games played plateau on Dec. 3rd at Kansas City . . . Was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for the week ending September 18th after going 17-28 for 226 yards, three touchdowns (including his 200th career TD pass) and three INTs on September 17th in New England to lead Miami to a 24-10 win over the Patriots . . . Marino finished first in the AFC and third in the NFL (behind Don Majkowski's 4,318 yards and Jim Everett's 4,310 yards) in passing yardage (3,997), first in the AFC and second in the NFL (behind Majkowski's 599) in attempts (550), first in the AFC and second in the NFL (behind Majkowski's 353) in completions (308), third in the AFC and sixth in the NFL in touchdown passes (24), and first in the AFC and tied for first in the NFL (with Vinny Testaverde) in interceptions (22) . . . Marino's 11-yard completion to Mark Duper in the second quarter vs. Cleveland on Oct. 8th put him over 25,000 career yards passing, becoming the 25th player in NFL history to reach the 25,000 yards passing milestone . . . With 3,997 yards passing in 1989, Marino missed his fifth 4,000-yard season by three yards . . . Marino went over the 3,000 yards passing mark on Dec. 3rd at Kansas City, his sixth straight 3,000-yard season . . . Threw for 400 yards once in 1989, accumulating 427 yards passing against the Jets Sept. 24th, the most yards passing by an AFC quarterback in 1989 . . . Marino threw for 300 or more yards five times in 1989: Dec. 24th vs. Kansas City (339 yards), Dec. 10th vs. New England (300 yards), Nov. 12th at N.Y. Jets (359 yards), Oct. 22nd vs. Green Bay (333 yards), and on Sept. 24th vs. the Jets (427 yards) . . . Marino's five 300-yard games tied him for second with Washington's Mark Rypien for the most 300-yard games in the NFL in 1989, surpassed only by Green Bay's Don Majkowski, who had six 300-yard games . . . His 10-yard touchdown pass to Jim Jensen with 7:15 elapsed in the second quarter on September 17th at New England was the 200th career TD pass of his career, and he became the 13th player in NFL history to throw 200 TD passes . . . He reached that plateau faster than any quarterback in NFL history; Johnny Unitas, the former record-holder, threw for his 200th touchdown in the 121st game of his career, while Marino threw his 200th career TD pass in but his 89th career game (covering 3,152 pass attempts):

Threw 22 interceptions in 1989, and his +2 touchdown to interception differential (24 TD passes, 22 interceptions) was the lowest of his career . . . Marino was sacked an NFL-low ten times in 1989 for a total of 86 yards in losses . . . When the Bills' NT Jeff Wright tackled Marino for an 11-yard loss on Oct. 29th, it stopped the Dolphins' NFL record of 19 consecutive games (the last 12 games in 1988 and the first seven in 1989) without allowing a quarterback sack, covering 775 total passes, including 759 attempts by Marino (as well as 11 by Ron Jaworski, three by Scott Secules, and one by Troy Stradford and Jim Jensen) . . . The last time Marino had been sacked prior to the Bills game was on September 25, 1988 at Indianapolis, when he was sacked by Duane Bickett of the Colts in the third quarter of that game . . . Had two rushing touchdowns in 1989, on Oct. 15th vs. Cincinnati and on Dec. 10th vs. New England . . . They were the fourth and fifth rushing TDs of his career . . . His TD against the Bengals came on a one-yard bootleg with 6:42 elapsed in the third quarter . . . It was his first rushing touchdown since December 7, 1987 vs. the Jets in Miami . . . In 1989, Marino (who already held the Dolphin team record for touchdown passes entering the season) broke Bob Griese's club career records in attempts, completions, and yards . . . On Sept. 24th against the Jets, Marino broke Griese's team record of 1,926 completions and on Oct. 8th vs. Browns his 20-yard pass to Fred Banks in overtime broke Griese's team record of 25,092 career passing yards . . . Griese played 14 NFL seasons (1967-80), while Marino was finishing his seventh year in the league . . . Was 8-16 for 128 yards, one touchdown and no interceptions Nov. 26th vs. Pittsburgh . . . His eight completions and his 16 pass attempts both are the lowest single game figures of his career . . . Suffered a contusion of his right AC joint (located in the shoulder) in the second quarter on a hit by Carnell Lake, forcing him to leave the game for good with seven minutes left in the third quarter . . . It was the first time Marino was forced to leave a game due to an injury since he suffered a left knee sprain in the fourth quarter at Houston on December 4, 1983.

1988 – Was 354-606 for 4,434 yards with 28 touchdowns and 23 interceptions . . . Was sacked six times for 31 yards lost . . . Had a passing efficiency rating of 80.8, finishing fifth in the AFC and tenth in the NFL in passing . . . Led the NFL in attempts (606), completions (354), and yards (4,434), and finished tied for second in the NFL (and tied for first in the AFC with Cincinnati's Boomer Esiason) in touchdown passes (28), behind the Rams' Jim Everett (31) . . . Also finished second in the NFL (and first in the AFC) in interceptions

(23), behind Tampa Bay's Vinny Testaverde (35) . . . Threw for over 400 yards twice (521 yards vs. Jets on October 23rd and 404 yards vs. Cleveland on Monday, December 12th), and his 521 yards passing vs. Jets on October 23rd was the high yardage figure by a QB in 1988 and not only was a new Dolphin single game record, but it also is the third highest single game passing yardage total by a QB in NFL history:

TOP FIVE PASSING YARDAGE GAMES IN NFL HISTORY

PLAYER	ATT-COM	YARDS	TDs	RESULT/OPPONENT	DATE
Norm Van Brocklin, Rams	41-27	554	5 TDs	Won vs. N.Y. Yanks	9/28/51
Warren Moon, Houston	45-27	527	3 TDs	Won vs. K.C.	12/16/90
DAN MARINO, MIAMI	60-35	521	3 TDs	Lost vs. N.Y. Jets	10/23/88

Vince Ferragamo, Rams	46-30	509	3 TDs	Lost vs. Chi.	12/26/82

In that October 23rd game vs. the Jets, Marino also set a team record with 60 attempts (completing 35) and tied a team record with five interceptions . . . It was his first-ever game of five interceptions; his previous high had been four interceptions, twice (vs. San Francisco on November 28, 1986, and vs. Atlanta on November 30, 1986) . . . Had two games of four or more touchdown passes: November 27th at Jets (five TD passes) and December 12th vs. Cleveland (four TDs) . . . His five-TD game at the Jets was the fifth five-plus TD game of his career and his first since December 14,1986 . . . Marino's first TD pass on December 12th vs. Cleveland was his 193rd career TD pass, breaking Bob Griese's Dolphin team record of 192 career touchdown passes . . . Had a ratio of one sack every 101 pass attempts (606 attempts/six sacks) . . . Was not sacked in his last 12 games, with his last sack coming on September 25th at Indianapolis . . . Carried ball 20 times for -17 yards . . . Made the first opposition fumble recovery of his career on December 12th vs. Cleveland . . . Had three sub-50 percent completion percentage games (September 4th at Chicago, October 9th at the Raiders, and November 27th at the Jets) . . . Became the 45th quarterback in NFL history to go over 20,000 career yards passing, reaching that milestone September 18th vs. Green Bay . . . With his 4,434 yards passing, Marino went over 4,000 yards in a season for the fourth time . . . Enjoyed the finest game percentage wise (81.3) of his career on December 4th vs. Indianapolis, hitting on 26 of 32 passes for 304 yards and three TDs with only one interception . . . Threw an 80-yard touchdown pass to tight end Ferrell Edmunds at the Jets on November 27th, the longest pass play of the season and tied for the fourth longest pass play in Dolphin history . . . On September 25th at Indianapolis, Marino was sacked four times for only the third time in his career . . . Against Bears at Chicago on September 4th, had then-career low nine completions, while his 113 yards passing was the third lowest figure of his career.

1987 – Led AFC in attempts (444) and completions (263) . . . Was second in NFL in attempts behind Neil Lomax (463) and third in completions behind Lomax and Montana (266) . . . Finished second in AFC in passing with 89.2 rating behind Bernie Kosar (95.4) . . . Placed fourth in league passing rating . . . Was behind Boomer Esiason (3,321) in AFC passing yards with 3,245 yards . . . Led AFC in touchdowns with 26 (Montana topped league with 31) . . . Did not play in three replacement games, breaking his string of 50 straight starts . . . Had a streak of 30 consecutive games with at least one TD pass stopped at Buffalo on November 29th, marking the end of the second-longest string in NFL history behind Johnny Unitas' 47 straight games with a TD pass.

1986 – Led AFC in passing (92.5); second in league to Tommy Kramer (92.6) . . . Only QB in league to throw TD pass in every game in '86 . . . Threw for 4,746 yards, third-highest total in NFL history . . . Threw 44 TDs in '86, second-highest total ever behind his own 48 . . . At one point, had 103 straight pass attempts without interception . . . Was named AFC offensive player of the week following week 15 (OT win over Rams in Anaheim) when he hit on 29 of 46 for 403 yards and five TDs, including 20-yard toss to Mark Duper in OT for the win . . . Tabbed AFC's player of the month for November when in five games he completed 122 of 198 (61.6%) for 1,510 yards (302 per-game average) and 16 TDs . . . Had longest pass completion in league (85 yards for TD to Duper vs. Houston, 11/2/86) . . . Tied team record, set personal high with six TD passes versus Jets (9/21/86) . . . With his second touchdown pass on September 7th at San Diego, he set an NFL record for 100 career TD passes in the fewest amount of games to start a career, reaching that milestone in his 44th contest, breaking the previous mark (53 games) held by Johnny Unitas . . . Went over 15,000 yards passing in career versus Atlanta (11/30/86) . . . For first time in career, threw four INTs in a game; did it twice, vs. 49ers (9/28) and Atlanta(11/30).

1985 – Finished fourth in AFC in passing; fifth in league . . . Led league in yards (4,137), completions (336) and touchdowns (30) . . . Was second in AFC in attempts behind John Elway (605) . . . Threw for over 300 yards six times; Dolphins won all six games . . . Was 45 of 93 for 486 yards, three TDs and three INTs in two playoff games.

1984 – Had sensational season in '84; named in nationwide poll by CBS and The New York Times as most popular pro football player in America despite second-year status . . . Led NFL in attempts (564), completions (362), yards (5,084), average gain per pass attempt (9.0), percentage of TDs per attempt (8.5), TDs (48) and rating (108.9) . . . His yards, TDs and completions were new NFL records . . . His completions record was later broken by Warren Moon in 1991 . . . Threw four TDs versus Patriots (10/21/84), breaking Bob Griese's single-season team record for TD passes in just eight games . . . In game number nine, broke Griese's seasonal team mark for passing yards that was set in '68 . . . Set AFC Championship Game records by throwing for 421 yards and four TDs in 45-28 win over Pittsburgh on 1/6/85 . . . In Super Bowl XIX, completed 29 of 50 for 318 yards and one TD.

1983 – Enjoyed unparalleled success for first-year QB in '83 . . . Named Rookie of the Year and was first rookie QB named to start in Pro Bowl . . . Amazingly, accumulated all stats and honors despite playing only the equivalent of 10 games . . . Miniscule interception rate of 2.0 shattered Griese's '71 team record of 3.4 . . . Led AFC in passing with 96.0 rating; first rookie QB since 1970 league merger to lead a conference in passing (fifth in NFL history) . . . Third in league behind Steve Bartkowski (97.6) and Joe Theismann (97.0) . . . Tied for fourth in AFC in TDs with 20 . . . In relief appearance against Raiders (9/18/83), engineered TD drives on first two possessions as an NFL quarterback . . . Made first start in overtime loss to Buffalo (10/9/83) and was 19 of 29 for 322 yards and three TDs . . . At one point, threw 95 passes without an INT and tossed just three in 242 attempts . . . First play as an NFL QB was a sideline pass completion thrown to Duper for nine yards versus the Raiders (9/18/83) . . . Marino's first NFL TD came at the end of his first drive in the league: a six-yarder to TE Joe Rose . . . Marino's first NFL INT came a week later (10/2/83) in New Orleans as Reggie Lewis returned it 27 yards for a TD . . . Suffered left knee sprain in fourth quarter at Houston (12/4/83) and missed last two regular-season games (Strock quarterbacked Dolphins to wins in both) . . . With knee brace, returned to complete 15 of 25 in playoff loss to Seattle . . . First-round draft choice (27th overall and sixth QB, behind John Elway, Todd Blackledge, Jim Kelly, Tony Eason, and Ken O'Brien) of Miami in 1983.

COLLEGE: Had record-setting career at University of Pittsburgh from 1979-82 . . . In four seasons at Pitt, completed 693 of 1,204 passes (57.5) for 8,597 yards, 79 touchdowns and 69 interceptions . . . Graduated as Panthers' record-holder in passing yards for season (2,876 in 1981) and career (8,597); in passes attempted and completed for season (226 of 380 in 1981) and career (693 of 1,204), and in touchdown passes for season (37 in 1981) and career (79) . . . Graduated as school's all-time total offense leader with 8,290 yards compared to 6,526 of runner-up Tony Dorsett . . . Along with Dorsett, Hugh Green (Dolphins) and Bill Fralic (Atlanta) is one of only four players to have Pitt jersey retired . . . Finished college career ranked on NCAA all-time lists as fifth in passing yardage, fourth in completions and fourth in TD passes . . . During tenure at hometown school, Panthers posted records of 11-1, 11-1, 11-1 and 9-3, including four bowl appearances (Fiesta, Gator, Sugar and Cotton) . . . In senior season, stats show 221 completions in 378 attempts (58.4) for 2,432 yards, 17 TDs and 23 interceptions, including Pitt's 7-3 Cotton Bowl loss to SMU . . . Earned All-America honors as a junior and finished fourth in Heisman Trophy balloting . . . Connected on 226 of 380 attempts (59.5) for 2,876 yards, 37 touchdowns and 23 interceptions . . . DOLPHIN FACT

Since the 1970 merger of the National and American Football Leagues, Miami is the only NFL team to twice open up a season with 10 or more consecutive wins. The Dolphins did it in 1972 (14 wins) and 1984 (11 wins), while four other teams have accomplished a 10 or more game season opening winning streak on one occasion — Minnesota in 1975 (10 wins), Chicago in 1985 (13 wins), N.Y. Giants in 1990 (10 wins) and San Francisco in 1990 (10 wins) and Washington (11 games) in 1991.

At Buffalo (9/26), had three tackles and an interception . . . Finished fourth on team with six tackles and three passes defensed at Indianapolis (9/5).

1992 – Started all 16 regular season games and both playoff contests . . . Ranked among team leaders in almost every defensive statistical category . . . Finished second team in tackles with 90 (66 solo), first on team with five interceptions and second on team with 12 passes defensed and added a fumble recovery . . . Named second-team All-Pro by the Associated Press and first-team All-AFC by United Press International . . . Voted as team's Outstanding Defensive Back for second consecutive season by South Florida media . . . Had four or more tackles in 13 games . . . Opened season with eight tackles at Cleveland (9/14) . . . Had seven tackles vs. L.A. Rams (9/20) . . . Had career game in Miami's 37-10 win at Buffalo (10/4) with three tackles, three passes defensed, three interceptions and a team-record 103-yard return for a touchdown (see below) . . . Named AFC Defensive Player of the Week and earned Miller Lite NFL Player of the Week honors following Bills' performance . . . Marked second time in career he won AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors as he won that award after the fifth weekend of the 1989 season following a three-tackle, one interception game against Cleveland in Miami's 13-10 overtime win . . . Joined LB Bryan Cox as the only players in Dolphin history to win AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors more than once in their careers . . . Recorded ten tackles at N.Y. Jets (11/1) . . . Finished with six tackles and a pass defensed vs. Buffalo (11/16) . . . Had two interceptions of quarterback Browning Nagle vs. N.Y. Jets (12/20) . . .

PLAYOFFS: Finished second on team with 17 tackles and tied for team lead with two interceptions . . . Added a forced fumble and two passes defensed . . . Had four tackles and an interception in AFC Divisional Playoff game vs. San Diego (1/10/93) . . . Led team with 13 tackles and also added an interception and a forced fumble in AFC Championship game vs. Buffalo (1/17/93) . . .

INTERCEPTIONS: Oliver recorded team-high five interceptions in 1992 which tied his single season career high that he established in 1990 and 1991 . . . Led or tied for team lead in interceptions in each of his first four seasons in league and is the only player in team history to lead or tie for team lead in interceptions in each of his first four professional seasons . . . Overall, became first Dolphin player to lead or share the team lead in interceptions for four consecutive years since Glenn Blackwood (1984-87) . . . His five interceptions placed him tied for 11th in the AFC . . . His five interceptions in '92 came in two games as he had three interceptions at Buffalo (10/4) and two picks vs. the N.Y. Jets (12/20) to up his career total to three games of two or more interceptions . . . Had a career game in Miami's 37-10 win at Buffalo (10/4) with three tackles, three passes defensed and a career-high three interceptions . . . His three INTs surpassed his previous best of two interceptions which he recorded on October 20, 1991, against Houston . . . Became first Dolphin player to record three interceptions in a game since William Judson recorded the feat at the N.Y. Jets on October 16, 1983 . . . In addition, Oliver also returned one of his interceptions for a touchdown as he intercepted a Jim Kelly pass three yards deep in the end zone and returned the ball 103 yards for a touchdown . . . Oliver's 103-yard return tied the NFL record for the all-time longest interception return, which had been set by San Diego's Vencie Glenn against Denver on November 29, 1987:

LONGEST INTERCEPTION RETURNS IN NFL HISTORY

	NAME	TEAM	DATE	OPPONENT	INT. RETURN
1.	LOUIS OLIVER	MIAMI	10/4/92	AT BUFFALO	103 YARDS
	Vencie Glenn	San Diego	11/29/87	Denver	103 yards
3.	Bob Smith	Detroit	11/24/49	Chicago	102 yards
	Erich Barnes	N.Y. Giants	10/15/61	Dallas	102 yards
	Gary Barbaro	Kansas City	12/11/77	Seattle	102 yards
	Louis Breedon	Cincinnati	11/8/81	San Diego	102 yards
	Eddie Anderson	L.A. Raiders	12/14/92	at Miami	102 yards
	Donald Frank	San Diego	10/31/93	L.A. Raiders	102 yards

In addition, the 103-yard return broke the team record for longest interception return, which was a 96-yard return for a touchdown by Dick Anderson on November 24, 1968, off a Tom Sherman pass at Boston . . . The touchdown return was Oliver's first career touchdown (in fact, it was his first touchdown on any level, including high school college, or pro), and he became the first Dolphin player to return an interception for a touchdown since Jarvis Williams had a 42-yard scoring return at Washington on December 2, 1990 . . . Overall, Oliver's three interceptions netted him a total of 170 return yards in the game, which is the most in Dolphin history, breaking the record held by Dick Anderson with 121 yards on four interceptions against Pittsburgh on December 3, 1973 . . . It also was the second-highest single-game total in NFL history, behind only San Diego's Charlie McNeil, who had 177 yards on interception returns against Houston on September 24, 1961 . . . In addition, Oliver's three interceptions is tied for the second highest single game total in Dolphin history, surpassed only by Anderson's four interception game against the Steelers.

1991 – Started all 16 games at free safety . . . Finished season with team-leading totals of 88 tackles (73 solo) and five interceptions . . . Added a fumble recovery and eight passes defensed . . . Voted as Miami's Outstanding Defensive Back by South Florida media . . . Became first Dolphin defensive back to lead team in tackles since Willie West in 1966 . . . His five interceptions placed him tied for fourth in the AFC and tied for fifth in the NFL . . . Total of five interceptions matched his previous career best of five INTs in 1990 (equaled in 1992) . . . Opened season with team-leading 13 tackles and added an interception (picked off a Jim Kelly pass in end zone and returned it 37 yards) at Buffalo (9/1) . . . Had team-high eight tackles at Detroit (9/15) . . . Had three interceptions in a two-game span vs. Houston (10/20) and at Indianapolis (11/3) . . . Registered three tackles and first career game with two interceptions vs. Houston (10/20) by picking off two Warren Moon passes and returning them a total of 26 yards . . . It was the first time a Dolphin had two interceptions in a game since Jarvis Williams had two INTs vs. Indianapolis on December 30, 1990 . . . Had two tackles and an interception at Colts (11/3) . . . Finished with three tackles, two passes defensed and an interception vs. Tampa Bay (12/l) . . . Closed season with team-leading eight tackles vs. N.Y. Jets (12/22).

1990 – Started all 16 regular season games and two playoff contests in 1990 . . . Named second team All-AFC by United Press International . . . Finished with 65 tackles (54 solo), five interceptions, six passes defensed and a sack . . . His five INTs were a career-high and tied Jarvis Williams for the team lead . . . Oliver's five interceptions were the most by a Dolphin since Glenn Blackwood had six INTs in 1985 . . . Finished tied for third in the AFC and tied for tenth in the NFL with five INTs . . . Finished fourth on the Dolphins in tackles with 65 (54 solo, 11 assisted) . . . Recorded two tackles and first INT of season vs. Buffalo on Sept. 16 . . . Recorded seven tackles at Giants (9/23) . . . Tied for team lead with seven tackles vs. Jets (10/7) . . . Left Colts game on Oct. 28 with a knee injury that did not prove to be serious . . . Recorded team-high five tackles and registered an INT vs. Phoenix (11/4) . . . Had three tackles and an INT at N.Y. Jets (11/11) . . . Tied for team lead with seven tackles and added a pass defensed and his fourth INT of season at Cleveland (11/25) . . . Had five tackles and an INT vs. Philadelphia (12/9) . . . Finished second on team with six tackles and a his first career sack vs. Indianapolis (12/30).

1989 – Finished season with 62 tackles (51 solo), six passes defensed, a forced fumble and a team-leading four interceptions . . . Became just the fourth Dolphin rookie to lead the team in INTs (Jarvis Williams in 1988, Lloyd Mumphord in 1969 and Dick Anderson in 1968) . . . Teamed with former Univ. of Florida teammate Jarvis Williams to form one of NFL's top safety duos . . . Named by South Florida media as Miami's Outstanding Rookie for '89 season . . . Opened season as starter at free safety vs. Buffalo (9/10) and led team with 11 tackles . . . Registered first career interception and added eight tackles and two passes defensed at Houston (10/1) . . . Recorded four tackles and key interception when Miami defeated Cleveland 13-10 in overtime on Oct. 8 . . . Forced overtime period when he intercepted a Bernie Kosar pass on the Miami's 26-yard line with less than a minute remaining in regulation and the score tied 10-10 . . . Named AFC Defensive Player of the Week for performance against Cleveland . . . Recorded six tackles and combined with E.J. Junior to tackle Jets QB Ken O'Brien on goal-line on second-and-goal play to force Jets to settle for field goal in Miami's 31-23 victory at New York (11/12) . . . Forced to leave contest in the second quarter vs. Pittsburgh (11/26) with contusion of right shoulder and did not return . . . Did not play the following week, on Dec. 3 at Kansas City, the only game he missed in '89 . . . Injury hampered him the rest of the season, limiting his playing time mainly to passing situations as part of Miami's nickel and dime defensive packages . . . Started game but played only briefly vs. New England (12/10) because of injury . . . Came off bench and registered interception of Colts QB Jack Trudeau on Dec. 17 vs. Indianapolis . . . Played mainly in passing situations vs. Kansas City (12/24) and recorded INT of Chiefs QB Steve DeBerg . . . Originally drafted by Dolphins in first round of 1989 draft (25th overall).

COLLEGE: Three-year starter and four-year letterman at Florida . . . Redshirted as freshman in 1984 . . . Originally joined Gators as walk-on . . . Registered career totals of 221 tackles (152 solo), 11 interceptions, three forced fumbles and five fumbles recovered . . . Finished career tied for second on school's all-time interception list . . . Earned Southeastern Conference academic honor roll selection . . . Named to 1988 Walter Camp, Kodak Football Coaches Association and AP first-team All-America teams . . . First defensive back in school history to earn All-America honors in consecutive seasons . . . As senior, registered 68 tackles, three interceptions and nine passes defensed . . . Started all 11 games as junior and named as school's Defensive Back of the Year . . . Earned first-team All-America honors from Sporting News . . . Consensus All-Southeastern Conference pick (AP, UPI and SEC Coaches) . . . Named to SEC Academic Honor Roll . . . BERNIE PARMALEE

5-11 196 #30
Running Back
Born: 9/16/67
College: Ball State '92
Acquired: FA, 1992
NFL: Fourth Season
Dolphins: Fourth Season

PRO: 1994 – Had best season of NFL career . . . Played in 15 games with ten starts in regular season and started both playoff contests . . . Finished with 216 carries for 868 yards (4.0 yards per rush) with six touchdowns . . . Added 34 receptions for 249 yards and one touchdown . . . Ranked eighth in AFC and 16th in NFL in rushing, 14th in AFC in total yards, and tied for 11th in AFC and tied for 25th in NFL in touchdowns . . . Led team in rushing 11 times during season . . . Gained 736 yards on 182 carries (4.0 yards per carry) in his ten starts for an average of 73.6 yards per game . . . If those ten games were projected over a 16-game schedule, he would have totaled 1,178 rushing yards . . .

BIGGEST RUSHING IMPROVEMENT: Parmalee was the NFL's most improved running back in 1994 . . . After gaining only 14 rushing yards in 1993, his increase to 868 yards in 1994 was an improvement of 854 yards . . . That total was the largest single season rushing improvement in Dolphin history and also was the largest improvement by any NFL running back in 1994 from his 1993 total (not counting rookie running back totals, and Minnesota's Terry Allen, who missed the entire 1993 season on Injured Reserve):

MIAMI DOLPHIN SINGLE SEASON RUSHING IMPROVEMENT

	PLAYER	SEASON	YARDS	SEASON	YARDS	IMPROVEMENT
1.	BERNIE PARMALEE	1993	14	1994	868	+ 854
2.	Mark Higgs	1990	67	1991	905	+ 838
3.	Mercury Morris	1971	315	1972	1,000	+ 685

1994 NFL INDIVIDUAL SINGLE SEASON RUSHING IMPROVEMENT

	PLAYER	TEAM	1993 YARDS	1994 YARDS	IMPROVEMENT
1.	BERNIE PARMALEE	MIAMI	14	868	+ 854
2.	Harvey Williams	L.A. Raiders	149	983	+ 834
3.	Barry Sanders	Detroit	1,115	1,883	+ 768
4.	Natrone Means	San Diego	645	1,350	+ 705
5.	Leroy Hoard	Cleveland	227	890	+ 663

BACK-TO-BACK RUSHING YARDAGE: Parmalee posted the most productive two-game streak of any running back in team history . . . Had combined total of 273 rushing yards in consecutive games (150 yards on 30 carries on October 16 against the L.A. Raiders and 123 yards on 25 carries on October 30 at New England) to set a team record for rushing yards in consecutive games, breaking the former team record of 258 yards rushing in back-to-back games that was set by Mercury Morris in 1973:

MOST RUSHING YARDS IN BACK-TO-BACK GAMES

PLAYER	COMBINED RUSHING YARDS	BACK-TO-BACK GAMES
BERNIE PARMALEE	273	30 carries for 150 yards vs. L.A. Raiders, 10/16/94 25 carries for 123 yards at New England, 10/30/94
Mercury Morris	258	15 carries for 197 yards vs. New England, 9/30/73 18 carries for 61 yards at N.Y. Jets, 10/7/73
Mark Higgs	257	30 carries for 146 yards at Buffalo, 9/1/91 27 carries for 111 yards vs. Indianapolis, 9/8/91

100-YARD RUSHING GAMES: Had three 100-yard rushing games during 1994 season which tied him with ten other Dolphins for third place on Miami's all-time list for most 100-yard rushing games in a season, behind the four 100-yard games by Larry Csonka in 1972 and the five 100-yard rushing games by Delvin Williams in 1978 . . . Parmalee gained 150 yards rushing against L.A. Raiders (10/16), and 123 yards rushing at New England (10/30) and 127 yards rushing against Kansas City (12/12) for his first 100-yard games of his career . . . His back-to-back 100-yard games against the Raiders and New England marked the ninth time in team history that a Dolphin running back gained 100 or more yards rushing in consecutive games, tying the team record for most consecutive 100-yard rushing games, with the most recent string by Mark Higgs, who had back-to-back 100-yard rushing games in the first and second games of the 1991 season . . . Parmalee's three 100-yard games, coupled with the 100-yard rushing game by Terry Kirby earlier in 1994 against the New York Jets (9/18), marked the first season that the Dolphins had two different running backs gain 100 or more yards rushing in a game in the same season since 1981 when Andra Franklin and Tony Nathan both had 100-yard rushing games . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Rushed for 37 yards on ten carries and first career touchdown against N.Y. Jets (9/18) . . . Saw extensive action at Minnesota (9/25) in place of injured Terry Kirby and led team in rushing with 22 yards on six carries and a score and added one catch for nine yards . . . Came off bench to lead team with 73 yards on 18 carries and added three catches for minus-two yards at Cincinnati (10/2) . . . Made first NFL start at Buffalo (10/9) and had team-high 91 rushing yards on 15 carries with long of 27 yards . . . Earned game balls for both offense and special teams against L.A. Raiders (10/16) with 50 rushing yards on 30 carries, while recovering a fumble off a Tim Brown punt return that eventually led to a Miami touchdown . . . Rushing total was most by a Dolphin player since Sammie Smith gained 159 yards at New England on September 9, 1990 . . . Parmalee's 30 rushing attempts was the third highest single game total in Dolphin history (behind 31 carries by Mercury Morris at Green Bay on October 5, 1975, and 33 carries by Larry Csonka against Minnesota in Super Bowl VIII on January 13, 1974) . . . Had second consecutive 100-yard game at New England (10/30) with 123 yards on 25 carries and added four receptions for 21 yards . . . Marked ninth time in team history a runner had consecutive 100 rushing yard games, tying the club record (the last was Mark Higgs in 1991) and his total of 273 yards rushing in those two contests set a team record for rushing yards in consecutive games, surpassing the previous two-game best of 258 rushing yards by Mercury Morris in successive games in 1973 . . . Had team-high 81 yards on 22 carries and added two catches for 11 yards against Indianapolis (11/6) before being forced from game permanently in second half with right knee and shoulder injuries . . . Missed contest against Chicago (11/13) due to knee injury . . . Returned to starting role at Pittsburgh (11/20) and gained 29 yards on 16 carries . . . Caught career-high six passes for 40 yards and gained 23 rushing yards on eight carries at N.Y. Jets (11/27) . . . Named AFC Offensive Player of the Week with 19 carries for 127 yards and one touchdown and adding two catches for 32 yards and a touchdown against Kansas City (12/12) . . . It was his first time winning that honor, and was just the second time a Dolphin running back has captured that award (Troy Stradford was named as the Offensive Player of the Week following the 11th weekend of the 1987 season) . . . Had 33 rushing yards on 16 carries and tied for team lead with five catches for 44 yards at Indianapolis (12/18) . . . Closed regular season against Detroit (12/25) with 18 carries for 39 yards and three touchdowns and added five catches for 47 yards . . . Tied a team record for most rushing touchdowns in a game, which was accomplished 12 previous times, most recently by Sammie Smith against New England on December 10, 1989 . . .

PLAYOFFS: Started both playoff games . . . Led team in rushing with 73 yards on 25 carries and one touchdown and added four catches for 42 yards . . . Rushed for 57 yards on 18 carries and scored one touchdown and added two catches for 34 yards in First-Round Playoff game against Kansas City (12/31) . . . Recorded 16 yards on seven carries in Divisional Playoff Game at San Diego (1/8/95).

1993 – Played in all 16 games . . . Finished with four carries for 16 yards and one reception for one yard . . . Ranked tied for second on team with ten special teams tackles . . . Recorded only carries of the season at San Diego (12/27) by gaining 16 yards on four carries, including a long run of 12 yards . . . Also recorded first career NFL reception with one catch for a one-yard gain against Chargers.

1992 – Played in ten regular season games and one playoff contest as rookie in 1992 . . . Saw action as reserve running back and kickoff returner . . . Signed by Miami as undrafted free agent on May 1, 1992 . . . Rushed six times for 38 yards with a long of 20 yards . . . Added seven special team tackles and 14 kickoff returns for 289 yards for a 20.6 average and a long of 32 yards . . . Waived on final roster cut on August 31 . . . Signed for team's practice squad on September 1 . . . Activated by team on October 21 after running back Aaron Craver was placed on Injured Reserve . . . Saw first NFL action vs. Houston (10/22) . . . Had only rushing attempts of regular season at Indianapolis (11/8) with six carries for 38 yards . . . Saw action in AFC Divisional Playoff game vs. San Diego (1/10/93) and rushed five times for 18 yards with a long of six yards . . . Was de-activated on January 16, 1993, and missed AFC Championship game.

COLLEGE: Four-year starter at Ball State . . . Graduated as school's all-time leading rusher with 805 carries for 3,483 yards and 26 touchdowns . . . Added 96 catches for 812 yards and three scores . . . Had 16 career games of over 100 yards . . . Named second-team All-Mid American Conference as senior . . . Recorded 215 rushes for 1,010 yards and five scores . . . Had 30 receptions for 185 yards and one TD . . . Registered career-high 169 yards and a touchdown against Illinois State . . . Became school's all-time leading rusher during junior campaign . . . Recorded 181 carries for 662 yards and five scores . . . Named as conference Freshman of the Year as he rushed for 1,064 yards and 13 TDs . . . Holds B.A. in business administration.

PERSONAL: Married to Angela, couple resides in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., with daughter Nakia Marie . . . Attended Lincoln High School in Jersey City, N.J . . . Lettered in football (once) and baseball (three times) . . . Full name is Bernard Parmalee, born September 16, 1967, in Jersey City, N.J.

*Playoffs

Has booted two longest field goals in team history with a 59-yarder on November 12, 1989, at the N.Y. Jets and a 58-yard effort on January 5, 1991, in playoff game against Kansas City . . . The 59-yard kick set NFL record for longest field goal by a rookie and broke team record for longest field goal, previously held by Garo Yepremian with 54-yard field goal on October 22, 1972, against Buffalo . . . Stoyanovich's 59-yard field goal is tied for the fourth longest field goal in NFL history, and his 58-yard FG against the Chiefs in the 1990 playoffs is tied for the seventh longest field goal, giving Stoyanovich two of the six longest field goals in NFL history:

CLUTCH KICKS: Stoyanovich has won 11 games for Miami by kicking a field goal in the fourth quarter or overtime to give the Dolphins their final points and either break a tie or bring the team back from a deficit to give them a victory . . . He has kicked a field goal that either won a game in overtime or fourth quarter or tied a contest in final period that sent the game into overtime a total of 14 times in his career, including three in 1994: against L.A. Raiders (10/16), against Indianapolis (11/6) and at Pittsburgh (11/20) . . . Has hit on 14-of-18 (77.8%) kicks in his career in fourth quarter (or overtime) game-tying or game-winning situations . . . Those 18 kicks (including four misses) cover 15 games, and the Dolphins have won 11 of those 15 contests . . . Two of his four missed kicks in the fourth quarter or overtime to tie or win the game came in contests when he would come back to later kick game-winning field goals . . . The first of those misses came when he missed a 45-yard kick on October 8, 1989, in Cleveland with eight seconds left in regulation to break a 10-10 tie in a game that the Dolphins eventually won 13-10 when Stoyanovich kicked the game-winning FG in overtime . . . His second miss came on November 25, 1993, at Dallas when his 41-yard kick with 15 seconds left in regulation and the Dolphins trailing 14-13 was blocked by the Cowboys' Jimmie Jones, however, Dallas' Leon Lett attempted to recover the loose ball and fumbled it away to Jeff Dellenbach, who recovered on Dallas' one-yard line with three seconds left in the game and gave Stoyanovich a second chance to win the game, and on the next play his 19-yard field goal as time expired gave Miami a 16-14 victory . . . His third miss, on November 13, 1995, against Chicago, was the first time he missed a kick in fourth quarter or overtime that cost the Dolphins a potential victory as his 45-yard attempt with two seconds left in that contest was deflected at the line of scrimmage by Chicago's James Williams and fell short, preserving the Bears' 17-14 win . . . He also missed a 48-yard effort with Miami trailing 22-21 and eight seconds left in regulation in a Divisional Playoff contest at San Diego on January 8, 1995 . . .

HONORS: Named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week following performance at New England (10/30) when he was 3-3 in field goals, connecting on efforts of 44, 50 and 48 yards in Miami's 23-3 win . . . It marked first time in career that Stoyanovich kicked three or more field goals of 40 or more yards in a single game . . . It was his first-ever AFC Special Teams Player of the Week Award and joined punter Dale Hatcher (Week 12 of the 1993 season) as only Dolphins to win that award . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Missed 40-yard field goal attempt at Minnesota (9/25) and coupled with two field goal misses against N.Y. Jets (9/18) from 37 and 63 yards out marked the first time in Stoyanovich's career that he missed three straight field goal attempts . . . Scored 11 points on 3-3 field goals (28, 27, and 32 yards) and 2-2 in extra points at Cincinnati (10/2) with his first field goal ending streak of missing three straight field goals . . . Booted 29-yard field goal with 5:46 elapsed in overtime to break a 17-17 tie and give the Dolphins a 20-17 win against L.A. Raiders (10/16) for 12th time that he has kicked a field goal that has won a game in either overtime or the fourth quarter or tied a contest in the final period that sent the game into overtime . . . Scored 11 points at New England (10/30) on 3-3 field goal attempts and 2-2 extra points and was named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week . . . His three field goals at the Patriots were from 44, 50, and 48 yards out, marking the first time in his career he kicked three field goals of 40 or more yards in length in a single game . . . Booted 34-yard field goal with four seconds left in game to bring the Dolphins back from 21-19 deficit to 22-21 win against Indianapolis (11/6) . . . Missed 45-yard field goal attempt with two seconds left in regulation (deflected by Chicago's James Williams) as Dolphins dropped 17-14 decision against the Bears (11/13) for the first time a missed field goal attempt by Stoyanovich cost the Dolphins a potential victory . . . Hit on 48-yard field goal on final play of regulation to tie the game at 13-13 and send game into overtime at Pittsburgh (11/20) . . .

PLAYOFFS: Saw action in both playoff games . . . Tied for team lead in scoring in playoffs with 12 points on 2-3 field goals and 6-6 extra points . . . Led team in scoring with nine points in First-Round Playoff game against Kansas City (12/31) by going 2-2 in field goals (both from 40 yards) and 3-3 in extra points . . . Hit on all three extra point attempts but missed only field goal attempt of game, going wide right on 48-yard effort with one second remaining in game and Dolphins trailing by a 22-21 score in Divisional Playoff game at San Diego (1/8/95) . . . It was only the second time in his career the Dolphins lost a game after Stoyanovich missed a fourth quarter kick with a chance to tie or lead the game.

1993 – Played in all 16 games . . . Led Dolphins in scoring with 109 points (24 of 32 field goals and 37 of 37 extra points) . . . Hit on 22 of 30 field goal attempts inside 50 yards and was two of two in field goal tries from 50 yards or more . . . Finished sixth in AFC and 11th in NFL in points and eighth in AFC and 14th in NFL in field goals . . . Reached 100 points for season at San Diego Chargers (12/27) which marked the fourth time in his career (1990-93) that he scored 100 or more points and became the first Dolphin player to register four 100-point seasons, breaking a tie with Garo Yepremian (1971-73) as the only Dolphins to score 100 or more points in three different seasons . . . Named as the Dolphins' nominee for the 1993 Edge NFL Man of the Year Award . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Kicked 102nd career field goal to pass Uwe von Schamann and move into sole possession of second place for the most career field goals by a Dolphin, trailing only all-time leader Garo Yepremian (165 field goals) at Indianapolis (9/5) . . . Moved past Nat Moore into fourth place among the Dolphins' all-time scoring leaders with ten points on 4-4 field goals and 1-1 extra points at Buffalo (9/26) . . . Booted season-long 52-yard field goal and hit on all three extra points at Cleveland (10/10) . . . Scored season-high 11 points by going 5-5 in extra points and 2-3 in field goals against Indianapolis (10/24) . . . Moved past Mark Clayton (492 points) into third place among the Dolphin all-time leading scorers with seven points on 1-1 in extra points and 2-2 in field goals (46 and 47 yards) at Philadelphia (11/14) . . . Scored 500th career point on 23-yard field goal and also booted two extra points against New England (11/21) . . . Kicked on ice-covered field at Dallas (11/25) and was 1-1 in extra points and 3-5 in field goals (20, 31, and 19 yards and missing from 44 and 41 yards) . . . His 41-yard field goal attempt with 15 seconds left in regulation and the Dolphins trailing 14-13 was blocked by Jimmie Jones but when Dallas' Leon Lett fumbled in an attempt to recover the loose ball at the seven-yard line, Miami's Jeff Dellenbach recovered the fumble at the one-yard line with three seconds left in the game which gave Stoyanovich a second chance, and he kicked the game-winning 19-yard field goal on the next play as time expired to give Miami a comeback 16-14 win . . . Went over the 100-point mark for the season for the fourth time in his career with eight points on 2-2 in field goals (31 and 50 yards) and 2-2 in extra points at San Diego (12/27) . . . Scored nine points by converting 2-2 field goals (29 and 24 yards) and 3-3 in extra points at New England (1/2/94) with his second field goal in that contest coming with nine seconds left in regulation to bring the Dolphins back from a 27-24 deficit to a 27-27 tie and send the game into overtime.

1992 – Led entire NFL in scoring with 124 points (30-37 in field goals and 34-36 in PATs) . . . Was first in the AFC and tied for first in the NFL (along with Washington's Chip Lohmiller) in field goals made (30) and was first in the AFC and second in the NFL (behind Lohmiller) in field goals attempted (37) . . . Had accuracy percentage of 81.1% (30-37) which ranked fourth in the AFC and sixth in the NFL . . . Was 27-29 in field goal attempts inside 50 yards but was 3-8 in field goal tries from 50 yards or more . . . Set team single season scoring record with 124 points, breaking the former team record of 121 points which he set in 1991 . . . Became only the second Dolphin ever to lead the NFL in scoring, joining Garo Yepremian, who led the NFL in scoring in 1971 with 117 points . . . In addition to his duties as a placekicker at Cleveland (9/14) he also was called on to handle the punting duties after Reggie Roby's knee injury and punted twice for 90 yards (including a 48-yard punt) in that contest, an average of 45.0 yards per kick, without a return . . . Selected as first team All-Pro by the Associated Press and the Sporting News . . . Named first-team All-AFC by United Press International . . . Was the kicker named among the 1992 NFL Alumni Players of the Year . . . Reached 100 points for season on Dec. 14, 1992, against the L.A. Raiders which marked the third time in his career (1990-92) that he scored 100 or more points and joined Garo Yepremian (1971-73) as the only Dolphins to score 100 or more points in three different seasons . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Opened season by going 2-2 in field goals and 3-3 on extra points for nine points at Cleveland (9/14) as he moved past Fuad Reveiz into sixth place on the Dolphins' all-time scoring list . . . He was called on to handle the punting duties after Reggie Roby's knee injury and punted twice for 90 yards (including a 48-yard punt), an average of 45.0 yards per kick, without a return . . . It was only the second time in his NFL career that he was used as a punter, punting twice for 85 yards (42.5 yards per kick) on December 22, 1991, vs. the N.Y. Jets following Roby's Achilles' heel injury . . . Scored 14 points on 4-5 in field goals and 2-2 in PATs against the L.A. Rams (9/20) for his second highest single game total, surpassed only by his 15 points on Dec. 1, 1991 vs. the Bucs . . . Converted all four field goal attempts and only extra point attempt at Seattle (9/27) as his 13 points in that contest moved him past Larry Csonka and into fifth place on Miami's all-time scoring list . . . Scored 13 points at Buffalo (10/4) by going 3-3 on field goals attempts (30, 43, and 34 yards) and 4-4 in extra points . . . Missed both field goal attempts (both from 50 yards) which broke his streak of 10 consecutive field goals made and also ended streak of kicking at least one field goal in 13 consecutive games against Atlanta (10/11) . . . Scored 13 points by going 4-4 in field goals (38, 40, 29, and 52 yards) and 1-1 in extra points with his final field goal being a 52-yard game-winning kick with two seconds left in the game that broke a 16-16 tie and gave the Dolphins a 19-16 victory against Houston (11/22) . . . Booted 37-yard field goal with seven seconds left in contest to give the Dolphins a 19-17 win against N.Y. Jets (12/20) as he redeemed himself for missing an extra point with 2:30 left in the contest that left the Dolphins trailing the Jets by one point, 17-16 . . . Converted all three field goal attempts and kicked game-winning 35-yard field goal 6:43 left in overtime at New England (12/27) to give the Dolphins a comeback 16-13 win . . .

PLAYOFFS: Finished as Dolphins' second leading scorer with 11 points on 2-2 in field goal attempts and 5-5 in extra points . . . Converted only field goal attempt and and made all four PATs in Divisional Playoff contest against San Diego (1/10/93) . . . Was 1-1 in field goals by hitting on an AFC Championship game record 51-yard field goal attempt against Buffalo (1/17/93) . . . It was the second longest field goal in Dolphin playoff history (surpassed only by Stoyanovich's 58-yard field goal vs. Kansas City on January 5, 1991).

1991 – Scored 121 points, going 31-37 (83.8%) in field goals and 28-29 in extra points, playing in only 14 games . . . His 121 points ranked first in the AFC and second in the NFL (behind the Redskins' Chip Lohmiller's 149 points) in scoring and he led the Dolphins in that category . . . Also ranked first in the AFC and tied for first the NFL (with Lohmiller) in field goals made with 31 FGs . . . He became only the second Dolphin in club history to lead the AFC in scoring (Garo Yepremian led the NFL in scoring with 117 points in 1971) and he became only the second Dolphin to lead the AFC in field goals (Yepremian led the NFL in field goals with 28 in 1971) . . . At the time, Stoyanovich's 121 points set a new Dolphin individual single season scoring record, breaking Garo Yepremian's former team record of 117 points in a season (he then broke his own record in 1992 with 124 points) . . . Stoyanovich's 31 field goals made also set a new Dolphin single season record for most field goals, breaking the former team record which was set when Garo Yepremian kicked 28 field goals in 1971 . . . His accuracy mark of 83.8% (31-37) was the Dolphins' second best single-season accuracy mark, surpassed only by his team mark of 84.0% (21-25) which he set in 1990 . . . His 83.8% accuracy percentage in 1991 ranked second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL, behind the Rams' Tony Zendejas (who was 17-17 for 100%), the Raiders' Jeff Jaeger (29-34 for 85.3%), and Philadelphia's Roger Ruzek (28-33 for 84.8%) . . . Stoyanovich made his first nine field goals of 1991 before missing on a 58-yard attempt on the last play of the first half on October 6th at New England . . . Scored 73 points in his last seven games, going 18-21 in field goals and 19-20 in extra points . . . As an unsigned veteran he missed the first regular season game at Buffalo on Sept. 1st as well as all of training camp, including all five preseason games . . . After signing a contract on September 6th was granted a two-week roster exemption and was not activated for game vs. Indianapolis on September 8th, missing his second regular season game . . . Was activated on September 14th and made his season debut on September 15th at Detroit . . . On September 29th at the N.Y. Jets, Stoyanovich kicked a 53-yard field goal, his sixth career field goal (including playoff games) of 50 or more yards, breaking the team record (previously held by Garo Yepremian) for the most career field goals of 50 or more yards . . . Stoyanovich accomplished the feat in just his third season, while Yepremian's Dolphin career lasted nine years (1970-78) . . . Twice in 1991, Stoyanovich won games by kicking a field goal in the fourth quarter or in overtime . . . On Nov. 24th in Chicago, his 27-yard field goal with 4:11 gone in overtime provided the winning points in the Dolphins' 16-13 victory over the Bears . . . On September 22nd in Miami's 16-13 win over Green Bay, Stoyanovich booted a 31-yard field goal with 8:21 remaining in the game to provide the winning points for the Dolphins . . . After missing a 49-yard field goal vs. New England on Nov. 10, 1991, he made 14 straight field goals covering five-plus games (his last kick in that Patriot game followed by all of his kicks in each of the next five games, through Dec. 15th at San Diego) before missing from 53 yards out in his first field goal attempt on Dec. 22nd vs. the N.Y. Jets . . . That streak matched his previous career high for most consecutive field goals, which he set by making his last field goal in 1989 and his first 13 field goals in 1990, and was two field goals short of Garo Yepremian's single season team record of 16 consecutive field goals, which he set during the eighth through 16th weeks in 1978 . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Was 2-4 in field goals on Dec. 22nd vs. N.Y. Jets . . . It was only the fourth time in career that he missed two field goals in a contest . . . His first miss in that game, from 53 yards out, broke his streak of 14 straight field goal conversions, stretching from his last kick vs. New England on Nov. 10th through his only kick at San Diego on Dec. 15th, covering five-plus games . . . Also was forced into punting duties in that Jets contest following Achilles heel injury to Reggie Roby . . . Stoyanovich became the first Dolphin to punt in a contest other than Roby since 1987 . . . Stoyanovich punted twice for 85 yards (42.5 yards per kick) in that contest, the first two punts of his NFL career, and had a long kick of 49 yards . . . Scored 13 points on Dec. 9th vs. Cincinnati, going 3-3 in field goals (hitting from 50, 22, and 36 yards out) and 4-4 in extra points . . . Was blocked hard by Bengals' special team player Alex Gordon following a kickoff that precipitated an altercation along the Bengal sideline, and while shaken up was not seriously injured . . . Scored a career-high 15 points on Dec. 1st vs. Tampa Bay, going 4-4 in field goals and 3-3 in extra points . . . His four field goals surpassed his previous single game high of three field goals (accomplished eight times previously) and was tied for the second highest number of field goals made in a game by a Dolphin, behind Yepremian's club record of five field goals made, set on September 26, 1971 at Buffalo . . . Stoyanovich's 15 points vs. the Bucs eclipsed his former single game high of 12 points, set Nov. 10, 1991 vs. New England . . . Scored ten points on Nov. 24th at Chicago, going 3-3 in field goals . . . His final field goal, from 27 yards out with 4:11 elapsed in overtime, provided the winning points in Miami's 16-13 victory over the Bears . . . Had 12 points on Nov. 10th vs. New England, going 3-3 in extra points and 3-4 in field goals . . . Missed a 37-yard field goal Nov. 3rd at Indianapolis, his first miss from under 40 yards since Dec. 30, 1990 vs. Indianapolis, hitting on six in a row since then before that miss . . . Was 3-3 in field goal attempts on September 29th at N.Y. Jets, including a 53-yard field goal that was his sixth career FG of 50 or more yards, setting a new Dolphin record . . . Also was 3-3 in field goal attempts on September 22 vs. Green Bay, including a 52-yard field goal . . . Made his season debut on September 15th after being activated the previous day and was 2-2 in field goal attempts.

1990 – Finished sixth in the AFC and 11th in the NFL in scoring among kickers with 100 points, and led the Dolphins in scoring . . . Hit on 21 of 25 field goal attempts (84.0%) and all 37 PATs . . . His 21 field goals were the most by a Dolphin player since Fuad Reveiz kicked 22 field goals in 1985 . . . His 100 points exceeded his rookie total of 95 points in 1989 . . . He became the first Dolphin to score 100 or more points since Fuad Reveiz's 116 points in 1985 and his 100 points is the ninth best single season scoring total in Dolphin history . . . His 84.0% accuracy mark is the best single season accuracy mark in Dolphins history and was fourth best in the AFC in 1990 behind Kansas City's Nick Lowery (34 of 37 for 91.9%), San Diego's John Carney (19 of 21 for 90.5%), and the N.Y. Jets' Pat Leahy (23 of 26 for 88.5%) . . . Stoyanovich made his first 13 attempts in 1990 before missing a 53-yard FG on Nov. 11th at N.Y. Jets and was the last kicker in the NFL to miss a field goal in 1990 . . . Dating back to his last kick in 1989, he connected on 14 consecutive field goals over two seasons before missing against the Jets . . . His 14 straight field goals broke his former single season best of eight consecutive FG, which he accomplished earlier in 1989 and fell two short of Yepremian's club record of 16 consecutive field goals made . . . His last miss before the Nov. 11th Jet game was a 56-yard attempt on Dec. 24, 1989 vs. Kansas City, his second-to-last FG attempt that season (he then hit a 22-yard FG vs. the Chiefs in that game to begin his two-season streak of 14 straight field goals) . . . Converted 18 straight field goal attempts under 40 yards before missing a 28-yard FG attempt Dec. 23rd at Buffalo . . . That miss also was his first career miss of a field goal attempt under 30 yards . . .

PLAYOFFS: Finished as the Dolphins' leading scorer in the postseason with 15 points, going 3-4 (75%) in field goal attempts and 6-6 in point after touchdown kicks . . . Hit on field goals of 58, 49, and 22 yards while missing from 57 yards out . . . Was 1-2 in field goal attempts in playoff game on Jan. 5th vs. Kansas City, hitting his record 58-yard field goal and missing on a 57-yard attempt . . . In playoff game at Buffalo on Jan. 12th was 2-2 in field goal attempts, connecting from 49 and 22 yards out . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Was 3-3 in field goals Dec. 9th vs. Philadelphia, including two clutch kicks . . . His 34-yard field goal with :03 seconds left in the fourth quarter gave the Dolphins a 20-20 tie with the Eagles, sending the game into overtime, and his 39-yard FG with 2:28 left in OT provided the game-winner in the Dolphins' 23-20 comeback victory . . . It was the second time in his career he won a game with a field goal in overtime . . . On Oct. 28th at Indianapolis he kicked a 53-yard field goal, the third longest of his career, tied for the fourth longest in Dolphin history, and the longest FG ever kicked against the Colts . . . Connected on his only field goal attempt on Sept. 23rd vs. the Giants in Giants Stadium, hitting a 51-yard field goal . . . It was the only points the Dolphins scored in their 20-3 loss to the Giants.

1989 – Had an impressive rookie season . . . Finished initial NFL campaign hitting on 19 of 26 field goal attempts and 38 of 39 extra points for 95 total points . . . Connected on 14 of 15 FG attempts inside the 40-yard line . . . Point total placed him sixth in the AFC and 14th in the NFL in scoring among kickers . . . His 95 points was the third highest total by a Dolphin rookie in club history, surpassed only by Fuad Reveiz' 116 points in 1985 and Uwe von Schamann's 99 points in 1979 . . . His 19 field goals were the third most in team history by a rookie, trailing only Reveiz's 22 FGs in 1985 and von Schamann's 21 FGs in 1979 . . . Finished eighth in the AFC and 17th in the NFL with 19 field goals made . . . Hit 59-yard field goal Nov. 12th at N.Y. Jets . . . It was tied for the fourth longest field goal in NFL history and it set an NFL record for the longest field goal by a rookie . . . It also broke Garo Yepremian's team record for the longest field goal in Dolphins history . . . Yepremian had booted a 54-yard field goal on Oct. 22, 1972 vs. Buffalo . . . Went from goat to hero with overtime field goal vs. Cleveland on Oct. 8th . . . Missed potential game-winning 45-yard field goal with eight seconds left in regulation and score tied 10-10 . . . Rebounded in overtime with game-winning 35-yard FG to give Miami a 13-10 victory . . . Recorded season-high three field goals, including 33-yard boot with six seconds left in contest to break a 20-20 tie and give Miami a 23-20 victory over Green Bay on Oct. 22nd . . . Made professional debut vs. Bills (Sept. 10) and converted a 29-yard field goal and all three of his PATs . . . Eighth-round draft choice (203rd overall) of Miami in 1989.

Tackle
Born: 1/11/67
College: Texas A&M '90
Acquired: D1, 1990
NFL: Sixth Season
Dolphins: Sixth Season

PRO: 1994 – Young tackle ranks among best at position in NFL . . . Started all 16 games at left tackle . . . Selected as starter for AFC Pro Bowl team . . . Earned Pro Bowl recognition for fifth time in career and third time as starter . . . Named first-team All-NFL by Associated Press, Sporting News, College and Pro Football Newsweekly, USA Today, Pro Football Weekly and Pro Football Writers of America and second-team All-Pro by Football Digest . . . Selected first-team All-AFC by Football News and United Press International . . . Voted by South Florida media as team's Outstanding Offensive Lineman for fifth straight season (1990-94) and joined Hall of Famer Jim Langer (1973-77) and Dwight Stephenson (1982-87) as only players in team history to win award four or more consecutive seasons . . .

PRO BOWL: Voted as starting offensive tackle for Pro Bowl team . . . Coupled with his Pro Bowl selections from 1990-93, Webb became just the third player in team history to be selected to the Pro Bowl team each of his first five seasons in the league, joining quarterback Dan Marino (1983-87) and linebacker John Offerdahl (1986-90) . . . His five Pro Bowl selections is the most by an offensive tackle in team history, ahead of the two selections of Norm Evans (1972 and 1974) . . . Selected to start contest along with fellow offensive lineman Keith Sims in Pro Bowl for the first time that the Dolphins had two offensive linemen start in the Pro Bowl since 1984 when center Stephenson and guard Ed Newman were named as starters . . .

AGAINST SACK LEADERS: As Miami's starting left tackle, Webb was responsible for blocking some of the NFL's best pass rushers . . . Went up against San Diego's Leslie O'Neal (12.5 sacks) in the playoffs and held the AFC's second-leading sacker to two tackles and no sacks . . . Faced Kansas City's Derrick Thomas (11 sacks) on two occasions and held him to seven tackles and a sack . . . Battled Buffalo's Bruce Smith (ten sacks) on two occasions in '94 and limited him to nine tackles and one sack . . . Also faced Pittsburgh's Greg Lloyd (ten sacks) and held him without a sack.

1993 – Started all 16 games at left tackle . . . Selected as starter for 1993 AFC Pro Bowl team . . . Earned Pro Bowl recognition for fourth time in career and second time as starter . . . Was named second-team All-Pro by Associated Press and first-team All-AFC by The Football News and United Press International . . . Selected by the NFL Players Association as AFC Co-Offensive Lineman of the Year . . . Became first Dolphin offensive lineman to win the honor since Dwight Stephenson in 1987 . . . Voted by South Florida media as team's Outstanding Offensive Lineman for fourth straight season (1990-93) and joined Hall of Famer Jim Langer (1973-77) as well as Dwight Stephenson (1982-87) as only players in team history to win award four or more consecutive seasons . . .

PRO BOWL: Was named as a starter at tackle for 1993 AFC Pro Bowl squad . . . It marked second consecutive Pro Bowl start . . . Webb is the only tackle in Dolphin history to be selected to the Pro Bowl as a starter . . . Coupled with his Pro Bowl selections as a reserve in 1990 and 1991 (although he started the 1990 game due to a shoulder injury to Cincinnati's Anthony Munoz), he became the third player in Dolphin history to be selected to the Pro Bowl team each of his first four seasons in the league as he joined quarterback Dan Marino (who was selected to the Pro Bowl each of his first five seasons in the league, 1983-87) and linebacker John Offerdahl (who was a Pro Bowl selection in each of his first five season in the league, 1986-90) . . . Webb's four Pro Bowl selections also represents the most Pro Bowl selections by an offensive tackle in Dolphin history; the previous high was two by Norm Evans (1972, 1974) . . . Joined teammate guard Keith Sims on the Pro Bowl squad as they became the first pair of Dolphin offensive linemen to be selected to the Pro Bowl in the same year since 1985 when center Dwight Stephenson and guard Roy Foster were selected to the AFC Pro Bowl squad.

1992 – Started all 16 regular season games and both playoff contests at left tackle . . . Was selected as starter for 1992 AFC Pro Bowl team . . . Named first-team All-NFL by the Associated Press and The Sporting News and second-team All-NFL by College and Pro Football Newsweekly . . . Honored with first-team All-AFC honors by The Football News and United Press International . . . Voted by South Florida media as team's Outstanding Offensive Lineman for third straight season (1990-92) and joined Hall of Famers Larry Little (1970-72) and Jim Langer (1973-77) as well as Dwight Stephenson (1982-87) as only players in team history to win award three or more consecutive seasons . . . Was hampered by ankle injury vs. Houston (11/22) . . . Started at left tackle in both playoff games . . .

PRO BOWL: Was named as a starter at tackle for 1992 AFC Pro Bowl squad . . . It marked first career Pro Bowl start . . . Webb became the first tackle in Dolphin history to be selected to the Pro Bowl as a starter . . . Coupled with his Pro Bowl selections as a reserve in 1990 and 1991 (although he started the 1990 game due to a shoulder injury to Cincinnati's Anthony Munoz), he became the third player in Dolphin history to be selected to the Pro Bowl team each of his first three seasons in the league . . . He joined quarterback Dan Marino (who was selected to the Pro Bowl each of his first five seasons in the league, 1983-87) and linebacker John Offerdahl (who was a Pro Bowl selection in each of his first five season in the league, 1986-90) . . . Webb's three Pro Bowl selections also represents the most Pro Bowl selections by an offensive tackle in Dolphin history, breaking his previous tie with Norm Evans (1972, 1974).

1991 – Started each of the last 14 games at left tackle in 1991. . . Was selected for the AFC Pro Bowl team in 1991 for second consecutive season . . . Voted by South Florida media as team's Outstanding Offensive Lineman . . . Was inactive for first two games of season while recovering from preseason knee injury . . . Had suffered ligament damage to left knee vs. L.A. Raiders in Tokyo (9/4), however no surgery was necessary . . . Missed the final three preseason games and first two regular season contests as a result of knee injury . . . Was one of two inactive players in season-opener at Buffalo (9/1) . . . Dressed but did not play vs. Indianapolis (9/8) . . . Saw first action of season as starting left tackle at Detroit (9/15) . . . Held Pro Bowl linebacker Derrick Thomas (13.5 sacks in '91) to just three tackles and no sacks at Kansas City (10/13) . . .

PRO BOWL: Was selected as reserve tackle for 1991 Pro Bowl squad . . . Coupled with his rookie Pro Bowl selection in 1990, he became just the third player in Dolphin history to be selected to the Pro Bowl team each of his first two seasons in the league, joining Marino and Offerdahl . . . In addition, Webb's two Pro Bowl selections tied him with Evans for the most Pro Bowl selections by an offensive tackle in team history, a club mark he broke with his third Pro Bowl selection in 1992.

1990 – Started all 16 regular season games and two playoff contests at left tackle . . . Actually played in all 1,028 offensive downs for Miami in regular season and playoffs . . . In fact, only missed one offensive series (seven plays) in preseason . . . Selected as reserve to 1990 AFC Pro Bowl squad, but started game due to injury to Cincinnati's Anthony Munoz . . . Named NFL Rookie of the Year by United Press International, Sports Illustrated, The Sporting News and Pro Football Weekly (see complete list of honors below) . . . Key member of the Dolphin front line that allowed an NFL-low 16 sacks . . . Was accountable for only two sacks . . . Amazingly, Webb was called for only one holding call in '90 . . . Made first NFL start in season opener at New England (9/9) . . . Anchored offensive line which allowed Miami to rush for 177 yards which was team's highest single-game rushing output in a non-replacement contest since 178-yard effort on December 5, 1982 against Minnesota . . . Started in opener alongside rookie left guard Keith Sims (second round pick) and became the first Dolphin rookie draft choices ever to start in the season opener on the offensive line . . . They also became just the third and fourth rookie draft choices to start on opening day on offense in the history of the Dolphins; the only other rookie draft choices to start for Miami on offense on opening day were WR Otto Stowe (1971) and FB Larry Csonka (1968) . . . In addition, rookie NT Alfred Oglesby (third round pick) also started in season opener at New England which marked the first time in Dolphin history that each of the team's top three draft choices all started on opening day . . . First-round draft choice (ninth overall) of Miami in 1990 . . .

HONORS: Many post-season honors in 1990 included: UPI AFC Rookie of the Year, Sports Illustrated Rookie of the Year, The Sporting News Rookie of the Year, Pro Football Weekly Rookie of the Year . . . Earned second team All-Pro from College and Pro Football Newsweekly and second team All-AFC by UPI . . . Named to All-Rookie teams of UPI, Pro Football Weekly, College and Pro Football Newsweekly, Football Digest, Football News and the Pro Football Writers . . . Named as Dolphins' Outstanding Offensive Lineman and Rookie of the Year in 1990 by South Florida media . . . Also won Tommy Fitzgerald Award as outstanding rookie in training camp . . .

PRO BOWL: Voted by NFL peers as backup offensive tackle for the 1990 AFC Pro Bowl team . . . Started in contest due to shoulder injury to Cincinnati's Anthony Munoz . . . Webb became the first rookie offensive tackle and just the second rookie offensive lineman to be selected to the Pro Bowl (other was Colts' guard Chris Hinton in 1983) . . . His rookie selection to the Pro Bowl places him ahead of All-Pro tackles such as Cincinnati's Anthony Munoz, who was a first-round pick in 1980 and was first selected to the Pro Bowl following the '81 season; St. Louis' Dan Dierdorf, who was a second-round pick in 1971 and was first selected following the '74 season; Washington's Joe Jacoby, who joined the NFL as a free agent in 1981 and was first selected following the 1983 season; and Chicago's Jim Covert, who was a first-round pick in 1983 and was first selected following the 1985 season . . . Became the first Dolphin rookie to be selected to the Pro Bowl since John Offerdahl in 1986 . . . One of only three Miami rookies ever selected to the Pro Bowl with the others being Offerdahl and QB Dan Marino (1983) . . . Also is the first Dolphin offensive lineman selected to the Pro Bowl since center Dwight Stephenson earned the recognition in 1987 . . . Joined Norm Evans (1972 and '74) and Wayne Moore (1973) as the only Dolphin tackles ever selected to the Pro Bowl . . .

AGAINST SACK LEADERS: As Miami's starting left tackle, Webb was responsible for blocking some of the NFL's best pass rushers . . . Miami allowed an NFL-low 16 sacks in '90 and Webb was accountable for only two of them . . . Faced Kansas City's Derrick Thomas (20 sacks) in playoffs and held him to three tackles and no sacks . . . Battled Buffalo's Bruce Smith (19 sacks) on three occasions in '90 (twice in regular season and once in playoffs) and held him to a combined total of no sacks and seven tackles . . . Also faced Giants' Lawrence Taylor (10.5 sacks) and held him to three tackles and a half-sack.

DOLPHIN NAME

Mariners, Marauders, Mustangs, Missiles, Moons, Sharks, Suns – none of those other names suggested to the American Football League expansion franchise in 1965 could raise a fin to the runaway winner.

"Dolphins" was submitted by 622 entrants in a contest which attracted 19,843 entries and more than a thousand different names. The dozen finalists were delivered to a seven-member screening committee of local media.

The bottlenose dolphin, an intelligent creature with an irresistible built-in grin, has inspired wonder for centuries. Plutarch observed 1,900 years ago that the dolphin "is the only creature who loves man for his own sake." Every trainer will have a tale of the dolphin's cleverness and ingenuity, and scientists are fascinated by a dolphin's natural equipment which far surpasses the range of Navy sonar equipment.

"The dolphin is one of the fastest and smartest creatures of the sea," Joe Robbie said in announcing the team name on October 8, 1965. "Dolphins can attack and kill a shark or a whale. Sailors say bad luck will come to anyone who harms one of them."

Mrs. Robert Swanson of West Miami won two lifetime passes to Dolphin games with her nickname entry. The tiebreaker was picking the winner and score of the 1965 game between the University of Miami and Notre Dame – it ended in a scoreless tie.

DOLPHIN FACT

Heading into 1994, Miami has not been shut out at home in regular season or playoff action since October 25, 1970, against the Cleveland Browns (28-0), the second-longest such streak in the AFC. Denver has never been whitewashed in Mile High Stadium since the team began play in the AFL in 1960.

1994 GAME-BY-GAME SUMMARIES

DOLPHINS 39, NEW ENGLAND 35 — Joe Robbie Stadium
September 4, 1994 — Miami, FL

Dan Marino threw for 473 yards and five touchdowns and Irving Fryar caught five passes for 211 yards and three scores to lead the Dolphins to a come-from-behind 39-35 win before a crowd of 71,023 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Marino engineered the fourth quarter comeback by helping bring the Dolphins back from deficits of 28-25 and 35-32 by completing eight of 13 passes for 179 yards with two scores in the final period. In addition, Marino set an NFL record by throwing for four or more touchdown passes in a game for the 18th time in his career (breaking his tie with John Unitas) and also threw for the 300th touchdown pass of his career to join Fran Tarkenton (342 touchdowns) as the only quarterbacks in NFL history with 300-plus career touchdowns. New England scored the only points of the first quarter as Kevin Turner ran off left guard for a one-yard touchdown to take a 7-0 lead. The Dolphins rebounded to tie the score at 7-7 as Marino combined with Mark Ingram for a 64-yard touchdown with 2:15 left in the half. Following the kickoff, New England marched 68 yards to take a 14-7 lead as Drew Bledsoe threw a two-yard touchdown pass to tight end Ben Coates with 25 seconds remaining in the second period. Marino drove the Dolphins to the final points of the first half by completing both of his pass attempts for 42 yards which led to a 42-yard field goal by Pete Stoyanovich with no time left in the half to cut the deficit to 14-10. Miami and New England combined for an explosive third quarter in which the teams scored a total of 29 points — the most combined points by the Dolphins and an opponent in a third quarter in Miami history. The Patriots opened the second half scoring as Bledsoe and Coates hit on their second touchdown of the game with a 62-yard effort to lead 21-10. Marino brought the Dolphins closer as he threw a 26-yard touchdown pass to Keith Jackson and Terry Kirby rushed for a two-point conversion to bring the score to 21-18. However, the Patriots came back to extend their lead to 28-18 as Bledsoe tossed a five-yard touchdown pass to Michael Timpson. Marino answered and threw his third touchdown of the game with a 54-yard bomb to Fryar to close the third quarter fireworks at 28-25. The Marino-Fryar combination struck again as the pair teamed on a 50-yard touchdown to give Miami its first lead of the game at 32-28. Bledsoe again led the Patriots to a touchdown as he threw a 23-yard scoring pass to Ray Crittenden to take a 35-32 lead. However, the Dolphins scored the final points of the game as Marino guided a ten-play, 80-yard scoring drive which was capped off with a 35-yard touchdown pass to Fryar on a fourth-and-five play to take a 39-35 lead with 3:19 remaining in regulation.

GAME 2

September 11, 1994 — Milwaukee, WI

The Dolphins allowed just 38 rushing yards and Dan Marino threw a pair of touchdown passes to lead Miami to a 24-14 win over the Green Bay Packers before a crowd of 55,011 at Milwaukee's County Stadium. The win improved Miami's record to 8-0 in the all-time series against the Packers. The Dolphins are also undefeated against the St. Louis/Arizona Cardinals (6-0). Overall, Miami's defense registered four sacks (two by Jeff Cross), an interception (by Craig Veasey) and held the Packers to 38 rushing yards on seven carries to set a Miami team record for the fewest rushing attempts in a contest against the Dolphins by an opponent. In addition, it was the fewest rushing yards allowed by the team since an 18-yard output by the New England Patriots on October 18, 1992. Veasey became the first Miami defensive lineman to record an interception in a game since nose tackle Shawn Lee picked off a Rodney Peete pass at Detroit on September 15, 1991. The Dolphins opened the scoring in the first quarter on a 48-yard field goal by Pete Stoyanovich. Miami increased its lead to 10-0 in the second period on a 12-play, 86-yard drive which was capped off on a three-yard touchdown pass from Marino to Keith Jackson on a fourth-and-one play. Green Bay quarterback Brett Favre fumbled on the Packers' next possession (recovered by Cross) to give Miami the ball on their own 36-yard line. The Dolphins converted on the takeaway as Marino had a four-yard scoring hook up with Keith Byars to take a 17-0 lead at the half. The key play in the drive was a two-yard run by Terry Kirby on fourth-and-one from the Packers' six-yard line. Miami took the second half kickoff and drove 80 yards on 12 plays and increased its lead to 24-0 as Kirby ran off left guard for a six-yard touchdown. The Packers closed the score to 24-6 in the fourth quarter as Favre connected on a two-yard scoring pass to Ed West. Green Bay failed on a two-point conversion attempt following the score. The Packers scored the final points of the game to close to 24-14 as Favre hit Sterling Sharpe with a nine-yard touchdown pass with 1:22 remaining in the game and Favre combined with West on the two-point conversion attempt.

GAME 3

September 18, 1994 — Miami, FL

Terry Kirby rushed for 100 yards and a touchdown and Dan Marino threw a pair of scores as the Dolphins improved to 3-0 and took over sole possession of first place in the AFC East with a 28-14 win over the N.Y. Jets before a sold out crowd of 68,977 at Joe Robbie Stadium. The win over the Jets improved the Dolphins' record to 3-0 and marked the eighth time in team history that the club has opened a season with a 3-0 or better record. Miami dominated in every major statistical category by leading in first downs (26 to 18), total net yards (444 to 343), rushing yards (155 to 59), net passing yards (289 to 284), takeaways (four to two) and time of possession (34:16 to 25:44). Miami's defense recorded four interceptions and a sack and limited the Jets' ten possessions to end in four punts, four interceptions and two touchdowns. The Dolphins recorded four interceptions for the first time since the team's 31-0 playoff win over San Diego on January 10, 1993. Kirby recorded the first 100-yard rushing game of his career by carrying 15 times for 100 yards and adding a score. His previous high for rushing yards was 94 yards on October 4, 1993, against Washington. Following a scoreless first quarter in which the Dolphins held a 12:37 to 2:23 advantage in time of possession, Miami opened the scoring in the second period as Kirby ran over right guard for a one-yard touchdown. The key play in the ten-play, 70-yard drive was a ten-yard completion from Marino to Irving Fryar on a third-and-nine from the Jets' 29-yard line. The Dolphins increased their lead to 14-0 at the half as Marino threw an 11-yard touchdown pass to Keith Byars with just 42 seconds left in the second period. The scoring drive was started as rookie linebacker Aubrey Beavers intercepted a Boomer Esiason pass. Miami got the ball back just before halftime as Darrell Malone intercepted an Esiason pass and had a chance to score but Stoyanovich's 63-yard field goal attempt was short of the uprights with no time left in the half. New York opened the third quarter scoring as Esiason threw a 27-yard scoring pass to running back Richie Anderson to narrow the score to 14-7. Miami came right back following the Jets' score to increase the lead to 21-7 as Marino threw a 23-yard pass to tight end Keith Jackson before Jackson tossed a lateral to Fryar who ran into the endzone for the touchdown. Miami increased its lead to 28-7 in the final period as Bernie Parmalee ran for a five-yard touchdown. The Jets closed the scoring at 28-14 as Esiason hit on a two-yard scoring pass to running back Johnny Johnson.

GAME 4

September 25, 1994 — Minneapolis, MN

Minnesota wide receiver Cris Carter caught three touchdown passes and linebacker Jack Del Rio recorded two interceptions to lead the Vikings to a 38-35 win over the Dolphins before a crowd of 64,035 at the Metrodome. Carter became the seventh player to catch three or more touchdown passes in a game against the Dolphins and the first since Wesley Walker of the New York Jets posted four scores on September 21, 1986. In the contest, the Vikings scored first as Warren Moon threw a two-yard touchdown pass to Carter. Minnesota scored again on their next possession as Terry Allen capped a ten-play, 64-yard drive with an eight-yard run around right end to close the first quarter scoring at 14-0. The Vikings increased their lead to 21-0 in the second quarter as Del Rio intercepted a Dan Marino pass to end Miami's drive and Moon and Carter responded by connecting on 44-yard touchdown pass. Minnesota took a 28-0 lead as Lamar McGriggs intercepted a Marino pass and Moon hit Carter for an eight-yard touchdown with just 24 seconds left in the half. However, Miami responded to score the final points of the first half as Marino hit O.J. McDuffie with a 26-yard touchdown pass with just two seconds remaining in the second period. The Dolphins attempted a two-point conversion following the score, however Terry Kirby's rush attempt was stopped short of the goal line. Miami opened the third quarter scoring as Marino capped an 11-play, 74-yard drive with a three-yard touchdown pass to tight end Greg Baty. The Dolphins added a two-point conversion as Marino completed to Irving Fryar to close the score to 28-14. The key play in the drive was a 19-yard connection from Marino to Mark Ingram on a fourth-and-ten play to keep the drive going. Miami scored again in the third period as Marino hit Keith Jackson for a 25-yard touchdown to close the score to 28-21. The drive was kept alive by a 15-yard pass from Marino to Fryar on a fourth-and-eight play. Miami tied the score in the fourth quarter at 28-28 as Bernie Parmalee scored on a ten-yard run. Following the score, the Vikings re-took the lead at 35-28 as Moon marched the team 70 yards and Scottie Graham scored on a three-yard run with 7:25 left in the game. On the ensuing kickoff, the ball hit Parmalee and Minnesota's Dave Garnett recovered the ball which led to a 38-yard field goal by Fuad Reveiz and a 38-28 lead by the Vikings. Marino got the Dolphins down to Minnesota's two-yard line, but Parmalee was stopped and Marino threw three straight incompletions, the last with 2:44 left in regulation. Miami got the ball back once again and Keith Byars scored on a one-yard run with 1:04 remaining, but the Vikings' Chris Walsh recovered the Dolphins' onside kick attempt and Minnesota ran out the clock.

GAME 5

October 2, 1994 — Cincinnati, OH

Miami's defense forced five turnovers (three interceptions and two fumble recoveries) and Dan Marino threw a pair of touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a 23-7 win over the Cincinnati Bengals before a crowd of 55,056 at Riverfront Stadium and a national television audience in a contest nationally dubbed as "the Shula Bowl". The game made sports history as it marked the first time in the history of the four major American professional sports (football, baseball, hockey and basketball) that a father and son battled as head coaches as Don Shula and the Dolphins took on his son, Head Coach David Shula, and the Bengals. Overall, the elder Shula improved to 6-0 when coaching against teams which feature one of his sons as a coach. Those other Shula Bowls occurred while Don Shula's sons, David and Michael, were either players or assistant coaches for other NFL teams. Miami improved to 40-21 in prime time games, including an 8-1 record on Sunday nights. The Dolphins also saw their record jump to 5-0 against Cincinnati in games played in prime time. Miami limited the Bengals' 11 drives to end in four punts, three interceptions, two fumbles, one missed field goal and one touchdown. Overall, the Dolphins forced each of Cincinnati's five second half drives to end in a turnover. Cincinnati opened the scoring on their first possession as David Klingler threw a 51-yard touchdown pass to Darnay Scott. The Dolphins closed the score to 7-3 in the second quarter as Pete Stoyanovich booted a 28-yard field goal. Miami closed the first half scoring at 10-7 as Marino threw an 11-yard touchdown pass to Keith Byars. Marino's scoring pass was the 3,605th pass attempt of his career as he moved past Dan Fouts into second place on the NFL's all-time pass attempt list. The Dolphins increased their lead to 17-7 on the first drive of the third quarter as they drove 69 yards on ten plays and scored as Marino hit Mark Ingram on a four-yard touchdown pass. Miami scored the only points of the fourth quarter on a pair of field goals by Pete Stoyanovich from 27 and 32 yards.

GAME 6

October 9, 1994 — Orchard Park, NY

Buffalo running back Thurman Thomas rushed for 125 yards and two touchdowns to lead the Bills to a 21-11 win over the Miami Dolphins before a crowd of 79,491 at Rich Stadium. Buffalo dominated the game in almost every major statistical category, including total first downs (25 to 19), total net yards (344 to 326), rushing yards (214 to 114) and time of possession (36:43 to 23:17). It was the most rushing yards allowed by the Dolphins since San Diego gained 220 yards on the ground on December 27, 1993 and the highest time of possession against the team since the New York Jets held the ball for 36:53 on November 7, 1993. The Dolphins were hit with a club record 12 penalties in the game, surpassing the previous high of 11 penalties on three previous occasions. Miami scored the only points of the first quarter on its opening possession as Pete Stoyanovich capped a seven-play, 43-yard drive with a 40-yard field goal. Miami had a chance to increase its lead later in the period but Stoyanovich's 37-yard field goal attempt was wide to the left. Buffalo answered the score early in the second quarter as Thomas scored on a one-yard run to take a 7-3 lead. The Bills had an opportunity to increase their lead but Thomas fumbled on Miami's eight-yard line (forced by safety Gene Atkins) and the ball was recovered by Chris Singleton. Buffalo scored the only points of the third quarter and took a 14-3 lead on a 26-yard run by Thomas. The score was setup one play earlier when Miami punt returner O.J. McDuffie fumbled a punt on the Bills' 26-yard line and Bucky Brooks recovered the ball for Buffalo. The Bills increased their lead to 21-3 as Kenneth Davis scored on a five-yard run to cap a 13-play, 80-yard drive. Miami scored the final points of the game to bring the score to 21-11 as Dan Marino threw a three-yard touchdown pass to McDuffie and then connected with Keith Jackson on a two-point conversion attempt.

GAME 7

DOLPHINS 20, L.A. RAIDERS 17 (OT) — Joe Robbie Stadium
October 16, 1994 — Miami, FL

Miami running back Bernie Parmalee rushed 30 times for 150 yards and Pete Stoyanovich booted a 29-yard field goal in overtime to lead the Dolphins to a come-from-behind 20-17 win in overtime over the Los Angeles Raiders before a crowd of 70,112 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami dominated the game in almost every major statistical category, including total first downs (19 to 12), total net yards (344 to 210), rushing yards (169 to 124), passing yards (175 to 86) and time of possession (37:10 to 28:36). The Dolphin defense registered four sacks, a forced fumble a fumble recovery and limited the Raiders' 12 possessions to end in eight punts, one touchdown, one field goal, halftime and once on downs. In addition, the Dolphins reversed history in the all-time series against the Raiders by recording wins in consecutive games against the Raiders for the first time in the history of the series. Miami earned a 20-7 win over the Raiders on December 14, 1992, in the last previous meeting between the two teams. The Dolphins improved to 9-12-1 in overtime games (4-5-1 at home). Parmalee had a career game as he received two game balls — one for offense and one for special teams. He had a pair of tackles and a fumble recovery on special teams. His 150 rushing yards was the seventh best total in team history and the best by a Dolphin running back since Sammie Smith gained 159 yards at New England on September 9, 1990. In addition, Parmalee's 30 carries tied for the third best single-game total in team history. Los Angeles opened the scoring following a sack of Marino and a fumble recovery on the play to set-up 19-yard field goal by Jeff Jaeger. The Raiders increased their lead to 10-0 later in the period as Anthony Smith returned a Mark Higgs fumble for a 25-yard score. Miami scored the only points of the second period to cut the deficit to 10-7 at halftime as Marino tossed a 15-yard scoring pass to Keith Jackson. Miami tied the score at 10-10 on their first possession of the third quarter as Stoyanovich booted a 21-yard field goal. The Raiders came right back to take a 17-10 score as Jeff Hostetler threw a seven-yard scoring pass to Tim Brown. The Dolphins tied the score at 17-17 in the final period as Marino tossed an 18-yard scoring pass to Keith Byars. The drive was started as Parmalee recovered a fumble by Tim Brown on a punt return at the Raiders' 33-yard line. The key play in the drive was a two-yard run by Parmalee on a third-and-one play on Los Angeles' 33-yard line. The Dolphins won the overtime coin toss, elected to receive and won the game on the initial drive of the extra period. Parmalee was the workhorse of overtime as he carried five times for 45 yards to key the ten-play, 65-yard scoring drive which led to Stoyanovich's 29-yard field goal.

GAME 8

DOLPHINS 23, NEW ENGLAND 3 — Foxboro Stadium
October 30, 1994 — Foxboro, MA

Running back Bernie Parmalee rushed for 123 yards and fullback Keith Byars scored a pair of touchdowns (one rushing and one receiving) to lead the Dolphins to a 23-3 win over the New England Patriots before a crowd of 59,167 at Foxboro Stadium. Miami dominated the game in almost every major statistical category, including total first downs (20 to 11), total net yards (338 to 188), rushing yards (140 to 46), passing yards (198 to 142) and time of possession (35:38 to 24:22). The win enabled Miami to sweep the season series over the Patriots for the fifth time in the last six years and win for the 11th time in the last 12 games played between the two teams. In addition, Miami improved to 6-0 in games following a bye weekend. Parmalee's 25 carries for 123 yards marked his second consecutive games with 100-plus rushing yards as he also posted 150 rushing yards against the L.A. Raiders on October 16. His back-to-back 100-yard games tied the all-time team record for consecutive 100-yard performances with eight other players (the last time was by Mark Higgs on September 1 and September 8, 1991). In addition, Parmalee's 273 rushing yards in consecutive games set a team record for rushing yards in consecutive games, surpassing the previous best of 258 yards rushing by Mercury Morris accomplished with 197 yards against New England on September 30, 1973, and 61 yards at the New York Jets on October 7, 1973. In the contest, New England opened the scoring in the first quarter and took a 3-0 lead as Matt Bahr capped off a six-play, 15-yard drive with a 48-yard field goal. The field goal was setup as the Patriots' Harlon Barnett intercepted a Dan Marino pass and returned the ball to Miami's 45-yard line. The Dolphins rebounded to tie the score early in the second period as Pete Stoyanovich booted a 44-yard field goal. On New England's next possession, Miami safety Gene Atkins intercepted a Bledsoe pass and returned the ball to the 50-yard line to setup a 50-yard field goal by Stoyanovich and a 6-3 lead. The Dolphins scored the final points of the first half as Miami defensive end Jeff Cross recorded an interception on the Patriots' 29-yard line and the Dolphins capitalized on the takeaway on a one-yard scoring run by Byars with just seven seconds remaining in the half for a 13-3 advantage. The Dolphins took the opening kickoff of the second half and marched 73 yards on ten plays and increased their lead to 20-3 as Byars scored on a seven-yard pass from Marino. The key play in the drive was a 21-yard completion from Marino to Mike Williams on a third-and-20 play from New England's 49-yard line. The Dolphins closed the scoring in the final period as Stoyanovich booted a 48-yard field goal to bring the score to 23-3. It marked the first time in Stoyanovich's career that he kicked three field goal of 40 or more yards in a single game.

GAME 9

DOLPHINS 22, INDIANAPOLIS 21 — Joe Robbie Stadium
November 6, 1994 — Miami, FL

Wide receiver O.J. McDuffie caught seven passes for 108 yards and a touchdown and Pete Stoyanovich booted a 34-yard field goal with four seconds left in regulation to help the Dolphins earn a 22-21 come-from-behind win over the Indianapolis Colts before a crowd of 71,158 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Dan Marino completed 13 of 16 passes for 123 yards with a touchdown and an interception in the fourth quarter to lead the Dolphins back from a 14-6 deficit. McDuffie's seven catches and 108 receiving yards topped his previous single game career highs of three catches and 41 receiving yards against the Buffalo Bills on December 19, 1993. In addition, four of McDuffie's seven receptions against Indianapolis came on third down and he was able to convert each of the third down receptions into a first down, including a 28-yard touchdown catch on a third-and-eight play in the fourth quarter. The Dolphins took a 3-0 lead on their first possession of the game on a 33-yard field goal by Stoyanovich. Indianapolis scored to take a 7-3 lead later in the opening period as quarterback Don Majkowski posted a one-yard run. The Dolphins closed the score to 7-6 on their first possession of the second half as the team used 17 plays to drive 68 yards in 9:14 and scored on a 20-yard field goal by Stoyanovich. Indianapolis came right back and took a 14-6 lead as Marshall Faulk keyed a five-play, 56-yard drive and scored on a one-yard run. The Dolphins closed the score to 14-12 early in the final period as Irving Spikes scored his first career NFL touchdown on a seven-yard run. The Dolphins failed on a two-point conversion attempt. The Colts were forced to punt on their next possession and the Dolphins took over on their own 20-yard line. However, Marino's pass attempt was intercepted by the Colts' Ray Buchanan and returned for a 28-yard touchdown to take a 21-12 lead with 7:32 left in regulation. The Dolphins came right back on their next possession and closed the score to 21-19 as Marino connected on a 28-yard touchdown pass to McDuffie on a third-and-eight play with just 3:52 left in regulation to cap a 10-play, 83-yard drive. The Dolphins forced the Colts to punt on their next possession and McDuffie posted a 16-yard punt return to bring the ball to Miami's 24-yard line with 2:06 remaining. The Dolphins used an eight-play, 41-yard drive to score on Stoyanovich's 34-yard field goal with four seconds left in the game.

GAME 10

CHICAGO 17, DOLPHINS 14 — Joe Robbie Stadium
November 13, 1994 — Miami, FL

Chicago's Kevin Butler booted a 40-yard field goal with 54 seconds left in regulation and James Williams deflected a Dolphins field goal attempt with just seven seconds remaining in the game to give the Bears a 17-14 win over the Dolphins before a crowd of 64,871 at Joe Robbie Stadium. It was the first time Chicago defeated the Dolphins in a game played in Miami. The Dolphins entered the game with a 3-0 record against the Bears in South Florida. In addition, the loss dropped Miami's NFL-best record in interconference games to 64-20, including a 34-6 record at home (23-4 in the Orange Bowl and 11-2 in Joe Robbie Stadium). The game was billed as Shula Bowl VII as Miami Head Coach Shula battled against his son and Bears' tight ends coach Mike Shula. It was the first time that the elder Shula lost a game in which one of his sons, David or Mike, were either players or assistant coaches on the opposing NFL team. The Dolphins opened the scoring and took a 3-0 lead in the first quarter on a 14-play, 65-yard drive which was capped off by a 29-yard field goal by Pete Stoyanovich. The Bears took a 7-3 lead later in the opening period as wide receiver Curtis Conway took a direct snap off a fake field goal and threw a 23-yard touchdown pass to tight end Keith Jennings. Chicago had a chance to increase its lead in the second period but Butler's 51-yard field goal attempt was wide to the right. Miami scored the final points of the first half to bring the score to 7-6 on a 33-yard field goal by Stoyanovich. Following a scoreless third quarter, the Bears increased their lead to 14-6 on a one-yard run by Lewis Tillman. The Dolphins scored on their next possession as the team drove 69 yards on nine plays and scored on an 11-yard pass from Dan Marino to tight end Keith Jackson on a third-and-eight play. The Dolphins tied the game at 14-14 with a successful two-point conversion on a Aaron Craver run. It was Marino's 20th touchdown pass of the season as he extended his NFL record to 11 seasons with 20 or more touchdown passes. Chicago took the ensuing kickoff and drove 47 yards on ten plays and took a 17-14 lead on Butler's 40-yard field goal. Following the score, Miami got the ball on their own 34-yard line with 47 seconds left in the game. Marino completed passes to O.J. McDuffie (29 yards) and Craver (nine yards) to bring the ball to the Bears' 28-yard line and Stoyanovich's 45-yard field goal was blocked by Williams.

GAME 11

November 20, 1994 — Pittsburgh, PA

Pittsburgh kicker Gary Anderson booted a 39-yard field goal in overtime and quarterback Mike Tomczak threw for 343 yards to lead the Steelers to a 16-13 overtime win over the Miami Dolphins before a crowd of 59,148 at Three Rivers Stadium. The loss dropped Miami's record to 9-13-1 in overtime contests, including a mark of 4-7 on the road. It was the first time that a Dolphins-Steelers contest had gone into overtime. Pittsburgh opened the scoring on their first possession as Anderson booted a 19-yard field goal. The key play in the 14-play, 68-yard drive was a 26-yard pass play from Tomczak to Ernie Mills on a third-and-nine play from Miami's 29-yard line. The Dolphins had a chance to score early in the second period but Dan Marino was sacked and lost a fumble (recovered by Chad Brown) on the Steelers' 14-yard line. Miami did rebound to take a 7-3 lead later in the period as Marino tossed a two-yard scoring pass to tight end Keith Jackson with 1:14 left before halftime. However, the Steelers rebounded to close the first half scoring as Anderson booted a 48-yard field goal with just six seconds remaining in the second period and narrow the deficit to 7-6. The Dolphins increased their lead to 10-6 on their first drive of the third quarter as Stoyanovich kicked a 34-yard field goal. Miami had a chance to increase its lead early in the final period, however Stoyanovich missed a 36-yard field goal attempt wide to the left. Pittsburgh came right back from the missed field goal attempt to score a touchdown as Barry Foster hit the endzone with a ten-yard scoring run to take a 13-10 lead. The Dolphins were able to tie the score on the final drive of regulation. Following a Pittsburgh punt, Miami was able to drive 62 yards on nine plays and tied the game with no time left in regulation on a 48-yard field goal by Stoyanovich. In overtime, the Steelers won the coin toss and elected to receive. They were able to drive to Miami's 39-yard line where a run by Foster on a fourth-and one play was stopped for no gain. Following the change of possession, Miami took over on their own 40-yard line but the drive was stopped on Pittsburgh's 47-yard line. After a Miami punt backed Pittsburgh to its own 13-yard line, the Steelers were able to drive 66 yards on nine plays and score on Anderson's 39-yard field goal.

GAME 12

DOLPHINS 28, N.Y. JETS 24 — Giants Stadium
November 27, 1994 — East Rutherford, NJ

Mark Ingram caught four touchdown passes, including the game winner with just 22 seconds left in regulation, to lead the Dolphins to a come-from-behind 28-24 win over the New York Jets before a crowd of 75,606 at Giants Stadium. The Dolphins trailed by an 18-point margin midway through the third period at 24-6 before rebounding to outscore the Jets by a 22-0 edge to win the game. The 18-point turnaround tied for the second-best comeback in team history with an 18-point rebound on January 4, 1986, in an AFC Playoff contest against the Cleveland Browns in which the Miami came back from a 21-3 deficit to post a 24-21 win. Miami's biggest come-from-behind win was a 24-point turn-around from a 24-0 deficit to a 34-27 win against New England on December 15, 1974. Ingram's four touchdowns and 24 points in the game tied the team's single-game records with Paul Warfield's four TDs (all receiving) and 24 points against Detroit on December 15, 1973. The Jets opened the scoring on their first possession and took a 3-0 lead as Nick Lowery booted a 24-yard field goal to cap a 14-play, 68-yard drive. Marino was intercepted on the Dolphins' next possession and the Jets turned the takeaway into a score as Esiason threw a 30-yard scoring pass to tight end Johnny Mitchell to take a 10-0 lead. New York took the second half kickoff and drove to a 17-0 lead as Brad Baxter rushed up the middle for a three-yard touchdown. The Dolphins came right back on their next possession to narrow the deficit to 17-6 on a ten-yard touchdown pass from Marino to Ingram. Miami attempted a two-point conversion attempt following the score but Marino threw incomplete to O.J. McDuffie. The Jets increased their lead to 24-6 as Esiason threw a 14-yard touchdown pass to Mitchell. Miami answered the Jets' score with a 17-yard touchdown pass from Marino to Ingram to cut the score to 24-14. Following the touchdown, the Dolphins converted on a two-point attempt as Marino completed to Irving Fryar. Miami got the ball back on the Jets' next possession as Troy Vincent intercepted an Esiason pass. The Dolphins capitalized on the takeaway as Marino tossed a 28-yard touchdown pass to Ingram to narrow the deficit to 24-21 early in the fourth quarter. The Jets were forced to punt on their next possession but McDuffie fumbled the return and New York's Thornton recovered the ball on Miami's 38-yard line. The Dolphins got the ball back two plays later as J.B. Brown intercepted an Esiason pass deep in Miami territory. Miami and the Jets exchanged punts on their next possessions before the Dolphins got the ball back on their own 16-yard line with just 2:34 left in regulation. Marino was able to drive the Miami a total of 84 yards by completing seven of eight passes for 84 yards and took a 28-24 lead with just 22 seconds left on the clock on Ingram's fourth touchdown catch of the game. New York got the ball back on their own 36-yard line and Esiason drove the team to Miami's 35-yard marker when his pass into the endzone fell incomplete as the game ended.

GAME 13

December 4, 1994 — Miami, FL

Jim Kelly threw four touchdown passes and Buffalo's defense registered four interceptions to lead the Bills to a 42-31 win over the Dolphins before a crowd of 69,358 at Joe Robbie Stadium. The win improved Buffalo's record to 8-1 over the Dolphins at Joe Robbie Stadium as the Bills won for the 15th time in the last 18 meetings between the two teams. In addition, the game marked the fourth time in the last ten meetings between the two teams that Buffalo scored 40 or more points. Buffalo jumped out to a 7-0 first quarter lead as Kelly capped a seven-play, 45-yard drive with an eight-yard touchdown pass to Bill Brooks. The Dolphins dominated the second period and scored 17 straight points to take a 17-7 advantage at halftime. Miami tied the score at 7-7 early in the second period as Marino tossed a three-yard touchdown pass to Fryar. The Dolphins increased their lead to 10-7 as Pete Stoyanovich booted a 23-yard field goal. The Dolphins increased their lead to 17-7 as Marino hooked-up with Fryar from 45 yards on their second scoring connection. The Bills dominated the third period and scored 21 straight points and 35 points overall in the second half. The Bills' 21 points in the third quarter tied for the most ever against Miami in a third period with the 21 points scored by Buffalo on December 19, 1993, at JRS and the 35 points in the second half was the second most ever against the Dolphins in a second half behind the 38 points scored by San Diego on October 2, 1966. The Bills closed the score to 17-14 on their first drive of the second half as Kelly connected with Don Beebe on a 72-yard touchdown. Marino was intercepted on Miami's next possession and Buffalo converted by driving 53 yards on nine plays and scored as Kelly threw a 21-yard touchdown pass to Andre Reed. The Dolphins were forced to punt and the Bills scored again as Carwell Gardner ran up the middle on a one-yard touchdown run to take a 28-17 lead. The Dolphins were able to close the score to 28-23 early in the fourth period as Marino threw a 23-yard touchdown pass to Keith Jackson. Buffalo scored again to take a 35-23 lead as Gardner scored his second touchdown of the game on a one-yard run. The Bills scored again to take a 42-23 lead as Kelly hit Reed on an 83-yard scoring catch and run. The Dolphins closed the scoring at 42-31 with a one-yard touchdown from reserve quarterback Bernie Kosar to Scott Miller.

GAME 14

December 12, 1994 — Miami, FL

Bernie Parmalee rushed for 127 yards and scored a pair of touchdowns (one rushing and one receiving) as the Dolphins clinched a playoff spot with a 45-28 win over the Kansas City Chiefs before a crowd of 71,578 and a national television audience on Monday Night Football at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula won his 318th career regular season game and tied George Halas (318 regular season coaching wins) for the all-time record for most career regular season wins by an NFL coach. The win enabled the Dolphins to clinch the team's third playoff appearance in the last five years. The Chiefs opened the scoring in the first quarter and took a 7-0 lead on a 22-yard touchdown pass from Steve Bono to J.J. Birden. The scoreless first quarter by Miami continued a streak that has the Dolphins without a first quarter touchdown throughout the first 14 games of the season. The Dolphins rebounded to tie the score at 7-7 early in the second period as Marino teamed with Parmalee for a ten-yard touchdown connection. Kansas City rebounded to take a 14-7 lead as Marcus Allen ran over right end for a three-yard touchdown. Miami tied the score later in the period as Marino threw a four-yard strike to Irving Fryar to close the first half scoring at 14-14. The Dolphins took a 21-7 lead on their first possession of the third quarter as Marino ran around right end for a four-yard touchdown to cap a 13-play, 61-yard drive. Miami increased its lead to 21-14 later in the period as Gene Atkins intercepted a Bono pass and ran 18 yards before tossing a lateral to Troy Vincent who ran 58 yards into the endzone for the score. The Chiefs came right back on the ensuing kickoff to cut the score to 28-21 as Jon Vaughn scored on a 91-yard kickoff return. The Dolphins closed the third quarter scoring and took a 35-21 lead with a career-long 47-yard touchdown run by Parmalee. The Dolphins increased their lead in the fourth quarter to 38-21 as Pete Stoyanovich capped an 11-play, 70-yard drive with a 21-yard field goal. Kansas City came back to narrow its deficit to 38-28 as Bono threw for a 15-yard touchdown to Willie Davis. Following the score, the Chiefs attempted an on-side kick and the ball was picked-up by Miami safety Tyrone Braxton and returned 34-yard to Kansas City's one-yard line where Irving Spikes closed the scoring with a one-yard run.

GAME 15

INDIANAPOLIS 10, DOLPHINS 6 — RCA Dome
December 18, 1994 — Indianapolis, IN

Indianapolis' defense held the Dolphins to a pair of field goals and scored the only touchdown of the game on a punt return to earn a 10-6 win over Miami before a crowd of 58,867 at the RCA Dome. It was the first time that the Dolphins were held without a touchdown since a 27-3 loss at San Francisco on December 6, 1992. Miami dropped to 16-15 in games played in a domed stadium, including 8-3 against Indianapolis (RCA Dome), 5-6 against Houston (Astrodome), 1-2 against Detroit (Silverdome), 1-2 against New Orleans (Superdome), 1-1 against Seattle (Kingdome) and 0-1 against Minnesota (Metrodome). Indianapolis had a chance to open the scoring on their first drive of the game but Miami's Tim Irwin blocked a 40-yard field goal attempt by Dean Biasucci. It was the seventh blocked field goal of Irwin's career. The Dolphins opened the scoring on their first possession as Pete Stoyanovich booted a 33-yard field goal to take a 3-0 lead. The Colts came back to score the only touchdown of the game later in the period as Dewell Brewer scored on a 75-yard punt return. It was the fourth-longest punt return in team history against the Dolphins. Miami had a chance to score before halftime. The team drove down to the Colts' 11-yard with just 13 seconds remaining in the quarter, however, Irving Fryar was stopped on the two-yard line as the half ended. Miami opened the third quarter scoring on the opening drive of the half. The Dolphins drove to the six-yard line and faced a first-and-goal, but were held out of the endzone and settled for a 19-yard field goal by Stoyanovich to cut the score to 7-6. Midway through the fourth quarter, Indianapolis had a first-and-goal situation on the one-yard line but Miami's defense stiffened and held the Colts to a 19-yard field goal by Biasucci for a 10-6 lead. Miami had one last chance to score by driving down to the Colts' two-yard line with a first-and-goal, but Parmalee was held to no gain on a run and Marino threw three straight incompletions. Indianapolis got the ball back and ran out the clock.

GAME 16

December 25, 1994 — Miami, MA

Bernie Parmalee scored three rushing touchdowns and the Dolphin defense held Barry Sanders, the NFL's leading rusher in 1994, to just 52 yards on 12 carries to lead Miami to a 27-20 win over the Detroit Lions in the regular season finale before a Christmas Day crowd of 70,980 at Joe Robbie Stadium. The win over the Lions clinched the AFC East title for the Dolphins. Miami and the New England Patriots both finished with 10-6 records, however the Dolphins won the division title by virtue of a two-game head-to-head sweep over New England during the 1994 season. With the win, Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula won the 319th regular season game of his coaching career and surpassed George Halas (318 regular season coaching wins) for the all-time record for most career regular season wins by an NFL coach. Miami played on Christmas Day for the second time in team history. The only other Christmas game for the Dolphins was the longest game in NFL history as Miami earned a 27-24 playoff win in double overtime at Kansas City on December 25, 1971. Overall, it was the fifth game in NFL history to be played on Christmas Day. On Christmas, 1971, the Cowboys played host to Minnesota in a playoff contest and earned a 20-12 win; on December 25, 1989, the Vikings were home for a 29-21 victory over Cincinnati; and on Christmas, 1993, Houston was at San Francisco and won by a 10-7 count. Miami opened the scoring on the opening drive of the game as Parmalee went off left tackle into the endzone for a one-yard touchdown run. It marked the only time during the 1994 regular season that the Dolphins scored a touchdown in the first quarter. Overall, it was Miami's first touchdown scored in a first quarter since December 19, 1993, when Mark Ingram caught a 14-yard scoring pass from Scott Mitchell against Buffalo at JRS. The Lions came back later in the period to close the score to 7-3 on a 32-yard field goal by Jason Hanson. Miami scored 17 straight points to take a 24-3 lead in the second period on a 40-yard field goal by Stoyanovich and a pair of touchdown runs by Parmalee (one and six yards). The Lions scored to cut the lead to 24-10 on a 93-yard kickoff return for touchdown run by Johnnie Morton. Miami closed the first half scoring and took a 27-10 lead on a 45-yard field goal by Stoyanovich with six seconds remaining before halftime. The Lions scored the only points of the third quarter on a 40-yard field goal by Hanson to cut the score to 27-13. Detroit closed the scoring midway through the final period on a five-yard touchdown pass from Dave Krieg to Aubrey Matthews. Miami was forced to punt on their next possession and the Lions took over on their own 36-yard line with four minutes remaining in regulation. Miami's Michael Stewart intercepted a Krieg aerial to end the drive and the Dolphins held on to the ball for the final 3:41 of the game.

THE ORANGE BOWL

The 1986 season marked the end of an era for the Miami Dolphins as the team played its final season in the Orange Bowl. In 21 years, the Dolphins posted a 110-38-3 (.738) regular-season record.

In the playoffs, Miami was 10-4 at the 75,206-seat Orange Bowl, giving the team a 120-43-3 (.736) mark at the OB in all games.

Miami played in the Orange Bowl from the team's initial season in 1966 through the 1986 campaign. From 1966 to 1969, the Orange Bowl had a grass playing field. The playing surface was changed to Poly-Turf in 1970, was replaced in 1972 and finally removed in March, 1976, so that Prescription Athletic Turf could be installed.

The Orange Bowl has been the site of many great sporting events, including five Super Bowls, the annual Orange Bowl Classic and championship boxing matches.

DOLPHINS 14-0 VS. 2 CLUBS

The Miami Dolphins have built a perfect 14-0 regular-season record against two clubs in the National Football League through the 1994 season.

Those teams which never have beaten Miami are Green Bay (0-8), and Arizona (0-6). The Dolphins do not play the Packers or the Cardinals during the 1995 season.

Five NFL teams have beaten Miami only once in the regular season. Those teams are Atlanta (1-5), Dallas (1-6), St. louis Rams (1-5), Seattle (1-4), and Tampa Bay (1-4). The Dolphins are scheduled to play the Falcons and Rams in 1995.

Miami set an NFL record with 20 consecutive wins over Buffalo from 1970 through 1979.

DOLPHIN FACT

Dolphins kicker Garo Yepremian is the only player in Miami history to be named as Most Valuable Player in the NFL's annual Pro Bowl contest. On Jan. 20, 1974, Yepremian booted five field goals to account for all of the AFC's scoring in a 15-13 win.

DOLPHIN FACT

The only player for whom the Dolphins received trade value twice is QB John Stofa. Stofa, who joined Miami as a free agent in 1966, was traded on Dec. 26, 1967, to Cincinnati for first and second round draft choices in 1968. He re-joined the Dolphins as a free agent in 1969 and was traded on Nov. 23, 1971, to Denver for a seventh-round pick in 1972.

PRESEASON GAME 1

DOLPHINS 20, N.Y. GIANTS 19
July 30, 1994

Giants Stadium
East Rutherford, NJ

Rookie defensive tackle Tim Bowens recorded two sacks, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery in his first NFL game as the Dolphins used a late goal line stand to earn a 20-19 win over the New York Giants in the preseason opener before a crowd of 61,720 at Giants Stadium. In the contest, Miami took a 3-0 lead on the opening drive as Pete Stoyanovich capped an 11-play, 64-yard drive with a 20-yard field goal. The Giants took a 7-3 lead later in the first quarter as Kenyon Rasheed scored on a three-yard touchdown run. New York extended its lead to 14-3 on a 54-yard touchdown pass from Dave Brown to Chris Calloway. The Dolphins scored the final points of the first half and cut the score to 14-6 on a 39-yard field goal by Stoyanovich. Miami scored the only points of the third quarter to narrow the margin to 14-9 on a 39-yard field goal by Stoyanovich. Late in the third quarter, Bowens sacked Giants' quarterback Kent Graham and both forced and recovered a fumble on New York's 31-yard line and shortly after Irving Spikes scored on a one-yard touchdown run. Miami attempted a two-point conversion and converted as quarterback Doug Pederson completed a pass to tight end Rob Coons to bring the score to 17-14. The Dolphins became the first team in the NFL to attempt and convert on a two point conversion since the scoring play was instituted this season. The Giants came back to tie the score at 17-17 as Brad Daluiso booted a 24-yard field goal. Following Miami's next possession, the Dolphins were forced to punt and Jim Arnold's 30-yard punt was fumbled by Omar Davis and recovered by the Dolphins' Ronnie Williams on the New York 11-yard line. Miami converted on the takeaway as Stoyanovich hit his fourth field goal of the game on a 21-yarder to take a 20-17 lead. The Giants received the ball on their own 35-yard line following the field goal and drove down to Miami's three-yard line at the two minute warning. However, Gary Downs fumbled the ball and Dolphins' linebacker Brant Boyer recovered the fumble on the two-yard line to stop the drive. After the fumble recovery, Miami attempted three rushing plays before allowing a safety as Arnold ran intentionally out of the endzone on a punt attempt to bring the score to 20-19. Arnold followed the safety with a free kick and New York received the ball on their own 32-yard line with just four seconds left in regulation. On the final play of the game, Giants' quarterback Kent Graham was sacked by rookie linebacker Aubrey Beavers to end the contest.

PRESEASON GAME 2

DOLPHINS 24, PITTSBURGH 14
August 4, 1994

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

Quarterback Dan Marino saw his first playing time since suffering an Achilles' injury in 1993 and wide receiver Mike Williams caught three passes for 132 yards with two touchdowns as the Miami Dolphins earned a 24-14 preseason win over the Pittsburgh Steelers before a crowd of 47,224 at Joe Robbie Stadium. The contest marked the first game action for Marino since he suffered a torn Achilles' tendon in his right leg on October 10, 1993, at the Cleveland Browns. Marino started the game and completed three of five passes for 99 yards with a touchdown in less than one quarter of action. Marino's touchdown pass was a 78-yard bomb to Williams. The win improved Miami's record to 17-12 record in preseason home openers and following the team's home opening preseason win over Washington in 1993, the Dolphins won preseason home openers in consecutive years for the first time since the 1986-87 seasons. In addition, the Dolphins improved to 2-0 against the Steelers in preseason games. Miami also owns perfect preseason records against Buffalo (3-0-1), L.A. Raiders (3-0), N.Y. Giants (6-0), St. Louis/Arizona (1-0), San Francisco (2-0-1) and Seattle (1-0). Miami scored the only points of the first quarter as Marino combined with Williams on a 78-yard scoring play. The Dolphins increased their lead to 14-0 early in the second period as running back Bernie Parmalee scampered five yards around left end for a five-yard touchdown. The key play in the drive was a 26-yard hook-up from Bernie Kosar (11-19-155-1-0) to wide receiver Irving Fryar on a third-and-11 play. Pittsburgh scored the final points of the half and narrowed the score to 14-7 as Mike Tomczak threw a 30-yard touchdown pass to Charles Johnson. Pittsburgh had another chance to score just before halftime, however Miami defensive tackle Tim Bowens sacked and forced a fumble by Tomczak on the Dolphins' 33-yard line which was recovered by Miami defensive end Larry Webster to end the drive. The Dolphins increased their lead to 21-7 in the third quarter as Williams caught his second touchdown of the game on a 21-yard pass from Kosar. Miami had a chance to increase its lead but Pete Stoyanovich booted a 41-yard field goal attempt wide to the left. Pittsburgh closed the score to 21-14 as Andy Kelly entered the game and completed an eight-yard touchdown pass to Charles Davenport. The Dolphins ended the scoring on a 49-yard field goal by Stoyanovich

PRESEASON GAME 3

DOLPHINS 31, GREEN BAY 24 — County Stadium
August 13, 1994 — Milwaukee, WI

Running back Bernie Parmalee scored a pair of touchdowns to lead the Dolphins to a 31-24 preseason win over the Green Bay Packer before a crowd of 52,759 at Milwaukee County Stadium. Miami's 31 points in the game is the most scored by the team in a preseason contest since the team's 31-27 win over the Denver Broncos on August 16, 1992, in a contest played in Berlin, Germany. The win improved Miami's preseason record in 1994 to 3-0 and clinched a winning preseason record for the fourth consecutive season (3-1 in 1993 and 3-2 in 1991 and '92). It marked the first time since a ten-year streak from 1973-82 that the Dolphins have registered three-or-more consecutive preseasons with a winning record. In the contest, Miami scored the only points of the first quarter and took a 8-0 lead as Dan Marino (six of seven attempts for 60 yards with a touchdown) tossed an 11-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Mark Ingram. Marino and Ingram hooked up again on the two-point conversion. The Packers closed the score to 8-3 early in the second period as Chris Jacke booted a 23-yard field goal. The Dolphins closed the first half scoring as Bernie Kosar (8-15-97-0-0) led the team on a five play, 39-yard drive in the final 31 seconds of the half which led to a 48-yard field goal by Pete Stoyanovich on the final play of the half. Miami running back Irving Spikes had a 71-yard return on the second half kickoff to move the ball to the Packers' 15-yard line. The Dolphins took a 17-3 lead five plays later as Parmalee ran off tackle for a three-yard touchdown. Parmalee was stopped short of the endzone on the two-point conversion attempt. The Packers closed the score to 17-10 on their next possession as Mark Brunell threw a three-yard touchdown pass to Charles Arbuckle. Spikes returned the ensuing kickoff for a 51-yard gain to help setup a one-yard scoring run by Parmalee and take a 24-10 lead. Green Bay came right back on their next possession as Ty Detmer entered the game and completed a 57-yard touchdown to Terry Mickens to close the score to 24-17 at the end of the third quarter. Miami answered and increased its lead to 31-17 as Spikes scored on a three-yard touchdown. The Packers closed the scoring at 31-24 as Detmer rushed up the middle for a one-yard touchdown.

PRESEASON GAME 4

TAMPA BAY 29, DOLPHINS 14 — Joe Robbie Stadium
August 20, 1994 — Miami, FL

Tampa Bay forced four turnovers (three fumbles and an interception) and returned a fumble for a touchdown to help key a 29-14 win over the Miami Dolphins before a crowd of 51,242 at Joe Robbie Stadium. The loss dropped Miami's preseason record to 3-1 and snapped the team's four-game preseason winning streak (last preseason contest in 1993 and first three games in 1994). It was the first time the Dolphins had won four consecutive preseason games since a five-game preseason winning streak during 1983-84 (last two games in 1983 and first three games of 1984). In addition, the loss dropped Miami's record to 7-2 in the preseason series against Tampa Bay and was also the Bucs' first win over the Dolphins in a preseason contest played in Miami. The Dolphins are now 2-1 against Tampa Bay in Miami. In the contest, Tampa Bay jumped out to a 6-0 lead on a pair of field goals by Michael Husted of 38 yards in the first quarter and 44 yards in the second period. The Dolphins answered the scores with a 37-yard touchdown pass from Dan Marino to Irving Fryar. The Buccaneers scored the final points of the first half and took a 12-7 lead as Craig Erickson threw a seven-yard touchdown strike to Horace Copeland with just 28 seconds left in the half. Tampa Bay failed on a two-point conversion attempt following the score. The Dolphins retook the lead at 14-12 early in the third quarter as Aaron Craver ran over right tackle for a three-yard touchdown. The key play in the drive was a 36-yard completion from Marino to Terry Kirby. Tampa Bay opened the fourth quarter by taking an 18-14 lead as Casey Weldon entered the game and threw a seven-yard touchdown pass to Tyree Davis. The Bucs failed on a two-point conversion attempt. Tampa Bay increased its lead to 21-14 as Husted booted his third field goal of the game with a 29-yard effort. The Bucs closed the scoring as John Lynch forced a fumble by Miami fullback James Saxon and Milton Mack returned the ball for a 19-yard touchdown. Tampa Bay scored on a two-point conversion attempt as Trent Dilfer went over right tackle into the endzone for a 29-14 lead.

PRESEASON GAME 5

August 26, 1994 — Minneapolis, MN

The Dolphins closed the preseason by dropping a 31-16 decision to the Minnesota Vikings before a crowd of 46,933 at the Metrodome. The Dolphins posted a 3-2 mark in the preseason and posted a winning record in the preseason for the fourth consecutive season (3-1 in 1993 and 3-2 in 1991 and '92). Minnesota opened the scoring and took a 7-0 lead as linebacker Jack Del Rio returned a Dan Marino interception for a 22-yard touchdown. The Vikings increased their lead to 14-0 as Warren Moon and Qadry Ismail combined for a five-yard touchdown run. The key play in the drive was a 51-yard run by Terry Allen. Pete Stoyanovich connected on a 42-yard field goal to bring the score to 14-3. The scoring drive was started by a 65-yard kickoff return by Irving Spikes. Miami narrowd the score to 14-9 as O.J. McDuffie reached the endzone on a 77-yard punt return. Following the score, Miami went for a two-point conversion attempt but Mark Higgs was stopped short of the goal line. Minnesota increased its lead to 22-9 as Terry Allen ran off right tackle for a one-yard touchdown. Moon completed a pass to Cris Carter for a two-point conversion. Miami narrowed the score to 22-16 as Bernie Kosar entered the game and drove the Dolphins to a score by hitting Keith Jackon for a one-yard touchdown with 46 seconds remaining before halftime. Following the score, Moon guided the Vikings on a five-play, 53-yard drive which was capped by a 40-yard field goal by Cary Blanchard with ten seconds left in the half to bring the score to 25-16. The Vikings scored the only points of the third quarter and increased their lead to 28-16 on a 32-yard field goal by Fuad Reveiz and closed the scoring in the fourth period on a 40-yard field goal by Cary Blanchard.

DOLPHIN FACT

The 1972 Dolphins continue to hold the distinction of being the only unbeaten, untied team through the playoffs. Miami went a perfect 17-0 in winning Super Bowl VII. In that season, the Dolphins became the only team to lead the NFL in scoring offense and defense in the same season since the 1970 merger of the AFL and NFL.

March 26 – The Robbie Family and Wayne Huizenga purchase 107 acres of land adjacent to Joe Robbie Stadium for additional parking and future development.

May 23 – At the NFL owners meetings in Minneapolis, Joe Robbie Stadium is selected as the site for Super Bowl XXIX (1995).

Aug. 3 – The Dolphins make the longest road trip in team history as they travel 14,912 round-trip miles to Tokyo to take on the Los Angeles Raiders at the Tokyo Dome in American Bowl '91. Miami comes from behind to defeat the Raiders, 19-17, before 51,122 Japanese fans.

Aug. 20 – Dan Marino signs a five-year contract extension to remain as quarterback of the Miami Dolphins.

Sept. 22 – Don Shula captures the 300th win of his coaching career with Miami's 16-13 win over the Green Bay Packers. With career coaching win number 300, Shula joins the immortal George Halas (325 wins) as the only NFL coaches to win 300 or more games.

Nov. 10 – In Miami's 30-20 win over New England, both Mark Duper and Mark Clayton surpass Nat Moore's team record of 7,547 career receiving yards. Duper is the first to move past Moore with a 17-yard reception in the first quarter, while Clayton passes Moore with a 32-yard touchdown catch in the fourth quarter.

Nov. 18 – During halftime of Miami's 41-27 loss to the Buffalo Bills, former Dolphin great middle linebacker Nick Buoniconti is inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll. The game is witness by 71,062 fans which is the largest crowd to watch a Dolphin game at Joe Robbie Stadium.

Nov. 24 – The Dolphins record a 16-13 overtime win in Chicago in 27-degree snowy weather, only the second win ever for the Dolphins in their nine games in which the temperature has been 27 degrees or colder.

Dec. 1 – Dan Marino sets an NFL record as he goes over 3,000 yards passing in a season for the eighth time in his career in Miami's 33-14 win over Tampa Bay. Marino entered the 1991 campaign with seven such seasons and was tied with Joe Montana for the record.

Dec. 9 – Miami defeats Cincinnati 37-13 in Shula Bowl V as Don Shula extends his record to 5-0 in Shula vs. Shula contests. This time, Shula teamed with son Mike, a Dolphins' coaches assistant, and was opposed by son David, the receivers coach for the Bengals. In the contest, Dan Marino set an NFL record by throwing his 20th touchdown pass of the season. It is his ninth season with 20 or more touchdown passes. He entered 1991 with eight such seasons and was tied with Johnny Unitas for the record. Also, Mark Clayton breaks Nat Moore's team record for career TDs (75) and career receiving scores (74) with a 16-yard TD reception in the fourth quarter to give Clayton his 76th career score (75 catch, one punt return) and 75th receiving TD.

Dec. 15 – Pete Stoyanovich breaks Garo Yepremian's single-season team record of 28 field goals in Miami's 38-30 loss to the San Diego Chargers. Stoyanovich boots his 29th of the year with a 24-yarder in the first quarter. He would go on to hit on 31 field goals during the 1991 season which tied for the league high with Washington's Chip Lohmiller.

Dec. 22 – The Dolphins drop a 23-20 overtime decision to the New York Jets in a winner-take-all battle for the AFC's final wild card spot. Miami takes a 20-17 lead with just :44 seconds left in regulation on a one-yard scoring toss from Dan Marino to Ferrell Edmunds. However, the Jets move the ball and tie the game at 20-20 on a 44-yard field goal by Raul Allegre with no time left on the clock. New York wins the game in overtime on a 30-yard field goal by Allegre.

Feb. 1 – Former Dolphin All-Pro center Dwight Stephenson rejoins Miami as assistant offensive line coach.

Feb. 3 – Hall of Fame defensive tackle Joe Greene is named as the Dolphins' defensive line coach. Greene replaced Dan Sekanovich, who announced his resignation.

May 20 – Dolphins sign a long-term agreement to build a new training facility at Nova University in Davie, to be ready by the start of the 1993 training camp.

June 1 – Charley Winner announces his retirement as Miami's Director of Player Personnel. Winner, who had served 37 years in the NFL as a coach and administrator, originally joined the Dolphins in 1981.

June 4 – Tom Heckert is named as the Dolphins' Director of Player Personnel. Heckert had worked the previous three years as Miami's Director of College Scouting.

June 12 – Tom Braatz, a 27-year NFL executive with the Atlanta Falcons and Green Bay Packers, is named as Miami's Director of College Scouting.

July 17 – Don Shula signs a two-year contract extension to continue as the Dolphins' Head Coach through the 1994 season. The extension takes effect at the conclusion of Shula's current contract which expires following the 1992 season.

Aug. 16 – The Dolphins travel 9,908 round-trip miles and earn a 31-27 preseason win over the Denver Broncos before a crowd of 60,813 fans at Berlin's Olympic Stadium. The game marks the third time overall and second consecutive season that the Dolphins have travelled abroad to play a preseason contest and the win improves Miami's record to 3-0 in games played on foreign soil. The Dolphins join the L.A. Rams as only teams which have recorded wins in contests played in each of the three American Bowl sites (London, Tokyo and Berlin).

Aug. 31 – Miami's season opening contest, scheduled for September 6 at Joe Robbie Stadium against the New England Patriots, is rescheduled for October 18, the National Football League announces. The date change is made in the aftermath of Hurricane Andrew, which struck the South Florida area on August 25. Both teams originally were off that weekend, based on the NFL's 16-games-over-17-weeks schedule which allows each team one bye during the season. The Patriots and Dolphins will have their Open Week on September 6, which marks the beginning of the 1992 regular season.

Sept. 29 – The Dolphins dip into the free agent market and sign perennial all-pro tight end Keith Jackson.

Oct. 4 – The Dolphins improve to 4-0 and take over sole possession of first place in the AFC East for the first time in 34 weeks with a 37-10 win over the Buffalo Bills at Rich Stadium. The win snaps Miami's six-game losing streak to the Bills at Rich Stadium. The Dolphins' last triumph in Buffalo was a 34-24 win on November 16, 1986. With the win, Miami moves ahead of the second-place Bills (4-1) in the AFC East for the first time since the second week of the 1990 season. Individually, safety Louis Oliver records three interceptions and returns one of his INTs for a 103-yard touchdown. Oliver's return ties for the NFL's all-time longest interception return with a 103-yard return by San Diego's Vencie Glenn against Denver on November 29, 1987.

Oct. 18 – Dan Marino throws four touchdown passes as Miami earns a 38-17 win over the Patriots at Joe Robbie Stadium in a game that is rescheduled from September 6 due to the effects of Hurricane Andrew. Marino throws four-or-more touchdowns in a game for the 17th time in his career and ties the all-time NFL record for most career games with four or more touchdown passes with Johnny Unitas.

Nov. 8 – The Dolphins record a 28-0 win at the Indianapolis Colts. Miami's shutout is the first by the team since October 11, 1987, when the Dolphins posted a 42-0 win over the Kansas City Chiefs in a replacement contest at Joe Robbie Stadium. In addition, it is the first Dolphin shutout in a non-replacement game since December 22, 1985, in a 28-0 win over the Buffalo Bills in the Orange Bowl and the first road shutout since September 4, 1983, in a 12-0 win at the Buffalo Bills in Rich Stadium.

Nov. 16 – During halftime ceremonies of Miami's 26-20 loss to the Buffalo Bills, the 1972 Miami Dolphins team, holders of the only perfect season in NFL history and winners of Super Bowl VII, are honored and inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll.

Dec. 14 – Miami reverses history by earning a 20-7 win over the Los Angles Raiders on Monday Night Football at Joe Robbie Stadium. The contest marks the Dolphins' first win over the Raiders in a game played in Miami since a 23-6 triumph on December 10, 1978, in the Orange Bowl.

Dec. 20 – The Dolphins clinch the team's second trip to the playoffs in the last three seasons with a 19-17 come-from-behind win over the New York Jets at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino throws the 290th touchdown pass of his NFL career and ties John Unitas for second place on the NFL's all-time touchdown pass list.

Dec. 23 – Dan Marino is named to his team-record seventh Pro Bowl team. He breaks the former team record of six Pro Bowl appearances which he shared with Bob Griese, Bob Kuechenberg and Jim Langer. In addition, Marino is named as a starter in the NFL's annual all-star game for the fifth time in his career and he ties the team record held by Jim Langer. Voted to join Marino in Honolulu are linebacker Bryan Cox, tight end Keith Jackson and tackle Richmond Webb (all as starters).

Dec. 27 – The Dolphins clinch the AFC East title with a 16-13 overtime win over the New England Patriots at Foxboro Stadium. Miami closes the regular season with an 11-5 record and coupled with Buffalo's 27-3 loss at Houston later in the day, the Dolphins win the team's first division championship since 1985. In addition, the win marks the 300th regular season victory of Dolphins' Head Coach Don Shula's coaching career.

Jan. 10 – The Dolphins earn a 31-0 win over the San Diego Chargers in the AFC Divisional Playoffs before a crowd of 71,224 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami's 31-point margin of victory is the largest by the team in a playoff game. The previous largest margin of victory in the post-season by the Dolphins was three 21-point wins as Miami had a 21-0 win over the Baltimore Colts on Jan. 2, 1972; a 34-13 win over the San Diego Chargers on Jan. 16, 1983; and a 31-10 win over the Seattle Seahawks on Dec. 29, 1984.

Jan. 17 – The 1992 season comes to a close. Miami suffers five turnovers (two interceptions and three fumbles) as the team drops a 29-10 decision to the Buffalo Bills in the AFC Championship Contest before a crowd of 72,703 at Joe Robbie Stadium. The attendance of 72,703 marks the largest crowd to witness a Dolphin game at JRS. The previous high was 71,224 which was set the previous week on January 10 to witness the Dolphins' 31-0 win over San Diego in an AFC Divisional Playoff.

Jan. 26 – Kim Helton is named the team's offensive line coach. John Sandusky, who served as assistant head coach/offensive line, remains with the team as assistant head coach and assumes the responsibility of coaching the tight ends. In addition, assistant offensive line coach Dwight Stephenson resigns to pursue his interests in the construction and real estate business.

Jan. 30 – Former Dolphins great Larry Little is among a group of five named to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The former Dolphin guard becomes the fifth player in Miami history to earn the honor, joining RB Larry Csonka, QB Bob Griese, C Jim Langer and WR Paul Warfield.

Feb. 7 – The Dolphin coaching staff leads the AFC to a 23-20 overtime win over the NFC in the Pro Bowl contest played in Honolulu, Hawaii.

Feb. 11 – Mike Shula resigns as a coaches assistant and is named as tight end coach of the Chicago Bears.

Feb. 22 – Tony Nathan, who spent the past five years as a coaches' assistant on the Miami Dolphins coaching staff, is promoted to offensive backs coach. In addition, Carl Taseff, who served as the team's offensive backs coach since joining the Dolphins in 1970, will become more active in other areas of the football operation, including personnel scouting and evaluation, and will maintain a continued involvement in various coaching responsibilities.

May 21 – Kim Helton resigns as offensive line coach to become head coach at the University of Houston. John Sandusky, who served as offensive line coach from 1976-92, resumes his offensive line coaching responsibilities.

June 1 – Rich McGeorge is named as Assistant Offensive Line/Tight Ends Coach of the Dolphins.

June 4 – Dolphins hold last practice session at St. Thomas University, which had served as host to team's training facility since July 12, 1970.

July 11 – Ribbon cutting ceremonies officially open the Dolphins' new training facility on campus of Nova University in Davie, Fla.

Sept. 12 – Dan Marino surpasses the 40,000-yard passing mark during Miami's 24-14 loss to the N.Y. Jets. He joins Fran Tarkenton (47,003), Dan Fouts (43,040) and Johnny Unitas (40,239) as the only quarterbacks to gain 40,000 passing yards. Marino attains the 40,000-yard mark in only 153 regular-season games and accomplishes the feat faster than any QB in league history. The previous record for fastest assent to 40,000 yards was 168 games by Dan Fouts.

Oct. 10 – Scott Mitchell comes off the bench and replaces an injured Dan Marino (torn Achilles in right foot) and throws a pair of touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a 24-14 win at the Cleveland Browns. Mitchell enters the game just before halftime and completes 10 of 16 passes for 118 yards with two touchdowns and an interception. Mitchell is named as AFC Offensive Player of the Week for his performance against the Browns. Marino is placed on Injured Reserve on October 13 and misses the remainder of the season.

Oct. 24 – Dan Marino misses his first starting assignment in 145 consecutive non-replacement regular season games as Miami earns a 41-27 win over Indianapolis. The games marks the first career NFL start at quarterback for Scott Mitchell as he hits on 12 of 19 passes for 190 yards with a touchdown. Mitchell becomes the eighth player to start at quarterback for the Dolphins since Don Shula was named head coach in 1970.

Oct. 31 – Don Shula wins the 324th game of his coaching career and ties George Halas for the all time record for most wins by an NFL head coach as Miami earns a 30-10 win over the Kansas City Chiefs. Shula achieves the coaching milestone in his 31st year (482nd game) of his NFL coaching career as compared to 40 seasons (506 games) for Halas to accomplish the feat. On the field, Scott Mitchell throws for 344 yards and three touchdowns and becomes the first Dolphin quarterback other than Dan Marino to pass for over 300 yards and throw three or more touchdown passes since David Woodley gained 408 yards and threw three scores on October 25, 1981, at the Dallas Cowboys.

Nov. 14 – The Dolphins endure another quarterback injury as Scott Mitchell suffers a separated shoulder during Miami's 19-14 win at Philadelphia. The win enables Don Shula to record the 325th triumph of his coaching career as he becomes the winningest coach in NFL history surpassing George Halas. In the contest, Doug Pederson replaces Mitchell and enters the game in the third quarter with Miami trailing 14-13. He guides the Dolphins to a pair of field goals and the defense holds the Eagles scoreless in the second half to garner the victory.

Nov. 21 – Steve DeBerg becomes the third player to start at quarterback for the Dolphins in 1993 as he throws for 252 yards and a pair of touchdowns to lead Miami to a 17-13 win over New England. DeBerg, the NFL's oldest player, had joined the team just 11 days prior to the Pats' game and was forced into his first start in place of the injured Scott Mitchell.

Nov. 25 – The Dolphins post a come-from-behind 16-14 win over the defending and eventual Super Bowl champion Dallas Cowboys on Thanksgiving Day on a sleet covered field at Texas Stadium. Miami improves 3-0 on Thanksgiving as the team had posted victories at St. Louis (55-14 on November 24, 1977) and at Dallas (14-7 on November 22, 1973). In the contest, Miami trails 14-13 with just 15 seconds left in regulation and Pete Stoyanovich's 41-yard field goal attempt for the win is blocked by the Cowboys' Jimmie Jones. However, Dallas' Leon Lett attempts to pick up the loose ball and fumbles and Miami's Jeff Dellenbach recovers the ball on the one-yard line with three seconds remaining. Stoyanovich converts on his second chance and boots a 19-yard field goal on the game's final play to win the contest. The win improves Miami's record to an NFL best 9-2, but the team will fail to win another game during the remainder of the season.

Dec. 5 – Miami drops a 19-14 decision to the New York Giants at Joe Robbie Stadium. The Dolphins fall to 12-1 at home against teams in the NFC East since the NFL merger in 1970 and 11-1 at home against opponents from the NFC since the team moved to Joe Robbie Stadium in 1987. The last team to defeat the Dolphins in an inter-conference game played in Miami was the Atlanta Falcons who earned a 20-14 win on November 30, 1986, in the Orange Bowl.

Dec. 13 – During halftime ceremonies of Miami's 21-20 loss to Pittsburgh, former Dolphin great and Hall of Famer Larry Little is honored and inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll.

Dec. 14 – Don Shula is named Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year. He is the first professional coach to receive the honor.

Jan. 2 – The Dolphins lose by a 33-27 count in overtime at New England. It is the fifth consecutive loss for the Dolphins and the team is eliminated from the playoffs later in the day as the Raiders rally from a 17-point deficit to win over Denver and qualify for the playoffs.

Jan. 24 – The trustees of the Miami Dolphins sign a definitive agreement with H. Wayne Huizenga to purchase the Robbie family's interests in the Dolphin franchise. The agreement also includes an option for Huizenga to purchase the Robbies' interest in Joe Robbie Stadium.

Feb. 8 – Joel Collier joins the Dolphins as a Staff Assistant, replacing Carl Taseff.

March 16 – John Gamble is named as the Dolphins' strength coach.

March 23 – The National Football League clubs approve transfer of the majority interests in the Miami Dolphins from the Robbie family to H. Wayne Huizenga at the annual league meetings in Orlando, Fla.

June 28 – H. Wayne Huizenga's purchase of the Robbie Family's remaining 85% of the Miami Dolphins as well as their 50% share of the Joe Robbie Stadium is finalized. The closing leaves Huizenga with 100% ownership of both the Dolphins and Stadium.

July 8 – The Dolphins and WIOD Radio (610 AM) announce the hiring of Bill Zimpfer as the team's play-by-play announcer and "Voice of the Dolphins." Zimpfer replaces Rick Weaver, who had served as play-by-play announcer for the Dolphins since 1970 and announced his retirement at the club's annual awards dinner on May 6, 1993. Zimpfer joins former Dolphin tight end and color analyst Jim Mandich in the broadcast booth.

July 21 – H. Wayne Huizenga announces that he has entered into a new agreement with Head Coach Don Shula that extends through the 1996 season. Under the new contract extension, Shula assumes the position of Vice President/Head Coach, and also adds an ownership interest in the team.

Sept. 4 – Dan Marino throws for 473 yards and five touchdowns to lead the Dolphins to a 39-35 win over the New England Patriots at Joe Robbie Stadium. Marino sets an NFL record by throwing for four or more touchdown passes in a game for the 18th time in his career, breaking his tie with John Unitas, and also throws the 300th touchdown pass of his career to join Fran Tarkenton (343 touchdowns) as the only quarterbacks in NFL history with 300-plus career touchdowns.

Oct. 2 – Shula Bowl VI makes sports history as it marks the first time in the history of the four major American professional sports (football, baseball, hockey and basketball) that a father and son battle as head coaches with Don Shula and the Dolphins taking on his son, Head Coach David Shula, and the Cincinnati Bengals. The elder Shula improves to 6-0 when coaching against teams which feature one of his sons as a coach with a 23-7 win over the Bengals.

Oct. 16 – Bernie Parmalee receives two game balls – one for offense and one for special teams – for his performance in Miami's 20-17 overtime win against the Los Angeles Raiders. Parmalee rushes for 150 yards on 30 carries and adds a pair of tackles and a fumble recovery on special teams. In addition, the Dolphins reverse history in the all-time series against the Raiders as Miami records wins in consecutive games against the Raiders for the first time in the history of the series. Miami earned a 20-7 win over the Raiders on December 14, 1992, in the last meeting between the two teams.

Oct. 30 – The Dolphins earn a 23-3 win at the New England Patriots to sweep the season series over the Patriots for the fifth time in the last six years and win for the 11th time in the last 12 games played between the two teams. The win improves Miami to 6-0 in games following a bye weekend. In addition, Bernie Parmalee gains 123 rushing yards and ties the all-time team record for consecutive 100-yard performances. His 273 rushing yards in consecutive games surpasses the previous best of 258 yards rushing by Mercury Morris who accomplished the feat with 197 yards against New England on September 30, 1973, and 61 yards at the New York Jets on October 7, 1973.

Nov. 13 – Chicago's Kevin Butler boots a 40-yard field goal with 54 seconds left in regulation and James Williams deflects a Dolphins field goal attempt with just seven seconds remaining in the game to give the Bears a 17-14 win over the Dolphins in Shula Bowl VII. Miami Head Coach Shula battles his son and Bears' tight ends coach Mike Shula in the contest and it marks the first time that the elder Shula lost a game in which one of his sons, David or Mike, were either players or assistant coaches on the opposing NFL team.

Nov. 27 – Mark Ingram catches four touchdown passes, including the game winner with just 22 seconds left in regulation, to lead the Dolphins to a come-from-behind 28-24 win over the New York Jets at Giants Stadium. The Dolphins trail by an 18-point margin midway through the third period (24-6) before rebounding to outscore the Jets by a 22-0 edge to win the game. Ingram's four touchdowns and 24 points in the game tie the team's single-game records with Paul Warfield's four touchdowns (all receiving) and 24 points against Detroit on December 15, 1973.

Dec. 7 – Don Shula suffers a torn Achilles' tendon in his right leg and undergoes surgery on the injury on December 9 by Dr. Peter Indelicato and Dr. Dan Kanell. He misses a regular season practice for the first time in his 25 seasons with the team. Shula returns to practice on December 10 and coaches for the remainder of the season on a golf cart.

Dec. 12 – Bernie Parmalee rushes for 127 yards and scores a pair of touchdowns (one rushing and one receiving) as the Dolphins clinch a playoff spot with a 45-28 win over the Kansas City Chiefs at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Dolphins Head Coach

Don Shula wins his 318th career regular season game and ties George Halas (318 regular season coaching wins) for the all-time record for most career regular season wins by an NFL coach. Center Dwight Stephenson is inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll during halftime ceremonies.

Dec. 25 – The Dolphins earn a 27-20 win over the Detroit Lions and clinch the AFC East title. Miami and the New England Patriots both finish with 10-6 records, however the Dolphins win the division title by virtue of a two-game head-to-head sweep over New England during the 1994 season. Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula wins the 319th regular season game of his coaching career and surpasses George Halas (318 regular season coaching wins) for the all-time record for most career regular season wins by an NFL coach. Miami plays on Christmas Day for the second time in team history with the only other Christmas game for the Dolphins being the longest game in NFL history as Miami earned a 27-24 playoff win in double overtime at Kansas City on December 25, 1971.

Dec. 27 – Defensive tackle Tim Bowens is named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year by the Associated Press. He becomes the first Dolphins player to win A.P.'s defensive rookie award since A.J. Duhe in 1977.

Dec. 31 – Dan Marino throws a pair of touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a 27-17 win in a First-Round playoff contest against the Kansas City Chiefs at Joe Robbie Stadium. The game is billed as Marino-Montana III and the duel between the two future Hall of Famers lives up to its pregame hype. Marino completes 22 of 29 passes for 257 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions and Montana counters by hitting on 26 of 37 passes for 314 yards with two scores and an interception. Marino sets an NFL playoff record as he throws for a touchdown pass in his 11th consecutive post-season game and moves past a tie with Montana (San Francisco/Kansas City) and Ken Stabler (Oakland) for the longest all-time streak in NFL post-season history.

Jan. 9 – Natrone Means rushes for 139 yards and a touchdown to lead the San Diego Chargers to a 22-21 win over the Miami Dolphins in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest at Jack Murphy Stadium. San Diego took a 22-21 lead with just 35 seconds left in regulation as Stan Humphries threw an eight-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Mark Seay. The Dolphins had one final chance to win the game as Dan Marino drove the team to the Chargers' 30-yard line but Pete Stoyanovich's 48-yard field goal attempt with eight seconds left was wide right.

Jan. 18 – Assistant Head Coach/Offensive Line John Sandusky announces his retirement. A veteran of over three decades of NFL coaching (he concluded his 36th season in 1994), Sandusky was one of only two coaches to serve as offensive line coach on a Don Shula coached team. Sandusky was offensive line coach with the Colts (1963-69) and Dolphins (1976-94) under Shula, while Monte Clark coached the offensive line with the Dolphins under Shula from 1970-75.

Feb. 6 – Monte Clark is named as the team's offensive line coach. Clark enters his third tour of duty with the Dolphins, re-joining the team after having served as head offensive line coach at Stanford University during 1993-94.

Feb. 9 – Dolphins Executive Vice President and General Manager Eddie Jones signs a two-year contract to remain in that capacity through the 1996 season.

May 19 – The Miami Dolphins sign a two-year agreement with WCMQ radio (1210 AM) to be the Spanish radio outlet for Dolphins games. WCMQ replaces WQBA radio, which had been the team's Spanish station for the previous 13 seasons.

PLAYOFF HISTORY

1970 AFC PLAYOFF

OAKLAND 21, MIAMI 14 — Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum
December 27, 1970 — Oakland, CA

Oakland quarterback Daryle Lamonica unloaded an 82-yard touchdown pass to Rod Sherman with 9:34 left to play as Oakland spoiled the Dolphins first appearance in the playoffs, 21-14, on a field oozing with mud. The Dolphins, who had won six consecutive games to finish the season 10-4 and gain a wild-card berth, took a 7-0 lead in the second quarter when Bob Griese fired a 16-yard strike to Paul Warfield in the end zone. Lamonica matched that TD with a 22-yard toss to Fred Biletnikoff only 1:50 before halftime. Raider right cornerback Willie Brown intercepted a wet and wobbly pass by Griese and fled 50 yards along the sideline for the tie-breaking TD. It came minutes after Jake Scott recovered an Oakland fumble at the Miami 10-yard line. The heave to Sherman was insurance. Only three plays earlier, Dolphin kicker Garo Yepremian missed a 24-yard field goal attempt for the second time in the game. Oakland's George Blanda also missed a 23-yarder.

1971 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 27, KANSAS CITY 24 (2 OTs) — Kansas City Municipal Stadium
December 25, 1971 — Kansas City, MO

Garo Yepremian ended 82 minutes and 40 seconds of an epic struggle by booting a 37-yard field goal with 7:40 elapsed in the second overtime, lifting the Dolphins past Kansas City, 27-24, on Christmas Day. The Dolphins battled from behind three times to tie the AFC West champions, the third time on Bob Griese's five-yard pass to tight end Marv Fleming with 96 seconds remaining in regulation. Kansas City running back Ed Podolak, who amassed 350 yards of all-purpose running, returned the ensuing kickoff 78 yards to the Dolphin 22 where Curtis Johnson missed a desperation tackle. With 35 seconds on the clock, Jan Stenerud missed a 32-yard field-goal try. Stenerud had a 42-yarder blocked by Nick Buoniconti in the fifth quarter, and Yepremian was short with a 45-yard effort. But Larry Csonka crashed 29 yards to the Chiefs 36, and that put Yepremian, the NFLs scoring leader, in position to win it. Goal posts were on the goal line; in 1974 the uprights were moved to the end line.

1971 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 21, BALTIMORE 0 — Orange Bowl
January 2, 1972 — Miami, FL

Three lightning plays and a persistent defense propelled the Dolphins into Super Bowl VI with a 21-0 rout of Baltimore before an all-time Orange Bowl record crowd of 78,939. Strong safety Dick Anderson intercepted a Johnny Unitas pass which was deflected by Curtis Johnson, and behind a wall of six open-field blocks Anderson weaved 62 yards for a third-quarter touchdown. "My eyes were popping as I ran," Anderson said. "I've never seen so many people land on their heads." Before Anderson's convoy made it 14-0, the Dolphins staggered the defending Super Bowl champions when Bob Griese and Paul Warfield hooked up for a 75-yard TD pass. Warfield applied the clincher when he escaped 50 yards with a Griese pass, setting up a five-yard TD slam by fullback Larry Csonka. The Colts had not been held scoreless for 97 games over seven seasons. They were stopped at the Dolphin 9 in the second quarter. Jim O'Brien missed two field-goal attempts and had another blocked by Lloyd Mumphord.

SUPER BOWL VI

January 16, 1972 — New Orleans, LA

A 252-yard rushing attack and sharp passing by Roger Staubach spurred the Dallas Cowboys to a 24-3 victory over the Dolphins at Tulane Stadium. Duane Thomas pranced 95 yards on 19 carries, fullback Walt Garrison added 74 yards on 14 carries and Staubach passed twice for touchdowns to Lance Alworth and Mike Ditka. Staubach, who was sacked twice in the first quarter, bounced back to complete 12 of 19 passes, and he scrambled from the Dolphin pass rush five times. The Dolphins were frustrated all day; in the first quarter, Larry Csonka lost a fumble and Bob Griese was chased by tackle Bob Lilly for a 29-yard loss. Griese also fumbled away a snap at the Dallas 16 in the fourth period. Although it was an intriguing 10-3 at halftime, the Cowboys marched 71 yards in eight plays after the kickoff, and Thomas swept three yards for the TD.

1972 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 20, CLEVELAND 14 — Orange Bowl
December 24, 1972 — Miami, FL

On the ropes in the fourth quarter after an unprecedented 14 victories, the Dolphins responded to poised Earl Morrall and drove 80 yards for a touchdown with 4:56 to play for a 20-14 victory over the Cleveland Browns. Morrall, the NFL's leading passer after replacing the injured Bob Griese 10 weeks earlier, had completed only four passes for 38 yards. But he threw 15 and 35 yards to Paul Warfield, reaching the Browns 20, and a pass interference call against linebacker Billy Andrews, put the ball at the eight. Halfback Jim Kiick then bulled eight yards up the middle on a trap for the winning points. The triumph was sealed with a minute to play when Dolphin linebacker Doug Swift intercepted Cleveland QB Mike Phipps at the Dolphin 20. Despite stealing five of Phipps' passes, the Dolphins were stung by a 27-yard TD pass to Fair Hooker and trailed 14-13 with 8:11 to play.

1972 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 21, PITTSBURGH 17 — Three Rivers Stadium
December 31, 1972 — Pittsburgh, PA

Quarterback Bob Griese, playing 11 weeks after he had broken his right leg, ignited a third-quarter touchdown drive with a 52-yard pass to Paul Warfield, and the Dolphins overtook the Pittsburgh Steelers, 21-17, in unusually warm 63-degree weather. Griese was given the nod in the second half after Earl Morrall had flipped a nine-yard touchdown pass to Larry Csonka for a 7-7 halftime deadlock. Punter Larry Seiple broke loose on a daring 37-yard run on fourth down to set up that TD. Trailing 10-7, Griese directed TD drives of 80 and 49 yards with Jim Kiick blasting two and three yards for the scores. Steeler quarterback Terry Bradshaw, who closed the gap with four straight completions on a 71-yard TD drive, was intercepted by Nick Buoniconti at midfield with 2½ minutes to play. In addition to Seiple's dash, the Dolphins converted fourth-down situations on both Griese-led drives.

SUPER BOWL VII

January 14, 1973 — Los Angeles, CA

"This is the ultimate," Coach Don Shula said quietly after his unbeaten Dolphins dominated the Washington Redskins, 14-7, to cap a perfect season. It was Shula's first Super Bowl triumph in three tries. A record Super Bowl paid crowd of 90,182 saw the Dolphins surge to a 14-0 halftime lead even as one touchdown was nullified by an offside penalty. Miami intercepted three of Bill Kilmer's passes, and Manny Fernandez scuttled the Redskin running game with 17 tackles. An original Dolphin, Howard Twilley, eluded cornerback Pat Fischer to snare a 28-yard touchdown pass from Bob Griese in the first quarter. Griese's 57-yard TD bomb to Paul Warfield was erased by the penalty, but a 32-yard interception return by linebacker Nick Buoniconti set up the Dolphins' second score. Safety Jake Scott thwarted Kilmer with an end zone interception and 55-yard runback. The Redskins finally scored on a bizarre 49-yard fumble recovery by Mike Bass after a blocked field goal and attempted pass by kicker Garo Yepremian. Scott was named MVP.

1973 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 34, CINCINNATI 16 — Orange Bowl
December 23, 1973 — Miami, FL

A defense which had allowed only 15 touchdowns all season kept the Cincinnati Bengals out of the end zone while the Dolphins hammered 241 yards on the ground for a convincing 34-16 victory. Mercury Morris scooted 106 yards on 20 carries and Bob Griese completed 11 of 18 passes, including TDs of 13 yards to Paul Warfield and seven yards to Jim Mandich. Garo Yepremian converted long field goals of 50 and 46 yards in the second half to widen the winning margin. The Dolphins led 21-3 when a lapse just before halftime gave life to the Bengals. Safety Neal Craig intercepted Griese and returned it 45 yards for a score, and Horst Muhlmann booted field goals of 46 and 12 yards – the second coming after Morris fumbled a kickoff – to make it 21-16.

1973 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 27, OAKLAND 10 — Orange Bowl
December 30, 1973 — Miami, FL

A relentless running attack with Larry Csonka and Mercury Morris accounting for 203 of the 266 yards powered the Dolphins to a 27-10 triumph over the Oakland Raiders for a third straight American Conference title. Csonka, a 237-pound battering ram who had his third consecutive 1,000-yard season, scored three touchdowns with his 117 yards on 29 carries. The Dolphins covered 64 and 63 yards exclusively on the ground for a 14-0 halftime lead. Then as the Raiders battled within 17-10, Bob Griese directed ground assaults of 63 yards, culminating in a field goal, and 40 yards, ending in Csonka's third TD. Defensively, safety Dick Anderson forced a fourth-down fumble by Marv Hubbard at midfield, and the Dolphins took possession with a 20-10 lead and six minutes to play. Oakland had stopped Miami's 18-game winning streak, 12-7, three months earlier.

SUPER BOWL VIII

MIAMI 24, MINNESOTA 7 — Rice Stadium
January 13, 1974 — Houston, TX

Winning for the 32nd time in 34 games, the Dolphins repeated as Super Bowl champions and proved themselves "Best Ever" with a 24-7 rout of the Minnesota Vikings at Rice Stadium. There was no doubt from the beginning. The Dolphins swept 62 yards in 10 plays with the opening kickoff, scoring on Larry Csonka's five-yard smash. Minnesota punted, and the onslaught resumed with a 56-yard, 10-play Dolphin drive capped by Jim Kiick's one-yard plunge. It was 17-0 before the Vikings crossed their 40, and a fourth-down fumble by Minnesota's Oscar Reed was recovered by safety Jake Scott at the Dolphin six-yard line. A brilliant, diving catch by Paul Warfield netted 27 yards on a third-quarter TD drive that hiked the score to 24-0. Csonka finished with his best-ever total of 145 yards on 33 carries. The Dolphins rushed for 703 yards and outscored opponents 85-33 in the three-game playoff blitz. Csonka's yardage was a Super Bowl record and he was named MVP.

1974 AFC PLAYOFF

December 21, 1974 — Oakland, CA

Oakland quarterback Ken Stabler, falling in the clutches of Vern Den Herder, unloaded a wobbly eight-yard pass that Clarence Davis wrestled from three defenders in the end zone, and the Raiders scored a stunning 28-26 victory over the defending champion Dolphins. Stabler, who had spent the last of his timeouts, appeared to have thrown an interception. But running back Davis clutched the football when bodies were untangled with 26 seconds remaining. It was the fourth TD pass for lefthander Stabler and his second "freak" score. Four minutes earlier Cliff Branch fell while catching a pass at the Dolphin 27, but defender Henry Stuckey also slipped, and Branch got up and escaped for a 72-yard TD. The Dolphins, trailing by two points, went ahead with 2:08 remaining as rookie Benny Malone broke two tackles on a 23-yard touchdown run along the sideline.

1978 AFC WILD-CARD PLAYOFF

HOUSTON 17, MIAMI 9 — Orange Bowl
December 24, 1978 — Miami, FL

The Houston Oilers amassed a 455-209 margin in total yardage, and aided by five Dolphin turnovers, gained a 17-9 victory in a battle of AFC wild-card entries at the Orange Bowl. Toni Fritsch kicked a 35-yard field goal with 7:25 remaining to snap a 7-7 tie that existed since the first quarter. An interception by linebacker Greg Bingham led to a clinching 50-yard touchdown drive capped by Earl Campbell's one-yard dive with 1:55 to go. Campbell, the NFL rushing leader with 1,450 yards as a rookie, had been checked for only 16 yards on 13 carries in the first half. Dolphin quarterback Bob Griese, playing with very sore ribs, connected with tight end Andre Tillman for a 13-yard TD after Earnie Rhone had recovered a fumbled punt at the Houston 21. But Griese completed only 13 of 28 passes. Twice the Dolphins lost the ball inside the Oiler 10-yard line when the game was tied. Houston's Dan Pastorini wore a flak jacket to protect three broken ribs, and he passed for 261 of his 306-yard total in the first half.

1979 AFC PLAYOFF

PITTSBURGH 34, MIAMI 14 — Three Rivers Stadium
December 30, 1979 — Pittsburgh, PA

Launching a drive to their fourth Super Bowl title in six years, the Pittsburgh Steelers scored touchdowns on their first three possessions and coasted to a 34-14 victory at Three Rivers Stadium. Miami managed only 25 yards rushing against the Steel Curtain and was stopped twice in the second quarter after achieving a first down inside the Steeler 10-yard line. The Dolphins got as close as 20-7 with a seven-yard TD pass from Bob Griese to Duriel Harris in the third period, but Pittsburgh responded with a 69-yard TD drive. The Steelers marched 62, 62 and 56 yards for their first-quarter scores when quarterback Terry Bradshaw completed 8 of 10 passes, including touchdowns to John Stallworth and Lynn Swann, who was standing alone in the end zone. Don Strock directed a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive after relieving Griese in the fourth quarter

1981 AFC PLAYOFF

SAN DIEGO 41, MIAMI 38 (OT) — Orange Bowl
January 2, 1982 — Miami, FL

A record-setting showcase of the passing game resulted in NFL playoff marks for most points (79), most total yards (1,036) and most drama as the San Diego Chargers outlasted the Dolphins 41-38 in overtime. "The Miracle That Died" was the Miami Herald headline after the Dolphins rallied behind reserve quarterback Don Strock to overcome a 24-point deficit. The Pro Football Hall of Fame voted the contest as the "NFL's Game of the '80s." Strock completed 29 of 43 passes for 403 yards and four touchdowns, spurring the Dolphins to a 38-31 lead. A 12-yard sweep by Tony Nathan on the first play of the fourth quarter put the Dolphins on top. But Charger quarterback Dan Fouts, who passed for an NFL record 4,802 yards during the season, led an 82-yard drive capped by a 9-yard pass to James Brooks to tie the game with 58 seconds remaining. Five players had more than 100 yards in receptions, topped by Charger tight end Kellen Winslow with 13 catches for 166 yards. Fouts, who finished with 433 yards on 33 of 53 marksmanship, hooked up with Charlie Joiner for 39 yards to the Dolphin 10-yard line. Rolf Benirschke then kicked a 29-yard field goal to end the struggle after 13:52 of overtime. Benirschke had missed a 27-yard attempt eight minutes earlier, and Miami's Uwe von Schamann had two attempts blocked – a 43-yarder on the last play of regulation and a 35-yarder after 11:27 of overtime. It was the first game in NFL history in which two quarterbacks passed for more than 400 yards.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (first round)

MIAMI 28, NEW ENGLAND 13 — Orange Bowl
January 8, 1983 — Miami, FL

For the first time in nine years, the Miami Dolphins won a playoff game, defeating the New England Patriots 28-13. Dolphin QB David Woodley had one of his finest games, completing 16 of 19 passes for 246 yards and two TDs. He was a perfect 8-8 in the second half. The Dolphins had not experienced a playoff win since January 13, 1974, when they downed Minnesota in Super Bowl VIII. The Dolphins took command in the second quarter, putting together back-to-back TD drives of 76 and 79 yards that turned a 3-0 deficit into a 14-3 halftime advantage. The four Miami TDs came on a pair of two-yard passes from David Woodley to tight end Bruce Hardy, a one-yard run by Andra Franklin and Woody Bennett's two-yard burst up the middle. Franklin finished with 112 yards on 26 carries, but lost the ball three times on fumbles. Two of those fumbles resulted in John Smith field goals of 23 and 42 yards for New England.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (second round)

January 16, 1983 — Miami, FL

The Dolphins choked off the famed Charger offense and won 34-13. The Dolphin defense stopped the San Diego offense, holding it to a total of 247 yards – 203 yards below its league-leading average - while holding the Chargers scoreless in the second half. Dolphin defenders intercepted QB Dan Fouts five times, sacked him three times and held the Chargers to 15 completions for 191 yards – their lowest output since a January, 1982, playoff game in the ice at Cincinnati. The Dolphin offense kept Fouts and Company on the sideline by utilizing ball control that produced 80 plays to San Diego's 54 and an overwhelming time of possession advantage; the Dolphins had the ball for 40:46 to the Chargers' 19:14. Dolphin QB David Woodley guided his team to a 214-yard ground attack while connecting on 17-22 passes for 195 yards and two TDs. Woodley opened the scoring with a three-yard pass to Nat Moore in the first quarter and made it 14-0 by directing Miami 89 yards on 13 plays. Charger kickoff returner Hank Bauer fumbled a kickoff which was recovered by Uwe von Schamann at the Charger 23-yard line. Seven plays later, Woodley hit tight end Ronnie Lee on a six-yard look-in pass for the score. On the next kickoff, Dolphin rookie Rich Diana recovered a fumble by the Chargers' James Brooks, but this time Miami had to settle for a 29-yard von Schamann field goal. The Chargers scored two late TDs, one on a 28-yard pass from Fouts to Charlie Joiner and the other on Chuck Muncie's one-yard dive that ended the San Diego scoring. Von Schamann added a second field goal shortly before the end of the first half and Woodley scored on a seven-yard QB draw early in the fourth quarter.

1982 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 14, N.Y. JETS 0 — Orange Bowl
January 23, 1983 — Miami, FL

For the third time in as many games in 1982, the Miami Dolphins defeated the New York Jets, this time on a rainy, mud-soaked Orange Bowl field. The Dolphins set an AFC Championship Game record by holding the Jets to 139 total yards. A.J. Duhe set an AFC playoff record with three interceptions, including one he returned for a 35-yard TD. The Dolphins set an NFL record by being the first team to have defeated the same team three times in a season – two times during the regular season and once in a playoff game. On nine occasions since the AFL-NFL merger, teams had met three times in a season – but no team had won all three games. Before a crowd of 67,396, the Dolphins' Woody Bennett rumbled seven yards up the middle to score the only points the Dolphins would need. That came in the third quarter after the teams had trudged through a scoreless first half on the soggy Prescription Athletic Turf.

SUPER BOWL XVII

WASHINGTON 27, MIAMI 17 — Rose Bowl
January 30, 1983 — Pasadena, CA

The Washington Redskins, behind the power running of John Riggins, came from behind to win Super Bowl XVII in the famed Rose Bowl, beating Miami 27-17. Before the second-largest crowd for a Super Bowl – 103,667 fans – the Redskins took the lead for the first time with a little more than 10 minutes left on the clock. The game was marked by a Super Bowl record performance by Fulton Walker, who returned four kickoffs 190 yards, including a 98-yard TD that gave Miami a 17-10 halftime lead. It was the first kickoff returned for a TD in Super Bowl history and the longest kickoff return in playoff history. Riggins ran up 166 yards on 38 carries, both Super Bowl records. On a short-yardage play – fourth-and-one from the Redskin 43 with 10:01 to play – Riggins broke a tackle and scored on a 43-yard run. Riggins accounted for 181 total yards, five more yards than the entire Miami offense could manage in the game. In the first quarter, Miami jumped to a quick lead with a 76-yard David Woodley to Jimmy Cefalo pass for a TD.

1983 AFC PLAYOFF

SEATTLE 27, MIAMI 20 — Orange Bowl
December 31, 1983 — Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins saw their season end on a sour note as they lost a 27-20 decision to the Seattle Seahawks in the first round of the AFC playoffs. Before 71,032 fans in the Orange Bowl, Dolphin rookie quarterback Dan Marino returned from his December 4 knee injury. On their second possession, the Dolphins launched a 12-play, 80-yard drive ending with a 19-yard TD pass from Marino to tight end Dan Johnson (PAT missed). A 59-yard return by Zachary Dixon on the ensuing kickoff led to a six-yard scoring toss from Seattle's Dave Krieg to Cullen Bryant with the extra point, giving the Seahawks a one point lead. Miami immediately retaliated, using a 17-yard Marino to Mark Duper hook-up to pave the way for a 32-yard circus catch by Duper for the touchdown. Early in the third quarter, a David Overstreet fumble in Seattle territory set the Seahawks up for a 55-yard TD march featuring a 28-yard completion from Krieg to Paul Johns, and culminating in a one-yard run by Curt Warner. Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter gave Seattle a 17-13 lead. The Dolphins managed to regain the lead at 20-17 following a Gerald Small interception (18-yard return) and Woody Bennett's two-yard run with only 3:43 remaining. However, the lead was shortlived as the Seahawks came right back to score on Warner's short run following a pair of Krieg to Steve Largent completions for a total of 56 yards. Miami s Fulton Walker then fumbled the Seattle kickoff, thus leading to a 37-yard Johnson field goal. Another Walker kickoff fumble iced the game for the Seahawks, who were participating in the playoffs for the first time in their eight-year history.

1984 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 31, SEATTLE 10 — Orange Bowl
December 29, 1984 — Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins led by quarterback Dan Marino's three touchdown passes and a defense that shut out the opposition in three of four quarters, defeated the Seattle Seahawks 31-10 before 73,469 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins moved in front on their second possession and stayed there. Running back Tony Nathan keyed the 68-yard drive by gaining 38 yards on four carries, including the touchdown on a 14-yard run. A 26-yard Marino to Mark Clayton completion was the long play of the scoring march. A 32-yard interception return by Seattle's John Harris and a 25-yard pass from Dave Krieg to Steve Largent paved the way for Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal that cut Miami's lead to 7-3. The Dolphins, however, came right back to score on their next series as a 20-yard reception by Woody Bennett preceded Marino's 34-yard scoring hook-up with Jimmy Cefalo. The Seahawks made it 14-10 at halftime when Largent scored on a 56-yard catch-and-run play. After Miami's defense had stopped Seattle on the Dolphin 24-yard line to open the second half, the Dolphins embarked on a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive that included a Bruce Hardy touchdown catch from three yards out. After the Seahawks' Jeff West managed just a seven-yard punt, Clayton made an acrobatic catch on a tipped ball in the end zone for a 33-yard TD. Miami closed out the scoring on Uwe von Schamann's 37-yard field goal in a drive that featured a 32-yard Marino to Hardy pass.

1984 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 45, PITTSBURGH 28 — Orange Bowl
January 6, 1985 — Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins, led by Dan Marino's 421 yards passing (four touchdowns) and Mark Duper's 148 yards receiving, advanced to Super Bowl XIX by defeating the Pittsburgh Steelers 45-28 in the AFC Championship Game before 76,029 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins scored on their first offensive series as they moved 67 yards in four plays following a William Judson interception, with the TD coming on a 40-yard pass from Marino to Mark Clayton. Pittsburgh's first score came on Rich Erenberg's seven-yard run that had been set up by Walter Abercrombie's 38 yards gained in the 66-yard march. A 26-yard Uwe von Schamann field goal preceded a 65-yard toss from the Steelers' Mark Malone to John Stallworth that gave Pittsburgh a 14-10 lead. The Dolphins then scored two TDs in the final 2:52 of the first half, the first score coming on a 41-yard reception by Duper. After Lyle Blackwood's interception, Marino hit TE Joe Rose for a 28-yard gain before Tony Nathan gave the Dolphins a 24-14 lead on a two-yard run. Miami then scored on its first three second-half possessions, leading off with Marino's 36-yard scoring strike to Duper. The Steelers closed the gap to 31-21 on Malone's 19-yarder to Stallworth (33-yarder to Louis Lipps in drive). Completions to Duper (41 yards), Nathan (20 yards) and Nat Moore (28 yards) then led to a one-yard TD dive by Woody Bennett. Moore then caught a six-yard touchdown pass before Wayne Capers closed out the scoring with a 29-yard TD reception.

SUPER BOWL XIX

SAN FRANCISCO 38, MIAMI 16 — Stanford Stadium
January 20, 1985 — Palo Alto, CA

The Miami Dolphins, unable to score in the game's final two quarters, dropped a 38-16 decision to the San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl XIX before 84,059 fans in Stanford Stadium. The Dolphins were outgained in the contest by a 537-314 margin with the 49ers maintaining possession for 37:11. Miami opened the scoring on its first possession as Uwe von Schamann converted a 37-yard field goal (key play – Dan Marino's 25-yard completion to Tony Nathan). San Francisco jumped ahead 7-3 when QB Joe Montana led the Niners on an eight-play, 78-yard drive that culminated in a 33-yard TD toss to Carl Monroe. The Dolphins scored their only touchdown of the game on their next series as two Marino completions to Mark Clayton (18, 13 yards) and a 21-yarder to Dan Johnson paved the way for Johnson's two-yard scoring catch. Touchdown runs of eight and two yards by Roger Craig and Montana's six-yard scamper gave San Francisco a 28-10 lead. Von Schamann then connected on field goals of 31 and 30 yards in the final 12 seconds of the first half to close the Dolphin deficit to 28-16. The 49ers upped their lead on their initial second-half possession on Ray Wersching's 27-yard field goal, before closing out the scoring on Craig's 16-yard scoring reception (key play – 40-yard Montana to Wendell Tyler pass play).

1985 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 24, CLEVELAND 21 — Orange Bowl
January 4, 1986 — Miami, FL

Most people had not given them much of a chance to win, but the 8-8 Cleveland Browns nearly upset the 12-4 Dolphins in the Orange Bowl. It would take two Ron Davenport touchdowns in the final 17 minutes to send Miami to a 24-21 victory and the AFC Championship Game against New England the following week. Fuad Reveiz put the Dolphins on the board early with a 51-yard field goal on Miami's first drive of the game. But Cleveland came back to score 21 unanswered points, and held a 21-3 advantage midway through the third quarter. Cleveland rookie quarterback Bernie Kosar, who had played two college seasons in the Orange Bowl for the University of Miami, hit Ozzie Newsome with a 16-yard touchdown pass for the Browns first points of the day. Earnest Byner (16-161) ran in from 21 yards out just before the half, and then he broke a 66-yard touchdown jaunt 3:38 into the second half. Just like that, the improbable began to look possible. Dan Marino connected with Nat Moore for a six-yard touchdown pass just over six minutes later and Miami had closed the margin to 21-10. Then it was time for Davenport (6-48) to show his stuff. First, he hit the hole for a 31-yard touchdown run late in the third period and then he closed the scoring and put Miami up for good, going over from one yard out with just 1:57 remaining in the game.

1985 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

NEW ENGLAND 31, MIAMI 14 — Orange Bowl
January 12, 1986 — Miami, FL

The New England Patriots garnered a bid to their first Super Bowl by snapping an 18-game losing streak to the Dolphins in Miami with a 31-14 triumph at the Orange Bowl. The Patriots' only previous victory in Miami came in the first meeting between the two teams in 1966. New England backs Craig James (22-105) and Robert Weathers (16-87) combined for 192 yards rushing and quarterback Tony Eason was on target with a 10-12 performance for 71 yards as the Pats set up a Super Bowl date with the Chicago Bears. After New England got on the board first with a Tony Franklin 23-yard field goal, the Dolphins stormed back for their only lead of the afternoon when Dan Marino passed 10 yards to Dan Johnson early in the second quarter. Eason brought New England right back with three touchdown tosses, and the Pats led 24-7 after three quarters. Miami's last score of the day came early in the fourth quarter when Tony Nathan grabbed a 10-yard TD pass from Marino. New England fullback Mosi Tatupu ended the game's scoring with a one-yard TD jaunt midway through the fourth quarter.

1990 AFC FIRST ROUND PLAYOFF

January 5, 1991 — Miami, FL

Dan Marino threw two fourth quarter touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a dramatic come-from-behind 17-16 playoff win over the Kansas City Chiefs before a crowd of 67,276 at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the final period, Marino hit on all eight of his pass attempts for 101 yards and two touchdowns. It was the 16th time in his career that Marino has engineered a fourth quarter comeback. Including the third quarter, Marino hit on his last ten pass attempts – third longest in team history – to lead the Dolphins back from a 13-3 deficit to a 17-16 win. The win raised Miami's playoff record to 15-10 (all under Don Shula). Shula's overall playoff record improved to 17-13. Miami increased their record to 11-4 at home in playoff contests. The Chiefs opened the scoring in the first quarter when Charles Washington blocked a Reggie Roby punt and returned the ball to Miami's 37-yard line. However, the Miami's defense stiffened and held the Chiefs to a 27-yard field goal by Nick Lowery. Miami kicker Pete Stoyanovich tied the score at 3-3 in the second period by booting an NFL playoff record 58-yard field goal.

Stoyanovich's kick broke the previous record of 54 yards by Detroit's Eddie Murray on December 24, 1983, against San Francisco and it was the second-longest kick of Stoyanovich's career. The Chiefs took a 10-3 halftime lead by scoring on a 26-yard touchdown strike from Steve DeBerg to Stephone Paige. The Chiefs extended their lead to 16-3 on a pair of third quarter field goals by Lowery from 25 and 38 yards. In the fourth quarter, the Dolphins closed the score to 16-10 as Marino hit fullback Tony Paige with a one-yard touchdown pass. The key play in the drive was a two-yard run by Sammie Smith on a fourth-and-two from Kansas City's 45-yard line. The Dolphins forced the Chiefs to punt on their next possession and received the ball on their own 15-yard line with 10:39 left in the game. The Dolphins converted three third downs and drove to the Chiefs' 12-yard line with 3:28 left in the contest before Marino hit Mark Clayton with a 12-yard touchdown pass to give Miami a 17-16 lead. However, the Chiefs had a chance to win the game as they drove from their own 22-yard line to the Dolphin 34 before Lowery's 52-yard field goal attempt was just short.

1990 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

BUFFALO 44, DOLPHINS 34 — Rich Stadium
January 12, 1991 — Orchard Park, NY

The Miami Dolphins saw the 1990 season come to an end with a 44-34 loss to the Buffalo Bills in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest in the snow and ice at Rich Stadium. The game was an offensive shootout as the teams combined for 78 points, 48 first downs, 923 total net yards, 662 passing yards, 261 rushing yards, nine touchdowns and five field goals. Individually, Dan Marino (23 of 49 for 323 yards with three TDs and two INTs) and Jim Kelly (19-29-339-3-1) both passed for over 300 yards. Kelly became the only quarterback to throw for over 300 yards against the Dolphin defense in 1990. Mark Duper (three catches for 113 yards and a score) and Buffalo's Andre Reed (4-122-2) and James Lofton (7-149-1) all went over the 100-yard receiving mark. On the ground, the Bills' Thurman Thomas (32 carries for 117 yards and two TDs) and Miami's Sammie Smith (21-99) led the way. Buffalo dominated the first quarter and jumped out to a 13-3 lead. The Bills scored on their first possession as Kelly hit Reed with a 40-yard touchdown strike and the Dolphins answered the score with a 49-yard field goal to close the score to 7-3. Buffalo added a pair of Scott Norwood field goals – from 24 and 22 yards – to close the first quarter scoring. The Bills struck first in the second quarter on a five-yard run by Thomas to lead 20-3. Miami answered the score on its next possession as Marino and Duper combined for a 64-yard touchdown. The Bills came right back and scored as Kelly threw 13 yards for a score to Lofton to take a 27-10 lead. On their next possession Miami was forced to punt, however the Bills' Al Edwards fumbled the punt and Reggie Roby recovered for Miami on Buffalo's 47-yard line. Miami drove down to the two-yard line where Marino ran in for the score to narrow Buffalo's lead to 27-17 at the half. The Dolphins and Buffalo exchanged third quarter field goals as Stoyanovich hit from 22 yards and Norwood connected from 28 yards. Miami closed the score to 30-27 early in the fourth quarter as Marino threw a two-yard touchdown pass to offensive guard Roy Foster. It was the first reception and touchdown of Foster's career as he became the first offensive or defensive lineman to score an offensive touchdown in a post-season contest since Chicago Bears' defensive tackle William Perry rumbled in from a yard out in Super Bowl XX on January 26, 1986. However, the Bills struck back for 14 quick points to put the game away. First, Thomas scored his second TD of the game on a five-yard run. On the ensuing kickoff, Miami returner Marc Logan fumbled the ball and Norwood recovered for Buffalo on the Dolphins' 29-yard line. Two plays later, Kelly and Reed combined for a 26-yard scoring toss and a 44-27 lead. The Dolphins scored the final touchdown of the game with just 1:15 remaining as Marino hit Tony Martin with an eight-yard TD pass.

1992 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 31, SAN DIEGO 0 — Joe Robbie Stadium
January 10, 1993 — Miami, FL

Miami cornerback Troy Vincent recorded a pair of interceptions and quarterback Dan Marino threw three touchdown passes to lead the Miami Dolphins to a 31-0 win over the San Diego Chargers in the AFC Divisional Playoffs before a crowd of 71,224 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami's 31-point margin of victory was the largest by the team in a playoff game. The previous largest margin of victory in the post-season by the Dolphins was three 21-point wins as Miami had a 21-0 win over the Baltimore Colts on January 2, 1972 in the Orange Bowl, a 34-13 win over the San Diego Chargers on January 16, 1983 in the Orange Bowl and a 31-10 win over the Seattle Seahawks on December 29, 1984 in the Orange Bowl. Overall, the Miami defense totaled four interceptions (also safety Louis Oliver and linebacker Bryan Cox), a forced fumble (by cornerback Stephen Braggs), a fumble recovery (by linebacker Dwight Hollier) and a sack (by defensive end Jeff Hunter). The Dolphins held the Chargers to just ten first downs (three rushing and seven passing), 202 yards of total offense (70 rushing and 132 passing) and three of 15 on third down conversions. The Chargers' 15 possessions ended in seven punts, four interceptions, twice on downs, once on a lost fumble and once at the end of the first half. Following a scoreless first quarter, the Dolphins exploded for 21 points in the second quarter to take a 21-0 lead at the half. Miami's 21 points in the second quarter was the most scored by the Dolphins in any quarter of a playoff game in team history. The previous team high for points in a quarter was 20 points which was scored by Miami in the second quarter against San Diego on January 6, 1983. Miami opened the scoring following a Vincent interception which gave the team possession on San Diego's 48-yard line. Marino led the Dolphins on a nine-play, 48-yard drive which was capped-off as Marino tossed a one-yard scoring pass to fullback Tony Paige. The Dolphins increased their lead to 14-0 later in the period as the team again gained possession of the ball following a Vincent interception and drove 37 yards and scored on a nine-yard connection from Marino to tight end Keith Jackson. Miami scored the final points of the first half as Marino again connected with Jackson and the tight end made a diving 30-yard reception in the endzone for the score. Jackson became just the fourth player in team history to record two touchdown receptions for the Dolphins in a playoff contest. Miami and San Diego played to a scoreless third quarter before the Dolphins scored the game's final ten points in the fourth quarter. Miami increased its lead to 24-0 early in the final stanza as kicker Pete Stoyanovich booted a 22-yard field goal. The Dolphins scored the final points of the game as running back Aaron Craver scored on a 25-yard run to increase the margin to 31-0.

1992 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

BUFFALO 29, DOLPHINS 10 — Joe Robbie Stadium
January 17, 1993 — Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins suffered five turnovers (two interceptions and three fumbles) as the team dropped a 29-10 decision to the Buffalo Bills in the AFC Championship Game before a crowd of 72,703 at Joe Robbie Stadium. The attendance of 72,703 marked the largest crowd to witness a Dolphin game at JRS. The old record was 71,224 which was set the previous week on January 10 to witness the Dolphins' 31-0 win over San Diego in an AFC Divisional Playoff. Buffalo opened the scoring midway through the opening period as defensive end

Bruce Smith sacked Miami quarterback Dan Marino and forced a fumble which was recovered by Bills linebacker Darryl Talley on the Dolphins' 47-yard line. Buffalo scored off the takeaway as Steve Christie converted on a 21-yard field goal. Miami tied the score at 3-3 later in the period as Pete Stoyanovich converted on a 51-yard field goal attempt. The Bills took a 10-3 lead early in the second period as quarterback Jim Kelly threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to running back Thurman Thomas. On Miami's next possession, Marino's pass attempted was batted in the air by Buffalo defensive end Phil Hansen and intercepted by Hansen on the Dolphins' 17-yard line. The Bills increased their lead to 13-3 as Christie kicked on a 33-yard field goal. Buffalo took a 20-3 early in the third quarter by capitalizing on another Miami turnover as kick returner Mike Williams fumbled the second half kickoff and Buffalo's Carwell Gardner recovered the ball on the Dolphins' 25-yard line. The Bills scored four plays later as running back Kenneth Davis ran into the endzone for a two-yard touchdown. Buffalo increased its lead to 26-3 as Christie hit on a pair of field goals from 21 and 31 yards. Miami closed the score to 26-10 as Marino connected with wide receiver Mark Duper on a 15-yard touchdown pass. With the TD pass, Marino extended his streak to ten consecutive playoff games with one or more touchdown passes which is tied with the Raiders' Ken Stabler (1973-77) for the NFL's all-time record for consecutive post-season games with a touchdown pass. In addition, Duper's touchdown reception was his fifth post-season touchdown catch and broke the team's playoff record for career touchdown receptions. Duper was tied with wide receiver Paul Warfield (four TDs on 34 career playoff catches) and tight end Bruce Hardy (four TDs on 26 catches). Buffalo closed the scoring later in the period as Christie converted his fifth field goal of the game with a 38-yarder.

1994 FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF GAME

December 31, 1994 — Miami, FL

Dan Marino threw a pair of touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a 27-17 win in a First-Round playoff contest against the Kansas City Chiefs before a crowd of 69,757 at Joe Robbie Stadium. The game was billed as Marino-Montana III and the duel between the two future Hall of Famers lived up to the pregame hype. Marino completed 22 of 29 passes for 257 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions and Montana countered by hitting on 26 of 37 passes for 314 yards with two scores and an interception. The first half was an offensive shootout which was tied at 17-17 with neither team being forced to punt. Kansas City opened the scoring as Montana tossed a one-yard touchdown pass to tight end Derrick Walker. Miami answered the score on its first possession as Bernie Parmalee scored on a one-yard run. The Chiefs came right back to close the first quarter scoring at 14-7 as Montana threw a short pass to fullback Kimble Anders who turned the play into a 57-yard catch and run for the touchdown. Miami cut the score to 14-10 early in the second quarter as Pete Stoyanovich booted a 40-yard field goal. Kansas City upped their lead to 17-10 later in the quarter as Lin Elliot booted a 21-yard field goal. The Dolphins closed the first half scoring as Marino tossed a one-yard touchdown pass to tight end Ronnie Williams. The scoring pass set an NFL record as it marked Marino's 11th consecutive post-season game with a touchdown toss. He moved past a tie with Montana (San Francisco/Kansas City) and Ken Stabler (Oakland) for the longest all-time streak of playoff games with a touchdown pass in NFL history. The Dolphins dominated the second half and outscored the Chiefs by a 10-0 margin. Miami took their first lead of the ballgame at 24-17 on the first drive of the third quarter as Marino and Irving Fryar connected on a seven-yard touchdown pass. Miami increased its lead to 27-17 on a 40-yard field goal late in the third period. The Dolphins forced a pair of turnovers by the Chiefs in Miami territory to preserve the win. First, cornerback J.B. Brown intercepted a Montana aerial on the goal line to stop a drive and then safety Michael Stewart forced and recovered a fumble by Marcus Allen on the Dolphins' 34-yard line.

1994 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

SAN DIEGO 22, DOLPHINS 21 — Jack Murphy Stadium
January 9, 1995 — San Diego, CA

Natrone Means rushed for 139 yards and a touchdown to lead the Chargers to a 22-21 win over the Miami Dolphins in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest before a crowd of 63,381 at Jack Murphy Stadium. San Diego had the first scoring threat of the game as they drove down to Miami's 26-yard line, but Miami's Marco Coleman forced a fumble by Means to stop the drive. Following the takeaway, the Dolphins opened the scoring as Dan Marino capped a nine-play, 79-yard drive with an eight-yard scoring pass to tight end Keith Jackson. The Chargers closed the score to 7-3 on their next possession as John Carney booted a 20-yard field goal. Prior to the field goal attempt, San Diego had a first-and-goal from the Dolphins' six-yard line but the Miami defense stiffened and held the Chargers out of the endzone. The Dolphins increased their lead to 14-3 on their next possession as Marino and Jackson connected again in the endzone for a nine-yard touchdown pass. Jackson's two touchdown receptions in the contest tied Miami's all-time single-game playoff record, which was accomplished five previous times. San Diego answered the touchdown with another field goal as Carney connected on a 21-yard effort. Once again, San Diego had a first-and-goal on Miami's six-yard line and the Dolphin defense limited the Chargers to a field goal. Miami closed the first half scoring as Marino threw a 16-yard touchdown pass to Mike Williams with just 27 seconds left in the first half to take a 21-6 lead. San Diego opened the third quarter with a long drive which was halted when Means was held for no gain on a fourth-and-one play from Miami's one-yard line and the Dolphins took possession of the ball. However, on Miami's first play following the goal line stand, Dolphins running back Bernie Parmalee was tackled in the endzone for a safety to bring the score to 21-8. Following a free kick by Miami's John Kidd, the Chargers got the ball on their own 46-yard line and drove for a 24-yard touchdown run by Means to cut the score to 21-15. Miami had the ball for just one play — the safety by Parmalee – in the entire third quarter. San Diego took a 22-21 lead with just 35 seconds left in regulation as Stan Humphries threw an eight-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Mark Seay. The Dolphins had one final chance to win the game as Marino drove the team down to the Chargers' 30-yard line but Pete Stoyanovich's 48-yard field goal attempt with just eight seconds remaining was wide right.

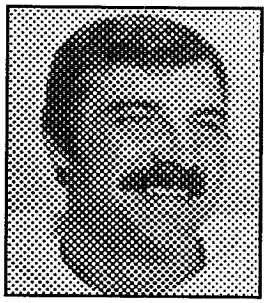
DOLPHINS HALL OF FAME

LARRY CSONKA



#39

Fullback
Born: 12/25/46
College: Syracuse '68
NFL: 1968-74, 1976-79
Dolphins: 1968-74, 1979
Year Inducted: 1987

Csonka ranks as the Dolphins' all-time leading rusher with 1,506 carries for 6,737 yards (4.5 average) and 53 TDs. A five-time Pro Bowl selection, he put together three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons (1971-73) as Miami advanced to the Super Bowl each year. Csonka shined in those three Super Bowls, averaging 6.3 yards a carry and going over 100 yards rushing in two of them. Originally drafted in the first round out of Syracuse in 1968, he was named the MVP of Super Bowl VIII after carrying 33 times for 145 yards and two touchdowns as the Dolphins steamrolled the Minnesota Vikings, 24-7, for their second straight NFL title. Called a "modern-day Bronko Nagurski" by Dolphin coach Don Shula, "Zonk" also played three seasons with the N.Y. Giants (1976-78) and one year with the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League (1975). His career rushing totals in the NFL, which place him 17th on the league's all-time rushing list, are: 1,891 carries for 8,081 yards (4.3 average) and 64 TDs. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his second year of eligibility. In 1990, he also was voted the fullback on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team and was named as a running back on the Super Bowl Silver Anniversary all-time team. On Nov. 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Joe Robbie Stadium.

#12

Quarterback
Born: 2/3/45
College: Purdue '67
NFL: 1967-80
Dolphins: 1967-80
Year Inducted: 1990

He was unquestionably the "'thinking man's quarterback." Bob Griese, renowned for his poised leadership and ingenious play-calling, sustained the Dolphin offense with a flair for winning from 1967-80.

The bespectacled quarterback became the 14th passer in the NFL's exclusive 25,000-yard club in 1980. On the same day he reached that milestone, he suffered a shoulder injury which ultimately forced his retirement on June 25, 1981. His No. 12 jersey became the first to be retired May 6, 1982, in ceremonies at the Dolphins' annual awards banquet. In 1990, he was also voted the quarterback on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on Nov. 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Joe Robbie Stadium.

He had a .698 winning percentage (91-39-1) under Coach Don Shula. "Cornerstone of the franchise," Dolphin founder Joe Robbie called him. He was a consensus All-Pro quarterback in 1971 and 1977, made six appearances in the Pro Bowl and was voted the team's Most Valuable Player six times by South Florida media.

Since becoming eligible for induction into the Hall of Fame in 1985, Griese was named as a finalist all five years before being elected to the Hall of Fame in 1990.

"He's probably the most unselfish guy I've ever been around," Shula said. "He got as much of a thrill calling the right running play for a touchdown as he did connecting on a bomb. That's just his makeup."

#62

Center
Born: 5/16/48
College: South Dakota St. '70
NFL: 1970-81
Dolphins: 1970-79
Year Inducted: 1987

Langer was the anchor of the Miami offensive line during the Dolphins' championship years of the 1970s. Coming out of South Dakota State in 1970, he was signed as a free agent by Cleveland but was released on the final cut. Langer was picked up on waivers by the Dolphins and, after spending most of the year on the taxi squad, played in the final five games of 1970, mainly on special teams. After serving as a backup at center the following season, in 1972 he won the starting job, which he would hold until sidelined with a knee injury in 1979. A consensus All-Pro from 1973-77, Langer was a six-time Pro Bowl selection (five times as a starter). He played in a club-high 128 straight games during his career and also had a team-record 109 consecutive starts. Voted the team's Most Valuable Player by South Florida media in 1975, Langer also holds the distinction of having played every offensive down in the Dolphins' perfect 1972 season. Wanting to spend the final years of his career near his Royalton, Minn., home, at his own request Langer was traded to the Minnesota Vikings in 1980, where he played for two seasons (1980-81). He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. In addition, on Nov. 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Joe Robbie Stadium.

LARRY LITTLE

#66

Guard
Born: 11/2/45
College: Bethune-Cookman '67
NFL: 1967-80
Dolphins: 1969-80
Year Inducted: 1993

A rumbling giant in the Dolphin trenches for 12 seasons, Larry Little's very presence in leading a sweep was an intimidating force in a Miami running attack which led the NFL during the 1970s at 2,372 yards per season. Coming out of Bethune-Cookman in 1967, Little entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent with the San Diego Chargers for a $750 bonus. He was traded to the Dolphins on July 2, 1969, in exchange for Miami cornerback Mack Lamb, a former high school teammate. After having started just four games during his two seasons with the Chargers, Little emerged with the Dolphins and played in 158 regular season games with 152 starting assignments. He also started 12 playoff games for Miami and was a key ingredient of the Dolphins' back-to-back Super Bowl championship teams of 1972 and '73. Little earned All-Pro honors six times (1971-75 and 1977) and was a Pro Bowl selection on four occasions (1971-74). He was the first player in league history to be named as AFC Offensive Lineman of the Year three straight seasons (1970-72) by the NFL Players' Association. Little, who anchored the offensive line which helped set a then-NFL record with 2,960 rushing yards during the Dolphins' "perfect season" in 1972, was named by the National 1,000-Yard Club as the league's Outstanding Blocker for the '72 campaign. A native Floridian, Little was the first Dolphin player inducted into the Florida Sports Hall of Fame on March 6, 1978. In 1990, he was voted as a guard on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team. Little was elected into the Hall of Fame in his eighth year of eligibility after having been a finalist on three occasions.

PAUL WARFIELD

#42

Wide Receiver
Born: 11/28/42
College: Ohio State '64
NFL: 1964-74, 1976-77
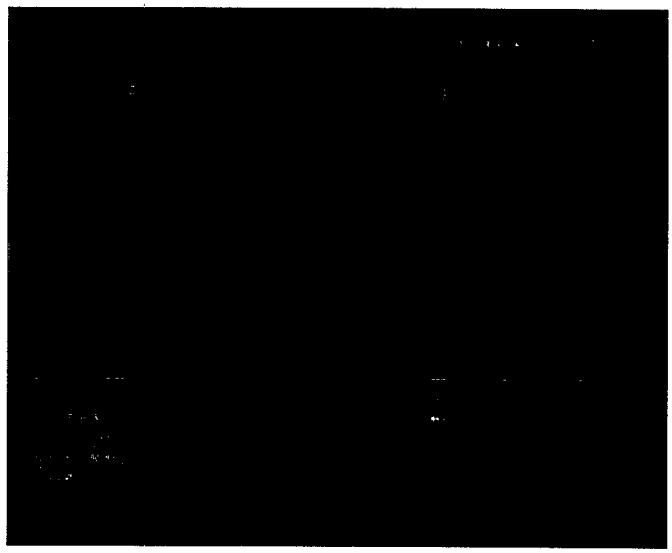
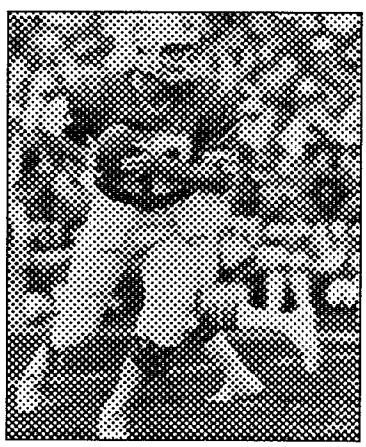
Year Inducted: 1983

Warfield sandwiched two stints with the Cleveland Browns around a five-year career with the Dolphins. After spending his first six seasons in the NFL with the Browns (1964-69), Warfield was acquired by Miami in January of 1970 in exchange for a first-round pick in the upcoming draft. In his five seasons with the Dolphins, Warfield had 156 receptions for 3,355 yards (21.5 average) and 33 TDs – good enough to place him eleventh on the team's all-time receiving list. A member of both the '72 and '73 Super Bowl championship teams, he was selected to play in the Pro Bowl all five years he was with the Dolphins (once as a starter), in addition to being named to the AFC squad twice with the Browns. Warfield, the only Dolphin in the team's history to score four touchdowns in one game, also played one season with the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League (1975) before finishing his career with Cleveland (1976-77). His career receiving totals in the NFL are: 427 receptions for 8,565 yards (20.1 average) and 85 TDs, and his 85 touchdown catches is tied for the fifth highest career total in NFL history. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. In 1990, he also was voted as a wide receiver on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on Nov. 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Joe Robbie Stadium.



RETIRED JERSEY #12



Bob Griese's No. 12 jersey became the first Dolphin number to be retired on May 6, 1982, in ceremonies at the Dolphins' annual awards banquet. Heading into the 1992 season, his No. 12 is the only Dolphin number to be honored in that fashion.

No other player in the history of the Dolphins, either before or after Griese, wore No. 12 in regular season play.

Griese was further recognized when he was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1990.

- Miami set an NFL record with 20 consecutive wins over Buffalo from 1970-79.
- Starting with the 1987 season, the Bills have won 15 of the last 18 games (including playoffs) played between the two teams. Miami's only wins against Buffalo since 1987 are a 30-7 triumph on September 16, 1990, at Joe Robbie Stadium, a 37-10 win on October 4, 1992, at Rich Stadium and a 26-13 win on September 26, 1993, at Rich Stadium.
- During the 1992 and 1993 seasons, Miami posted wins at the Bills in consecutive seasons for the first time since a five-year streak from 1982-86. The Dolphins wins in 1992 and '93 snapped a six-game losing streak to the Bills at Rich Stadium. Prior to 1992, the Dolphins' last triumph in Buffalo was a 34-24 win on November 16, 1986.

- Miami has won the last seven games played between the two teams and holds an 11-3 advantage in the all-time series against the Bengals (10-3 in the regular season and 1-0 in the playoffs). In games played in Cincinnati, the Dolphins own a 5-2 record.
- The Miami-Cincinnati game will follow the Dolphins' bye week. Miami owns a 6-0 record in games following a bye weekend. In 1990, Miami followed a bye with a 17-10 win over New England. In 1991, the Dolphins came back from an off weekend with a 10-6 win at Indianapolis. In 1992, followed the bye with a 27-23 win at Cleveland. In 1993, the Dolphins and the rest of the NFL had two bye weekends posted a 22-13 win at Buffalo after the first bye week and earned a 41-27 win over Indianapolis after the second bye. In 1994, the Dolphins returned from the off-week with a 23-3 win at New England.
- This year's game between Miami and Cincinnati will mark the second time in the history of the four major American professional sports (football, baseball, hockey and basketball) that a father and son will battle as head coaches as Don Shula and the Dolphins will take on his son, Head Coach David Shula, and the Bengals. The elder Shula and the Dolphins earned a 23-7 win over the Cincinnati Bengals on October 2, 1994, at Riverfront Stadium in a contest nationally dubbed as "the Shula Bowl".

- The Dolphins have won 27 of the last 33 meetings between the two teams. Miami had defeated the Colts 14 straight times between 1980-87, before Indianapolis defeated the Dolphins 40-21 on Nov. 5, 1987, at Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami is 16-6 against the Colts since the team moved to Indianapolis in 1984.
- Dan Marino has faced the Colts 23 times in his career and owns a 17-6 record against the team. Marino has a better touchdown to interception differential with a +26 (38 TDs to 12 INTs) against the Colts than against any other single opponent.
- The Dolphin defense recorded a 28-0 shutout win over the Colts at the Hoosier Dome on November 1, 1992. Miami's shutout was the first by the team since October 11, 1987, when the Dolphins posted a 42-0 win over the Kansas City Chiefs in a replacement contest at Joe Robbie Stadium. In addition, it was the first Dolphin shutout in a non-replacement game since December 22, 1985, in a 28-0 win over the Buffalo Bills in the Orange Bowl and the first road shutout since September 4, 1983, in a 12-0 win at the Buffalo Bills in Rich Stadium.

- Kansas City leads in the all-time regular season series against the Dolphins by a 10-8 margin, however Miami leads in the all-time playoff series by a 3-0 count.
- The Dolphins were 0-6 against the Chiefs before Don Shula arrived as Miami's head coach in 1970. Since that time, the Dolphins have posted a 11-4 record against Kansas City (8-4 in regular season and 3-0 in the playoffs).

- This game marks just the second time that the Dolphins and Chiefs will battle in prime-time. The only other prime-time contest betwen the two teams was on December 12, 1994, as Miami pulled out a 45-28 win on Monday Monday Night Football.

- The Dolphins lead the all-time series over the Patriots by a 36-22 count. Miami has swept the season series over the Patriots in five of the last six years and have won 11 times in the last 12 games played between the two teams.
- Miami won nine straight games over the Pats by sweeping the season series from 1989-92 and also earning a 17-13 win over New England on November 21, 1993, before the Patriots ended the streak by posting a 33-27 overtime win on January 2, 1994, at Foxboro Stadium. Prior to Miami's nine-game win streak over New England, the Dolphins' previous high for consecutive wins over New England was a four-game win streak from 1972-73. The Dolphins' nine consecutive wins over the Pats countered a stretch in the series in which New England had won six consecutive regular season games from 1986-88.
- Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino, who missed both of Miami's regular season games against New England in 1993, has earned wins in each of his last ten games against the Patriots. In that ten-game span, Marino has thrown 20 touchdowns against the Patriots.

- In regular season action, Dan Marino has thrown for more career touchdown passes (55) and yards (6,372) against the Jets than any other single opponent. In addition, his career single-game highs for pass attempts (60 on 10/23/88), yards passing (521 on 10/23/88), touchdown passes (six on 9/21/86) and interceptions (five on 10/23/88) all came against the Jets.
- The Dolphins were 0-8 against the Jets before Don Shula arrived as Miami's head coach in 1970. Since that time, the Dolphins have posted a 29-20-1 record against New York in regular season.
- Miami will open the season with a home game for just the second time since 1975 and only the eighth time in the 30-year history of the Dolphins (others were in 1966-68, 1973, 1975, 1990 and 1994). Miami was scheduled to open the season at home during the 1992 season but the game was postponed due to effects of Hurricane Andrew on the South Florida area. Overall, the Dolphins own a 14-14-1 record on opening day, including a 3-4 mark in season openers played in Miami. In addition, the Dolphins own a 22-6-1 record in home openers, including an 21-4 mark since Don Shula joined Miami in 1970.

- Miami leads the all-time preseason series against the Redskins by a 6-4 margin. The Dolphins have won all four games played in Miami (1971 by a 27-10 score, 1977 by a 27-15 score, 1982 by a 24-7 margin and 1993 by a 19-10 score) and the Redskins lead the preseason series in games played in Washington by a 2-1 count (winning in 1972 by 27-24 and 1989 by 35-21 and losing in 1983 by 38-7). The two teams have battled on a neutral playing field in the preseason on three occasions and the teams have split in those games. In 1970, the two teams met in Tampa Bay, Fla., with Washington coming away a 26-21 winner. In 1992, the teams battled in Orlando, Fla., and Miami earned a 22-21 triumph.
- The Dolphins have won their last two preseason contests played against the Redskins.

DOLPHINS ON THE AIR

WIOD

In 1995, the Miami Dolphins' radio network will consist of over 25 radio stations (over 70 markets) with Miami's WIOD (610 AM) again serving as the flagship station. WIOD has been the originator of Dolphin broadcasts since the team's 1966 inception.

Known for its outstanding sports programming, WIOD's Dolphin coverage is among the most comprehensive in the NFL, including camp reports before the season begins, daily Dolphin updates, the weekly Don Shula Show along with "Sportstalk 610: Dolphin Edition," and over eight hours of game-day coverage beginning four hours before each kickoff.

Handling the play-by-play and entering his second season as "The Voice of the Dolphins" is Bill Zimpfer. Zimpfer joined the Dolphin broadcast crew following a six-year stint (1988-93) as the football play-by-play radio voice of Penn State University. He also served as play-by-play announcer on television for selected men's and women's basketball games. Zimpfer served as a sports anchor and talk show host on WIP Radio in Philadelphia, hosting "NFL Sunday" during the football season.

Joining Zimpfer in the booth will be analyst and ex-Dolphin favorite Jim Mandich, who also will host the weekly Don Shula Show heard Friday nights on WIOD. Mandich, in his third year as the color commentator on WIOD's game broadcasts, was a member of the Dolphins' 1972 club that was the NFL's only undefeated team. In his eight seasons as a Dolphin tight end (1970-77), Mandich caught 121 passes for 1,406 yards (11.6 yards per catch) with 23 touchdowns and ranks 17th in Dolphin team history in receiving and tied for 16th in club annals in scoring with 138 points.

WCMQ

On May 19, 1995, the Miami Dolphins signed a two-year agreement with WCMQ Radio (1210 AM) to be the Spanish radio outlet for all Dolphin games, home and away, including pre-season, regular season, and post-season contests.

WCMQ Radio has a strong sports presence in South Florida, carrying the Spanish broadcast of all Florida Marlin baseball games, as well as all home games of the NHL's Florida Panthers. In the event of a schedule conflict between the Dolphins and the Marlins, the Dolphin game will be carried on WCMQ-FM (92.3). In addition, all Dolphin games also will be simulcast on WZMQ (103.9 FM) radio in Key Largo.

Rene Giraldo, who has been part of the Spanish broadcasts of Dolphin games for all 14 years, will handle the play-by-play for his 11th straight year after previously serving as a color analyst. He will be joined by color analyst Roly Martin, also a long-time member of the Dolphins' Spanish broadcast team.

SUNSHINE NETWORK

"Miami Dolphins Monday Night Magazine", the live weekly magazine program of the Miami Dolphins that is produced and distributed in association with Sunshine Network, enters its sixth season in 1995.

The one-hour show is broadcast live in prime time at 7:00 PM every Monday night during the football season to Sunshine Network's statewide television audience of 3.8 million cable homes. When it premiered five years ago, it was Florida's first regularly scheduled and locally originated statewide live television sports talk show.

"Miami Dolphins Monday Night Magazine" features current Dolphin players, coaches, and executives as well as prominent print and broadcast personalities and former Dolphin greats in a lively discussion. The program also includes game highlights, behind the scenes team features, a viewer call-in segment, fan features, and a preview of the Dolphins' upcoming game.

Sunshine Network is Florida's largest regional cable network (and the fifth largest in the nation), providing high-quality sports and public affairs programming to 3.8 million homes across the state, including over one million in the greater Miami area.

PRESEASON TELEVISION

All four of the Dolphins preseason games in 1995 will be telecast in Miami on WCIX-TV (Channel 6) [soon to be WFOR-TV (Channel 4)]. In addition, as part of the two-year agreement between WCIX-TV and the Dolphins, the preseason games will also be telecast by WPBF-TV in West Palm Beach.

Miami's two preseason home games against the Jacksonville Jaguars (Friday, August 4) and Washington Redskins (Saturday, August 19) will be shown live at 7:00 PM (EDT) on WCIX-TV and WPBF-TV if they are sold out 72 hours in advance of gametime; otherwise they will be broadcast on a delayed basis. The Dolphins' two preseason road games, at the Atlanta Falcons (Friday, August 11 at 7:30 PM EDT from the Georgia Dome) and versus the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (Friday, August 25 at 8:00 PM from the Citrus Bowl in Orlando) will be televised live back to South Florida on WCIX-TV and WPBF-TV.

This year marks the second year of a two-year co-venture between the Dolphins and WCIX-TV, whereby that station will produce the game action coverage and jointly broadcast the games with WPBF-TV. It also is the 13th consecutive season that WCIX-TV will telecast Dolphin preseason games.

ESPN Sports broadcaster Brad Nessler will handle the play-by-play for the WCIX telecasts for the fourth straight year. He has broadcast a variety of events in his career that included two years at CBS Sports before joining ESPN in September, 1992. Former Dolphin great and Pro Football Hall of Famer Bob Griese, a member of ABC-TV's broadcast team for college football, will be the color analyst for the first three telecasts, while long-time sports personality and football analyst Irv Cross will handle the color commentary for the last broadcast. WCIX-TV sports anchors Steve Shapiro and Joe Zagacki will host the pregame, postgame, and halftime shows during those telecasts. Mac McDonald returns as producer for WCIX-TV.

DATE	OPPONENT	BROADCAST	TIME (EDT)
Fri., Aug. 4	Jacksonville	WCIX-TV*	7:00 PM#
Fri., Aug. 11	at Atlanta	WCIX-TV*	7:30 PM
Sat., Aug. 19	Washington	WCIX-TV*	7:00 PM#
Fri., Aug 25	vs. Tampa Bay @ Orlando	WCIX-TV*	8:00 PM

* Game also will be televised by WPBF-TV in West Palm Beach.
Game will be broadcast live if sold out 72 hours in advance of game time; otherwise it will be telecast on a delayed basis.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS: Media representatives who do not have press credentials for the entire season (but will be working for an accredited media outlet on an immediate deadline) may request them on a single-game basis. Written credential requests must be made at least four working days in advance to: Harvey Greene, Director of Media Relations, Miami Dolphins, 7500 S.W. 30th Street, Davie, FL 33314 (305/452-7010). Reserved credentials can be picked up at the press gate, located outside Gate G of Joe Robbie Stadium, on the day of the game.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Photographers with accredited media outlets on an immediate deadline may request credentials on a single-game basis from the Dolphins' media relations department. Credentials WILL NOT be issued to freelance photographers unless granted special approval by the Dolphins. Field photographers are reminded to remain outside of the bench area.

PRESS BOX: To get to the Joe Robbie Stadium press box, enter at Gate G. Go through two sets of doors and take the exclusive press elevator to the press box. There are two levels: working press (level 2) and TV/radio/coaches booths (level 3). Stairs and the elevator connect both levels. Only credentials issued by the Dolphins or the Professional Football Writers of America will be honored for admittance to Joe Robbie Stadium.

LOCKER ROOMS: Admission to the home and visiting locker rooms is governed by each individual team. Only media representatives with proper credentials, granting locker room access or those stamped with "Locker Room Access," will be admitted. No one will be admitted to the locker rooms prior to the game. Both teams' locker rooms are located on ground level on the west side of the stadium. From the press box, take the elevator to ground level. Out of the elevator follow corridor to the left and go a quarter of the way around the stadium to locker rooms and interview room.

INTERVIEW ROOM: Coach Shula will hold his post-game press conference immediately following the conclusion of the game in the interview room, which is located on the ground level in the west side of the stadium. From the press box, take the elevator to the ground level. Out of the elevator follow corridor to the left and go a quarter way around the stadium. Turn left into corridor before locker room to interview room.

PARKING: Press parking at Joe Robbie Stadium is very limited. All parking requests must be directed to Harvey Greene, Director of Media Relations, (305/452-7010).

TELEPHONES: Any media member desiring to have their own press box telephone line must order it directly from Thania Diaz, Southern Bell Special Services (lines) at (305) 780-2830. Instruments can be ordered from the Dolphins' media relations department, (305/452-7010).

COPY TRANSMISSION: Copy transmission is available at every Dolphin home game. The transmission representative is Tim Lippman, 16541 Blatt Blvd., Apt. 203, Ft. Lauderdale, FL 33326 (305/384-0620).

FIELD ACCESS: Only working newspaper and TV photographers and club/stadium officials are permitted on the field during the game. Press box passes will not be honored for field admittance at any time, except when there are less than six minutes remaining in the game. At that point all non-photographers are required to remain behind the endzone and only (no sideline access) outside the yellow restraining boundry line.

ADVANCING: Generally, the Dolphins request that the opposing team's media relations representative visit training camp on Wednesday to coincide with the weekly media conference call.

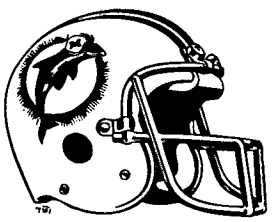
PRACTICE: Regular-season practice sessions usually are held at 4:00 p.m. Mondays, 2:00 p.m. Wednesday through Friday, and at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday (home games). Practices normally are closed to out-of-town media unless special permission is granted by the coaching staff. To request permission, or to arrange any interviews, contact the Dolphins' media relations department. The team locker room is open to the media for 45 minutes (lunchtime) Monday and Wednesday through Friday. The players are off on Tuesdays.

FOR MORE INFO: For more information on the Dolphins, contact the media relations department: Harvey Greene, Director of Media Relations; Mike Hanson, Media Relations Coordinator; and Gayle Baden, Administrative Assistant. Office phone is (305) 452-7010 and (305) 452-7000 -switchboard.

TRAINING CAMP: The Dolphins practice at Nova University during both the preseason and regular season. The campus is located in Davie at 7500 S.W. 30th Street.

DIRECTIONS

FT. LAUDERDALE TO TRAINING CAMP: From the north, take I-95 South to I-595 West. Take I-595 West to University Drive exit. Proceed off exit and turn left onto University Drive (going south). Go past three traffic lights to S.W. 30th Street and turn left. Entrance to facility is 300 yards on right.
MIAMI AIRPORT TO TRAINING CAMP: From the airport, take 836 West to 826 North. Follow 826 North to exit for Florida Turnpike North. Take Turnpike North to I-595 West. Take I-595 West to University Drive exit. Proceed off exit and turn left onto University Drive (going south). Go past three traffic lights to S.W. 30th Street and turn left. Entrance to facility is 300 yards on right.
FROM THE SOUTH TO TRAINING CAMP: From the south, take I-95 North to I-595 West. Take I-595 West to University Drive exit. Proceed off exit and turn left onto University Drive (going south). Go past three traffic lights to S.W. 30th Street and turn left. Entrance to facility is 300 yards on right.
FT. LAUDERDALE TO STADIUM: Take I-595 West to Florida Turnpike South. Take Turnpike South nine miles to Exit 2 (N.W. 199th Street/Honey Hill Road). Proceed off exit to 199th Street and make right. Enter parking Gate 4.
MIAMI AIRPORT TO STADIUM: Take I-95 North to Ives Dairy Road. Proceed west for five miles (name of road changes to 199th Street) and stadium is on right. Enter parking Gate 4.



MEDICAL GLOSSARY

AC Joint – Acromioclavicular joint; joint of the shoulder where acromion process of the scapula and the distal end of the clavicle meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.
Abduct – Movement of any extremity away from the midline of the body. This action is achieved by an abductor muscle.
Abrasion – Any injury which rubs off the surface of the skin.
Abscess – An infection which produces pus; can be the result of a blister, callus, penetrating wound or laceration.
Adduct – Movement of an extremity toward the midline of the body. This action is achieved by an adductor muscle.
Adhesion – Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved.
Aerobic – Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen inspired and is required for sustained periods of vigorous exercise with a continually high pulse rate.
Anabolic Steroids – Steroids that promote tissue growth by creating protein in an attempt to enhance muscle growth. The main anabolic steroid is testosterone (male sex hormone).
Anaerobic – Exercise without use of oxygen as an energy source; short bursts of vigorous exercises.
Anaphylactic Shock – Shock that is caused by an allergic reaction.
Anterior Compartment Syndrome – Condition in which swelling within the anterior compartment of the lower leg jeopardizes the viability of muscles, nerves and arteries that serve the foot. In severe cases, emergency surgery is necessary to relieve the swelling and pressure.
Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL) – A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.
Anterior Talofibular Ligament – A ligament of the ankle that connects the fibula (lateral ankle bone) to the talus. This ligament is oft times subject to sprain.
Anti-Inflammatory – Any agent which prevents inflammation, such as aspirin or ibuprofen.
Anteriogram – A film demonstrating arteries after injection of a dye.
Arthrogram – X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.
Arthroscope – An instrument used to visualize the interior of a joint cavity.
Arthroscopy – A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means for viewing through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.
Aspiration – The withdrawal of fluid from a body cavity by means of a suction or siphonage apparatus, such as a syringe.
Atrophy – To shrivel or shrink from disuse, as in muscular atrophy.
Avascular Necrosis – Death of a part due to lack of circulation.
Avulsion – The tearing away, forcibly, of a part or structure.
Baker's Cyst – Localized swelling of a bursa sac in the posterior knee as a result of fluid that has escaped from the knee capsule. A Baker's cyst indicates that there is a trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive fluid production.
Bone Scan – An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labeled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bony injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a "hot spot" on the scan image. The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures.
Brachial Plexus – Network of nerves originating from the cervical vertebrae and running down to the shoulder, arm, hand, and fingers.
Bruise – A discoloration of the skin due to an extravasation of blood into the underlying tissues.
Bursa – A fluid-filled sac that is located in areas where friction is likely to occur, then minimizes the friction; for example between a tendon and bone.
Capsule – An enclosing structure which surrounds the joint and contains ligaments which stabilize that joint.
Cartilage – Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating.
CAT Scan – Use of a computer to produce a cross sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from X-ray data.
Cellulitis – Inflammation of cellular or connective tissue.
Cervical Vertebrae – Group of seven vertebrae located in the neck.
Charley Horse – A contusion or bruise to any muscle resulting in intramuscular bleeding. No other injury should be called a charley horse.

Colles' Fracture – A fracture of the distal end of the radium with the lower end being displaced backward.
Concentric Muscle Contraction – A shortening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to move a resistance.
Concussion – Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. It can be graded as mild, moderate or severe depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.
Contusion – An injury to a muscle and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.
Cortical Steroids – Used to suppress joint inflammation.
Costochondral – Cartilage that separates the bones within the rib cage.
Cryokinetics – Treatment with cold and movement.
Cryotherapy – A treatment with the use of cold.
Cyst – Abnormal sac containing liquid or semi-solid matter.
Degenerative Joint Disease – Changes in the joint surfaces as a result of repetitive trauma.
Deltoid Ligament – Ligament that connects the tibia to bones of the medial aspect of the foot and is primarily responsible for stability of the ankle on the medial side. Is sprained less frequently than other ankle ligaments.
Deltoid Muscle – Muscles at top of the arm, just below the shoulder, responsible for shoulder motions to the front, side and back.
Disc, Intervertebral – A flat, rounded plate between each vertebrae of the spine. The disc consists of a thick fiber ring which surrounds a soft gel-like interior. It functions as a cushion and shock absorber for the spinal column.
Dislocation – Complete displacement of joint surfaces.
Eccentric Muscle Contraction – An overall lengthening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to control motion performed by an outside force; oft times referred to a "negative" contraction in weight training.
Eccymosis – Bleeding into the surface tissue below the skin, resulting in a "black and blue" effect.
Edema – Accumulation of fluid in organs and tissues of the body; swelling.
Effusion – Accumulation of fluid, in various spaces in the body, or the knee itself. Commonly, the knee has an effusion after an injury.
Electrical Galvanic Stimulation (EGS) – An electrical therapeutic modality that sends a current to the body at select voltages and frequencies in order to stimulate pain receptors, disperse edema, or neutralize muscle spasms among other functional applications.
Electromyogram (EMG) – Test to determine nerve function.
Epicondylitis – Inflammation in the elbow due to overuse.
Ethyl Chloride – "Cold spray," a chemical coolant sprayed onto an injury site to produce a local, mild anesthesia.
Fat Percentage – The amount of body weight that is adipose, fat tissue. Fat percentages can be calculated by underwater weighing, measuring select skinfold thickness, or by analyzing electrical impedance.
Femur – Thigh bone; longest bone in the body.
Fibula – Smaller of the two bones in the lower leg; runs from knee to the ankle along the outside of the lower leg.
Flexibility – The ability of muscle to relax and yield to stretch forces.
Flexibility Exercise – General term used to describe exercise performed by a player to passively or actively elongate soft tissue without the assistance of an athletic trainer.
Fracture – Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress, or transverse.
Gamekeeper's Thumb – Tear of the ulnar collateral ligament of the metacarpophalangeal joint of the thumb.
Glycogen – Form in which foods are stored in the body as energy.
Grade One Injury – A mild injury in which ligament, tendon, or other musculoskeletal tissue may have been stretched or contused, but not torn or otherwise disrupted.
Grade Two Injury – A moderate injury when musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally, torn which causes appreciable limitation in function of the injured tissue.
Grade Three Injury – A severe injury in which tissue has been significantly, and in some cases totally, torn or otherwise disrupted causing a virtual total loss of function.
Hamstring – Category of muscle that runs from the buttocks to the knee along the back of the thigh. It functions to flex the knee, and is oft times injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of muscle flexibility.
Heat Cramps – Painful muscle spasms of the arms or legs caused by excessive body heat and depletion of fluids and electrolytes.
Heat Exhaustion – Mild form of shock due to dehydration because of excessive sweating when exposed to heat and humidity.
Heat Stroke – Condition of rapidly rising internal body temperature that overwhelms the body's mechanisms for release of heat and could result in death if not cared for appropriately.
Heel Cup – Orthotic device that is inserted into the shoe and worn under the heel to give support to the Achilles tendon and help absorb impacts at the heel.

Hematoma – Tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity.
Hot Pack – Chemical pack that rests in water, approximately 160 degrees, and retains its heat for 15-20 minutes when placed in a towel for general therapeutic application.
Humerus – Bone of the upper arm that runs from the shoulder to the elbow.
Hydrotherapy – Treatment using water.
Hyperextension – Extreme extension of a limb or body part.
Illiotibial Band – A thick, wide fascial layer that runs from the iliac crest to the knee joint and is occasionally inflamed as a result of excessive running.
Inflammation – The body's natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, sweating, heat, redness, and/or loss of function.
Internal Rotation – Rotation of a joint or extremity medially, to the inside.
Lesion – Wound, injury or tumor.
Ligament – Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.
Lumbar Vertebrae – Five vertebrae of the lower back that articulate with the sacrum to form the lumbosacral joint.
Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) – Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc, and meniscus injuries.
Meniscectomy – An intra-articular surgical procedure of the knee by which all or part of the damaged meniscus is removed.
Meniscus – Crescent shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as "cartilage." There are two menisci in the knee, medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.
Metacarpals – Five long bones of the hand, running from the wrist to the fingers.
Metatarsals – Five long bones of the foot, running from the ankle to the toes.
Myosistis – Inflammation of a muscle.
Necrotic – Relating to death of a portion of tissue.
Neoprene – Lightweight rubber used in joint and muscle sleeves designed to provide support and/or insulation and heat retention to the area.
Neuritis – Inflammation of a nerve.
Orthotic - Any device applied to or around the body in the care of physical impairment or disability, commonly used to control foot mechanics.
Parasthesia - Sensation of numbness or tingling, indicating nerve irritation.
Patella – The kneecap. The patella functions to protect the distal end of the femur as well as increase the mechanical advantage and force generating capacities of the quadriceps muscle group.
Patella Tendinitis – Inflammation of the patella ligament; also known as "jumpers knee."
Patellofemoral Joint – Articulation of the kneecap and femur. Inflammation of this joint can occur through: 1) acute injury to the patella, 2) overuse from excessive running particularly if there is an associated knee weakness, 3) chronic wear and tear of the knee, 4) as a result of poor foot mechanics. Patellofemoral irritation can lead to chondromalancia, which in its most chronic condition, could require surgery.
Peroneal Muscles – Group of muscles of the lateral lower leg that are responsible for everting the knee. Tendons of these three muscles are vital to the stability of the ankle and foot.
Phalanx – Any bone of the fingers or toes; plural is phalanges.
Phlebitis – Inflammation of a vein.
Plica – Fold of tissue in the joint capsule and a common result of knee injury.
Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL) – A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that provides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee joint. A complete tear of this ligament necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.
Quadricep Muscles "Quads" – A group of four muscles of the front thigh that run from the hip and form a common tendon at the patella; they are responsible for knee extension.
Radiography – Taking of X-rays.
Radius – Forearm bone on the thumb side.
Reconstruction – Surgical rebuilding of a joint using natural, artificial or transplanted materials.
Referred Pain – Pain felt in an undamaged area of body away from the actual injury.
Retraction – The moving of tissue to expose a part or structure of the body.
Rotator Cuff – Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by overuse. The muscles are the supraspinatus (most commonly injured), infra-spinatus, teres minor, and subscapularis.
Rotator Cuff Impingement Syndrome – A microtrauma or overuse injury caused by stress, and the four stages are: 1) Tendentious with temporary thickening of the bursa and rotator cuff; 2) Fiber dissociation in the tendon with permanent thickening of the bursa and scar formation; 3) A partial rotator cuff tear of less than 1 cm.; and 4) A complete tear of 1 cm. or more.
Sacrum - Group of five fused vertebrae located just below the lumbar vertebrae of the low back.

Scapula – Shoulder blade.
Sciatica – Irritation of the sciatic nerve resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the leg.
Sciatic Nerve – Major nerve that carries impulses for muscular action and sensations between the low back and thigh and lower leg; it is the longest nerve in the body.
Shin Splint – A catch-all syndrome describing pain in the shin that is not a fracture or tumor and cannot be defined otherwise.
Sorbothane – An energy absorbing polyurethane utilized in some foot orthotics to absorb shock forces of the foot.
Spasm (Theory) - Muscle soreness induced by exercise; is the result of reduced muscle blood flow, which results in pain.
Spleen – Large, solid organ responsible for the normal production and destruction of blood cells.
Spondylosis – Inflammation of one or more vertebrae.
Spondylolisthesis – Forward displacement of one vertebrae over another below it due to a developmental defect in the vertebrae.
Spondylosis – Abnormal vertebral fixation or immobility.
Sprain – Injury resulting from a stretch or twist of the joint and causes various degrees of stretch or tear of a ligament or other soft tissue at the joint.
Sternum – The breast bone.
Steroids – Any one of a large number of hormone-like substances. See Anabolic steroids and cortical steroids.
Strain – Injury resulting from a pull or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes various degrees of stretch or tear to the muscle or tendon tissue.
Stress Fracture – A hair-line type of break in a bone caused by overuse.
Stress X-ray – A continual X-ray taken when a portion of the body is stressed to its maximum in order to determine joint stability. This is a test utilized in some ankle injuries.
Stretching – Any therapeutic maneuver designed to elongate shortened soft tissue structures and thereby increase flexibility.
Subluxation – Partial dislocation of a joint. The term usually implies that the joint can return to its normal position without formal reduction.
Talus – The ankle bone that articulates with the tibia and fibula to form the ankle joint.
Target Heart Rate – A pre-determined pulse to be obtained during exercise when circulation is working at full efficient capacities.
Tarsals – Group of seven bones of the foot consisting of the calnavicular, talus, cuboid and three cuneiform bones.
Temporomandibular Joint (TMJ) - The articulation of the jaw and skull; considered by some to be vital in resolution of injuries throughout the body.
Tendinitis – Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.
Tendon – Tissue that connects muscle to bone.
Tennis Elbow – General term for lateral elbow pain.
Thoracic – Group of twelve vertebrae located in the thorax and articulate with the twelve ribs.
Thoracic Outlet Compression Syndrome – A neuro-vascular disorder of the upper extremity common in throwing.
Tibia – Larger of the two bones of the lower leg and is the weight-bearing bone of the shin.
Tomograph – A special type of X-ray apparatus that demonstrates an organ or tissue at a particular depth.
Trachea – The windpipe.
Trascutaneous Electrical Nerve Stimulator (TENS) – An electrical modality that sends a mild current through pads at the injury site which stimulates the brain to release the natural analgesic, endorphin.
Transverse Process – Small lateral projection off the right side and left side of each vertebrae that functions as an attachment site for muscles and ligaments of the spine.
Trapezius – Flat triangular muscle covering the posterior surface of the neck and shoulder.
Triceps – Muscle of the back of the upper arm, primarily responsible for extending the elbow.
Ulna – Forearm bone that runs from the tip of the elbow to the little finger side of the wrist.
Ulnar Nerve – Nerve in elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing.
Ultrasound – An electrical modality that transmits a sound wave through an applicator into the skin to the soft tissue in order to heat the local area for relaxing the injured tissue and/or disperse edema.
Valgus – Angulation outward and away from the midline of the body.
Varus – Angulation inward and toward the midline of the body.
Vasoconstriction – Decrease of local blood flow.
Vasodilation – Increase of local blood flow.
"Wind Knocked Out" – Syndrome describing a contraction of the abdominal nerve truck, the solar plexus, as a result of an abdominal contusion.
